North Carolina Whig.

"Be true to God, to your Country, and to your Duty."

VOLUME 6.

CHARLOTTE, N.C., JUL Y28, 1857.

a window

THOMAS J. HOLTON. EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

TERMS:

The North-Carolina Whig will be afforded to sub-primers at TWO DOLLARS in according TWO at the cud of the year. Nepaper will be discon-tioned until all acrearages are paid, except at the option of the Editor.

Advertisements inserted at One Dollar per square (In lines or loss, this sized type) for the first inser-tion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Court ad-vertisements and Sheriff's Soles charged 25 per cont higher ; and a deduction of 334 per cent. will be made from the vegular prices, for accertisers by the year. Advertisements inserted monthly questerly, at $1 per square for each time. Semi shiy 75 cents per square for each time. 1." Postmenters are authorized to set as agente

Poctry.

THE SEATON.

Wish the grave that was newly made. canada sextan aid on his earth-wern spade His work was done, and he paused to wait The fournal train through the open gate : relie of hy gome day - was he. And his locks was as white as the formy seaand three words exme from his lips so thin, I gather them in ! I gather them in !

"I gather them in ! for more and buy, Year after year of grief and joy, Fyr builded the houses that he around Is every nook of this burial ground Mather and daughter, father and son, ome to my solitude one by one-But come they strongers, or come they lin, I gather them but I gather them in 1

Many are with me, but still I'm alone I For king of the dead-ond I make my throne On a monument slab of marble cold ; And my aceptre of rals is the spade I hold. me they from cottage or come they from hall Mankind are my subjects-all, all, all, Let them inder in pleasure, builtarly spin, I gather them in ! I gather them in !

"I sutter thein in-and their final rest Is here, down here in the each's dark breast "-And the statem coused -for the funeral train and mately aver that solemn plain I And I said to my heart when time is told, And mighting when than that sector's and Wall sound afer the last transfis dreadful d "I gather them in f I gather them in ""

Miscellancous. From the South Carolinian TEB BBOTEBBS, BY J. W. ERVIN.

" but bring on that man," continued he, may innocent of the crimes laid to his charge. | brother's recognition, as he was averaging on t ... Neom the National Latelligences. pointing to Carlton, who was fearfully pale A thief and morderer never marched to the verge of the cataract. and silent. OUR RELATIONS WITH NEW GRANADA-There was now no longer any motive to The Navy Department is in possession of Forcing the unhappy man along, the dense corrowful but screne air with which he trod detain a more spectator, but the gratifica- the following late and interesting intelliand curious throng followed Happerscoldt along the crowded thoroughfares, followed tion of a morbid canosity, which I confess genee: and their spokesman, as they led the way by the jeers and fierce cries of thousands, I did not feel, and Furned my back upon up stairs to the chamber, where the body of with scarce a heart to pity or commiserate the crowd and hast-ned away, desirous of DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if payment he up stairs to the chamber, where the body of with sea adaved for three months is no THREE DOLLARS the murdered man lay. The door of the his fate.

few who could press near enough, beheld a reach, it was filled by an excited erowd, squares, the booting of the crowd caused ghastly and a horrible sight. The throat whose murmurings fell upon the car like the me to look back; and I saw a dark object I shick from a reliable source) giving the didates are elected. of the unhappy man had been cut from ear roaring of an angry sea dashing among dangling from a bean that projected above to car, and his body lay drenched in its own breakers, gore. The noble air of confiding frankness ; What a terrible monster is an infariated It needed not the confirmation which I and simplicity, that had charmed me so mob, in the hour of its anadness and power, received from the muth of a spectator, an Nathan Kartright, Esq., British Consul at South of Spain.

