DESIRABLE INFORMATION TO EVERY BODY.

For some time past I have been engaged in business (known only to myself and one confidential friend), and for reasons which I have instructed for $100 each which has ever yet come under my notice of from $3,000 to $5,000 per annum—and being more engagements to go to the Eastern Cities next Fall, I am willing to give full instructions to the first to any person in the United States, who will remit me the sum of Two Dollars. I am confident from the success I have been favored with, and the many happy testimonials I have received from those whom I have instructed in the art, that those who are now clearing from $3 to $12 per day, to give every person a chance to enter into the pursuance of this valuable means of making a small fortune. There is no Humbug—but for business men allured to. Believing as I do that no one can be given an express interpreter, and I can also refer to persons in Chicago and Detroit, as well as to this place, who are at present now making from three to five hundred dollars per month. Direct (post paid) to the subscriber, and they may depend on receiving by return mail the desired information, with every instruction necessary, and the whole business explained in such a manner that a child can make a very