much on the previous night, when I met him when it chafes and roars through the streets hour later, to satisfy mo that the elder Carthagena, has written to Capt. Erskine, for the first time, was still stamped on his of a great city, ungoverned and ungovern-pale features, and an agreeable and manly suffe still rested on his lips, as though his great, binded by passion and prejudice, wound had not awakened him from soothing and bereft of those generous impulses which Six months later was sent for late at plead ever with the brute for the helpless night to pay a profesional visit to a miner As yet, the collected multitude were quiet and submissive. It is the most appaling of who had been stabled in an affray. A have been sent to the New Granadian Minand orderly, but their pale and excited faces all spectacles to one who is himself free glance satisfied no that he could not live told that it was only the stillness that pre- from the vortex of moduess and passion on an hour, and I aw no reason to conceal eedes the storm. Exclamations of pity for which it is borne. It is like a huge rock the fact from km. He received the anthe dead, and of indignation against his on a mountain brow, which the arm of a nouncement sulenly and without exhibitmurderer, were indeed heard on every side; child or a breath of air may set in motion, ing any emotion. He pulled a ring from the fact to any ships of war which might be but, as yet, there were no manifestations of but which no power can arrest in its "arviolence and misrule. rowy flight " as it rushes down with se- word. "A foul and dastardly murder !" ex- celerated speed, crushing all obstacles that "What do you wish me to do with this?"

claimed the spokesman of the crowd, as- lie in its path. after an examination of the body—he again arranged the covering, so as to conceal the gore in which the body lay. "A terrible butchery, indeed, of a noble and confiding after an examination of the bedy-he again How captious and fickle, too, is the tem- which was ut the initials, J. R. H. ... Did confirmation of the above as follows : pealing to Happercoldt, and pointing to with the agony of its victim.

That terrible rush of thousands through Hargeve's, do with it what you will, ward Carlion "I will relate all I know of it," answered the streets, bearing a poor creature to the he has a nother send it to her. I need not subject. Happerscold: ; and, turning to the crowd, gallows, as impotent on the dashing tide as hide ne fact now ; it was I that murdered is the British navy, for the exhe impartially recounted the facts already a leaf before the storm-that dreadful march him, and that bauble was all I gained by in possession of our readers.

Sorre him as he served Hargrove !" Such The sullen murmurs of the angry and ex- done. Ask me no more questions-I would and similar eries for vengeance burst from cited populace, whose siler passions reveal- sloep tow." the wildly excited mob, when Happenscolit ed themselves in rihald ouths and frantie. Theassassin turned his head to the wall were opened, pittols were drawn, clubs tion, and eyes glearning with the intoxicabrandished ; while a few of the more violent, ting madness of the hear, rings in my ear armed with such weapons as chance furnish- still, with a weird-like power that cannot be ed, made a rush to inflict instant and sum- broken.

mary vengeance on the prisoner.

violence of a releatless and an infuriated pulsive aspect. mob, when a circumstance for a moment. The leader of the mob and their paromer, meet with rare specimens of human nature directed their wrath, and gave me a hope together with those who immediately guard- in some of the courts of North Carolina .---diverted their wrath, and gave me a hope together with those who immediately gave in some of the courts of thorn Carolina and Chamber of Representa-that they might yet be induced to surrender ed him, had halted on the sidewick, at the their prisoner to the lawfully constituted door of a barber's shop, to paralt me and door of a barber's shop. The and door of a barber's shop, to paralt me and door of a barber's shop. The and door of a barber's shop and door of a barber's shop and door of a barber's shop and door of a barber's sh der eiremestances more favorable to justice firutal wrotch thand propose to the mob, in gives it under the head of " Legal Pro- the present conditions of the relation he-While I still stood confronting the mob, and to moughenisted to excite their laughter, coedings :" shielding with my own body the unfortunate ter- the prisoner should be shaved, and Concentration in the prisoner should be started, and the started position among his tableaux which was presented I can never. The back beaver we have been a claumber, that open upon the countrymen. Action for work and labor done in cut. The back beaver we have been a claumber, that open upon the countrymen. Action for work and labor done in cut. The back beaver we have side of a claumber, that open upon the countrymen. Action for work and labor done in cut. The back beaver we have side of a claumber, that open upon the countrymen. Action for work and labor done in cut. The back beaver we have side of a claumber that open upon the countrymen. Action for work and labor done in cut. The back beaver we have side of a claumber that open upon the countrymen. Action for work and labor done in cut. The back beaver we have side of a claumber that open upon the countrymen. Action for work and labor done in cut. The back beaver we have side of a claumber that open upon the countrymen. Action for work and labor done in cut. The back beaver we have side of a claumber that open upon the countrymen. Action for work and labor done in cut. The back beaver we have side of the started position among his and set off. In the presented to the started position among his at the presented to the started position among his at the presented to the started position among his at the presented to the started tot the started tot the started tot the started to larget. The book-keeper was just within way of a claumber, that eper a beautiful girl A wild shout of approval, and an explothe door, and near the centre of the round gallery where we stood of a beautoid girl A wild shout of approval, and an explore the ditching perfect and shout of the proposal. I all about the bacon. "A wild shout of approval, and an explore the ditching perfect and shout of the proposal. I all about the bacon. "You say your date the floor in his terror." A did not do it ! Merciful heavens! Law "I did not do it ! Merciful heavens! I ar the quick instincts of her young heavt stern and mi-taken man; but far superior hing like an uster, and almost et sing with bring the matter to conclusion without furthaffright. "Hear me, sir, hear me " and springing forward, she threw her arms followed at his beels. I expected to see "Liar, thief, and surderer i" should his neck, crying shu's available and hosthing and abhorrence written upon his and springing forward, she threw her arms followed at his beels. I expected to see witness Har, third, and "Don't your and y get car, and b Happer-coldt - ah a threatening gesture, despairingly, "My father, th' my father?" face, but he, too, had eaught the spirit of from defendant in pay for that ditching The unfortunate n an was deeply moved, the mob, and was drunken with excitement. you shall be made a terrible caample. You He folded her in his strong arms, and his "Bring him in " should he, with a laugh, conas he entered the shop, " his head is our deserve to bang, and your shall hang this it was a spectacle that specied to every property new, and we must have it cared for live ou last summer?" ring till the slarm summons a crowd together, bosons, and I looked to see every heart at our own expense. It is useless to appeal to quibbling lawyers melted into tenderness and pity. The greater It snother minute the unfortunate man and packed juries, for justice on such part of the mob, indeed, shrank back, abash- had been throst into an arm chair, and the criminals as he is. Strike the bell! Sound ed and moved, the eyes of some were even barber, with trembling hands-for he well key." the alarm ! He shall have prompt justice !" filled with tears ; yet there were still a few knew how trivial a circumstance might call he sharm ! He shall have prompt justice !" filled with tears ; yet there were still a low knew how trivial a contained in the precoding including indices and generatine, at the source in the source proaching the excited Happerscolds, who in crime, and seared with guilt-who clamor- was removing the long growth of beard from other. was foaming with indignation, " have a care ed aloud for his immediate execution. When the free of their victim, what you do ! It is easy to set mischief about, men leave the landmark of law and order. Bidding him be expeditions, the leader dant ?" but it is impossible to curb or restrain it ... it is the most brutish that leads the fore. of the mob returned to the deor, and stood enhaly conversing with those around him. I know nothing of this man, but I sm "Even the guilty," said Carlton, speal- "He is shaved, sir," said the barber, in the question." morally convinced of his innocence. Carry ing to the spokesmon of the mob, "claim trembling accents, after the lapse of but him quietly to prison, and let justice be done some privileges ; much more may the inno- little more than a couple of minutes. cent claim the right of speaking to his "Lot's see if you have improved him, "We have had enough of ceremonies, daughter in private before he is dragged to Francois," answered the hader of the rab- tones of thunder.)

UNITED STATES STEAM FROMETIC REASONE, 7

AsrivwalL, June 25, 1857. sleeping chamber was thrown open, and the As far down the street as my eye could tastrophe. When I had passed by many in-chief, I have the honor to inform you that escaping from a sight of the impending ca-Sin : In the absence of the commander. poel on the 6th inst. most encouraging prospects of a speedy settlement of all the points at issue between had been suppressed.

" BRITISH CONSULATE,

"CARTRAGESA, June 20, 1857. § istor at Washington to cede every thing to New Granada with hostile intentions,"

The acting United States Consul at As-If the present mail to General Harren on the

I am indebted, sir, to the courtesy of Capt. truct from Convol Kartright's letter, furnishing the first information of this important determination on the part of the Granadian Government; and as Mr. Griffith, from whom Mr. Kartright derived his information, is the British Charge d'Affaires the accuracy of his statement. Capt. Erskine assures me that it may be entirely relied upon. Should official notice of the fact, be received by me in time for the ensuing mail it will be duly transmitted.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant, J. B. MONTGOMERY, Commanding U. S. Frigate Roanoke.

The Hon. ISAAC TOUCEY, Secretury of the Navy,

Advices from Bogota state that the New all, authorizing the President to settle the pending questions with the United States by a convention, without the necessity of rati-tween our Republic and the Republic of the Action for work and Inber done in LATER FROM EUROPE. OUR RELATIONS WITH NEW GRANADA. ARRIVAL OF STEAMER ATLANTIC. NEW YORK, July 19.

> Sth inst. The steamship Canada arrived at Liver-

The second election has taken place in seen from my paper of yesterday, that Dr. intelligence has this day been received (as Paris, and all three of the opposition can. Mitchell is dead !

our Government and that of New Granada. | There were tokens of discontent in the started for the Black Mountains, together by a targe majority. and flour is larger than was anticipated.

each 2,500 hales, leaving 16,000 hales of The distance is about ten miles.

And is this his murdlerer 1" asked he, sp. playfulness is only that of the tiger trilling "Ayel and would to God you had never them at once and on the best possible terms, on Thursday the 18th. Convols were quot through a dense forest of balsams. The

A GLASS OF BRANDY

Can't hurt anybody ? Why, I know a per- ment. By the time he reached there it on, yonder he is now, on high change, a must have been very dark. He followed the presimen of munity beauty, a partly six faster. stream about two bundred yards over rough He has the bearing of a prince, for he is one banks, when he cause to a water-fail, and of our merchant princes. His face wears in attempting to pass around this, holding the buy of health, and now at the age of on to the laurel busices, his feet slipped and tif's odd, he has the quick, elastic step of he fell, carrying with him the laurel and a at Bogora, there can be searcely a doubt of our young men of twenty five, and none more large quantity of the most with which the full of mirth and wit than he, and I know rock was covered. The tock on which he he never dines without brandy and water, was walking was of a shelving nature. The and never goes to hed without a terrapin or water at the foot of the falls, was about fifoyster suppor, with planty of champagne, tecu feet deep; into that he fell.

of good liquors.

of sufe brandy-drinking was a relation of appearance, I beard say, was as if he had Granadian Senate has passed the following outs. He died in a year or two after that lain to rest. No struggle indicated on his of chronic diarrhows, a common end of those appearance.

who are sever drunk, nor ever out of liquor. He left his six children, and he had ships GALLANT BEARING OF LIEUT. BA-alimentary canal was a mass of disease ; in Licut. Baker, a native of North Carolina, the midst of his millions, he died of mani- acted a distinguished and gallant part ---

NUMBER 22.

DEATH OF PROF. MITCHELL.

The Ashboro' Bulletin publishes the following letter to a friend in that place, which The Collins steamship Atlautic has arris. marrates the manner of the death of Prof. ed at this port, with Laverpool dates to the Mitchell more in detail than any published account we have yet seen : ASHEVILLE, July 9th, 1857.

DEAR FATHER :- You ere this will have

The minute eircumstances of his death The Revolutionary movement at Naples are as follows : He came here about three weeks ago, stayed a few hours and then I with his son and daughter.

Mr. Roebuck's motion, in the English His object was to make a thorough survey House of Commons, to abolish the Lord of the Mountains and ascertain by actual Lieutenancy of Ireland, had been defoated measurement observation, their exact height. He had about hall completed his labor, on The Corn Association had published ex. Inst Friday week (June 26,) when leaving timates showing that the stock of wheat his son and their guide at the Mountain House, he started to go across the top of The French harvests are most productive, the mountains into Yaney county, to Caney Cotton was bouvant and unchanged .- river Settlement. He was alone, his son not The sales for the week were 21,000 bules, accompanying him on second of a wound of which speculators and exporters took he had received on going up the mountain.

all descriptions to the trade. Wheat was It seems he kept the main road to the dull, and red had declined 2d per 70 lbs - top of the mountain until he passed the Flour was dull. Corn closed with an ad- turn-out to U. R. Settlement-the turn-out vancing tendency, but with the exception of being nothing but a blazed path. It is sup-> trail indicated that he soon left this and tound his way to Car Tail Fork of Caney river, thinking, it is supposed, that he would by following this down come to the Settle-and more than that, he was never known to He was found on Tuesday about three be drank. So here is a living example and o'clock, and his body was to remain in the disproof of the temperance twaddle about water until a coffin could be prepared-the the dangerous nature of an occasional glass, icy coldness of the water preventing decomand the destructive offict of a temperate use position. The water is so clear that anything on the bottom, at evon a much greater Now, it so happened that this specimen depth than fifteen feet, can be seen. His tion. This is not the half, reader. He had For the knowledge of the incident, the cor-

We were now standing in the narrow along the streets of the city, its course was Sally Dillard " Case, to which allusion is gallery, separating the rooms on the upper obstructed by a number of heavily laden made, although it is well known that prefoor, and I threw myself between the mob waggons that blocked up the way. The im- eisely such proceedings never actually took and their prisoner, and endeavored to ex- patience caused by the delay was extreme, place, yet it may not be amiss to state that postulate with them. I might as well have and, in the present temper of the mob, might me circumstances which prompted Hamilstriven with the wild waves of the Atlantic have vented itself upon the unlucky team- ton C. dones, E-e, in penning the facutions when they are lashed into fury by the storm. sters ; when a circumstance occurred which article, occurred in South Western Virginia, I had nearly failen a victim to my rashness, diverted the attention of the crowd and of- and were related to Mr. Jones by a talented ended his norrative of the facts. Knives gesticulations, in savage shouts of exulta- and slept-his last sleep !

As the mobe went heaving and swaying of the Northern press. As to the " Cousin

I had hearly failen a victom to my the flores hibited the mob under a new and more re- young lawyer :

of death-has haunted me with a demon- it ; for his gold was safe in the care of his " Hang him -hang him I Cut his throat! like distinctness, from which I cannot escape. friend, who was hang for the marder that I

A HARD CASE OF A WITNESS.

We find the following going the rounds

057 It must be conferred they sometimes asked I, reparding the ring attentively on pinwall (Mr. A Murrell) also writes me, in Instructions will probably be transmitted by [ed at 92] a 914.

seen mothere," replied he ... That ring is innotent of this !" ejaculated Carlton "

you have butchered him for his gold, and leserve to hang, and you shall hang this silent tears fell fast and free.

You may live to repeat this rash step bitter. front of the column, according to law.

farces," returned Happerscoldt, with bitter. Prison. The people must take the law into their own mob, shaking his head stornly, but speaking sent.

slarm, which arrested the passers by and ready. You understand me ?" heard, and expecting to see clouds of rocking nie to desist, as I might involve myself in tones of intense agony : smoke heralding the beginning of some extreme danger, without in any manner "Simcon, my brother, is it indeed you " clang. The fact of a man found murdered a dreadful tragedy, which could only be were solding in each other's arms.

ble, walking up, and gazing into the face of uess, "The country has grown sick of them. "Not to prison," replied the leader of the the prisoner, who had just riseu from his of this trilling with your calored will copper and arsenie. These some time before it was communicated to serve, who were in the saidle waiting for in tonos so low as to escape the ears of I did not have time to heed the many It was now too late to expectulate, for the Carlton's daughter, " not to prison ; but to unfeeling gibes uttered by those of the mob, bell in the cupola of the hotel was swaying death ! You can retire into this room, and who gathered around the man so strangely to and fre, with its iron tongne sounding an in five minutes by the watch you will be metamorphosed under the hands of the bar-Men might be seen hurrying from behind into the chamber, followed by the angry and with surprise. His contemptuous scowl or the court will be compelled to deal with A Nonne Bor - A boy, named Nateinse fees and sheps, anxiously questioning the I employed the biref respite allowed him stars. The color fled from his checks, and you. Can't you say yes or no?" passers by as to the cause of so unusual an in seeking, by argument and entreaty, to his face became fearfully pale. With a office ware aware of the hardships endured faces were more the leader of the mob from his territion decomposition and bacon from the way solving the doer of the mob from his territion and troubled faces were more the leader of the mob from his territion and bacon from the way solving the doer of the mob from his territion and troubled faces were more the leader of the mob from his territion and troubled faces were more the leader of the mob from his territion and troubled faces were more the leader of the mob from his territion. starm. Curious and troutled faces were move the leader of the hands upon the shoulders of Carlton, and the defendant at the time referred to in- and pushing it before him while he swam, fits; forgets to pay her milliner; cuts her tract above is from public documents and the defendant at the time referred to inthe quarter of the city where the alarm was was firm and inexorable. He kindly warned almost choking with emotion, exclaimed, in quired the court."

highty conflagration. Shouts were heard benefitting the object of my compassion. I Starting at this unexpected address, Carlhighty canflagration. Shouts were heard benefiting the object of my compassion. It ton raised his head, and their eyes met - dum bin gone and est up i but," (planting grave. neu hnrrying along to the common centre, aching heart, concluded to hold my pence. With a glance of recognition, he sprang forwhere the alarm bell kept up its terrible and to make no further attempt to prevent ward, and the brothers so long separated with, "to the best of my reckerlection, if in his hed, and of the arrest of his assassin averted by the strong hand of brute power. It was a painful and harrowing spectacle, and then again he moughta t. while hurrying away with his booty, was The five minutes allotted to Cariton rolled such as might have moved the most obstiwhispered in the streets, and flew on the rapidly away, and the mob-impatient to nate to releat, whose hamanity was not alto-accordingly. wings of the wind, to the remotest and most begin the bloody tragedy-clamored about gether forgotten. But the die was castthe tiger thirst for blood was excited, and essive beacons aver a long tract of country the chamber door, but his daughter, with no more, till it had satisfied its fury. It termoon took it into their heads to clean out soon make this sum reach $100,000. Peen-A man murdered in his bed I" That the strong instincts of flial affection, clung was too painful to witness the separation of an old cannon which probably had not been marily, this is princely renumeration, the turrible sentence to startling to him, and would not be separated, until a the brothers, who had met after so long an used since the Revolutionary war, and which largest, probably, ever paid to any author future. The republican members of the him, and would not be separated, until a the brothers, who had met after so long an used since the Revolutionary war, and which largest, probably, ever paid to any author future. The republican members of the him, and would not be separated, until a the brothers, who had met after so long an used since the Revolutionary war, and which largest, probably, ever paid to any author future. tire of midnight darkness and crime-of un- couple of wretches in human form, tore her absence, under circumstances so peculiarly was lying near the Bethel Church, on Wa in so short a time. guarded repose and heartless treachery, away, and placing her, in an insensible con- calculated to sadden the last moments of ter-street. Having cleared out the touch stealing through the gloom to consummate dition, in the arms of a female attendant, the one, and to embitter the existence of the hole and through that extracted some of One of the most eminent British physic unasimous vote : its fiendish design-flew from street to street, whom sympathy had attracted to the spot, other with remorse that should never slum the dirt, they pound in a small quantity of sizes has lately published a work, in which Resourced, That we nominate Jain C. Fre A HEAVY Chars.-The largest chain in and awoke the comparison the indignation hereid their victim down the stair case and ber again, nor cease from its bloody feast gunpowder and togethe distantially the most as a candidate for the Presidency of the the world is that about to be used in the the tide-some change in the savage impulse dered inevitable. He had east him upon plank, traversed the street and spent its to be assisted, at critical points, and cannot relation to the decision of the Baited States Rending. Pa. The value of the material to "Come, and you shall see for yourselves," the speaker, and to those who followed him; the ball. In my inmost soul, I believed is when he met the glance of a lite deliver of the lite of the glance of a lite deliver. The speaker, and to those who followed him; the ball. In my inmost soul, I believed is a ball of dollars.

Do you know what he got in pay for it is decreed-

" Didn't your daddy get care and bacon

" Never heard of his gittin no corn or ba-

"What did your daddy and his family

Virtles, mostly. "What sort of victuals !"

"Well, ment and bread, and some whis-

"Where did he get that meat and bread ?"

" Didn't he get some of it from defen-" He mought."

" I know he mought, but did he !" that's each of the contracting nations, know he moughn't."

from the defendant for ditching [

adzactly, you know." Here his honor interferes, and with a use of this kind of coloring matter. Many received the least intimation of the event, by the bridle, and the battle beaune hand her, for my whole stiention was given to storn, injudicial frows, additresses witness of the silks are supposed to have gone to she suddenly threw her handkerchief over to hand. All the Indians were killed or corner it went, like the lighting up of sue. Pale and sorrowful, Carlton appeared at senguance had been awakened to slumber Strongan -Some persons yesterday af the continued demand for that work will upon a living heart. It was too painful to a board before the muzzle to receive the theory of Hippogrates more than two thon- United States in 1860, upon the platform of operation of raising the ships maken at Se-"What's the matter here !" eried an ex- With motives far different from the prompt- witness the terrible and agening struggles charge of dirt. Much to their surprise, sand years age. The theory is that mod-rn principles adopted by the republican con birstopol. It is two hundred yards long and with motives is the matter here 1' eried an ex-with motives is interestion the prompt- winess the istrice and agonand stragges that we been in the habit of giving vention at Philadelphia in 1756, and upon each link weight three hundred pounds; it foremost among the crowd that the slarm side, watching for some favorable turn in destruction which his own hands had rep-about the bacon. You say your daily did all this ditch-in he decreed of April, 1850, at Panama, Joars ; another in the machinese, and the "A short time since a party of about 30 third and fourth of unearthy benaty, there Indians attacked a train, stole all their ani-

"He never got nothing, as I ever heard to arrange and settle by anneable agreenal of Health. to effect the territory of the National tiorernment or the property in the railcoad on the conclusion of the term granted in privilege to the present owners, will belong to the National Government.

thorized to demand and accept the arbitradecision in the matter shall be binding upon pressed in mind. So obvious was this to her ing within 65 or 40 yards of the camp with-daddy, or did he not, get corn and bacon substances adhered but slightly to the slik, her. While the gentlemen were in a room the order. were detected in handling, in the shape of by themselves, discussing the manner of con- They immediately came forward at a gal-"Well, now he mought; it don't occur powder, and were thus inholed by the lungs, veying to the daughter the sad intelligence, lop, charging upon the Indians. The In-An order was issued prohibiting the future and before she could by any means have dians met them bravely, catching the horses

the United Status.

(Now fully aroused and conscious of his ing on a dry rock or the beach, eight of a new bouner; turns the cold shoulder to former entises of Murfreesboro. Licut, B, danger.) "Well, Judge, I can't adractly the survivors, who would have otherwise her husband, and flirts with his "friend." graduated at West Point in 1851, and has remember, you know, seein' as how it's all met, with the bundreds of others, a watery never saw a thimble; don't know a daining. ever since he left the Military Academy,

The plaintiff saved his bacon. Verdict publishers of Dr. Kane's Arctic Expedition on Byron ; adores any man who grins he. 15, a legacy more cuduring than brass, more have paid upwards of 800,000 to the estate hand a moustache ; and, when asked the age precious than gold. of the deceased author, copywright money for nine month's sales of the work, and that the ditching perfectly, but seems to forget account of losses suffered by her eitigans on fuls had eaten up one daughter of fifteen officer alluded to in the parrative ;

Art. I. That the Freedout be authorized was a kind of graudeur in the beauty, but mais, and killed one man. An express was they blighted, and paled and faded into sent to Fort Thorn, and a detachment of Heaven, we trust, in their sweetest teens; Mounted Rifles, under the command of er requiring, on his part, the approbation of grave, and only one is left with all the senses, ordered in the saidle by the Col. Com-Congress, he heing solely prohibited from the each of them is weak as water. Why, manding, and ordered to overtake and chastic trenching on the rights of the national sovereignty in any respect, or from so acting as a note of it, it was so harrible .- Hall's Jours 40 minutes after the arrival of the Express, rapidly followed for upwards of 70 miles Gov. Maney's Deard - Sizaulan Pag. over a very ragged country, and through a the Isthmas of Panana ; which property, at sexrives r -- It is generally known that a terrible Canon. Unable to follow their trail daughter of Gov. Marcy passed the 4th of further, at night they encamped at 3 a, m. July in t. . family of an acquaintance in this At daylight the guide was sent out to dis-Art, 2. For the completion of the terms cirr. She formed one of a circle of friends, cover their trail, and soon returned stating including Indics and gentlemen, at the house that the Indiana were encamped about a in chearful spirits, it was observed in the selected ten men and attacked the camp, tion of some friendly Government, whose forenoon that Miss M. appeared to be des completely surprising them, and approach-companions, that it was made the subject of out being discovered. remark, when she said her mind was mac. At the first fire, six of the Indians fell, countably impressed with the fear that a the remainder fought desperately, approach-"We'l, he mought, and then sgin' you LET THE LADIES BEWARE - It is stated signal calamity had overtaken some mem. ing so near, that Lieut, Baker had to order that lately some workmen fell sick in Paris ber of her family. Early in the afternoon, his men to drop their rifles and draw their (With considerable excitationt and in in working on an apple-green silk dress - the news of the death of Goy. Marcy reached revolvers. Five of his mon were wounded, A piece of the silk was examined by a this city, and it was known to gentlemen and one was killed, so that he had to order

" Answer the question, sie and no more chemist, and it was found to have been composing the party in which Miss M. was his bugler to sound the charge for the re-

her face, and, evidently in deep grief, re- mortally wounded, and their animals, bows, tired alone up-stairs - Tray Whig, 13th, shields, skins and &c., were taken.

Lieut, Baker and his men, (says the cor-Lamontague, aged thirteen years, saved Tux Mongs, LADY .- The model lady puts respondent of the Express) describe greathat at different trips, he succeeded in land- poor relations; goes to church when she has we are proud to see such accounts from a needle from a crowbar; wonders where been encased in the most arduous duties puddings grow; eats ham and eggs in pri. of his profession. Even in youth he has Da. KANE'S WORK - The Philadelphia vate, and dines on a pigeon's log in public; already won a name, and achieved a fama my memory serves me right, he mought, Du. KANE'S WORK - The Philadelphia runs and after the last new fashion : donts that shall descend to his posterity and fami-

Descended of an honorable ancestry, it may be said of him " Decora decus addiss neutrin." It is a mortifying reflection that RESOMINATION OF FREMONT --- The New not a paper in his native State has yet nothe following resolution, in secret caucus, by mendation.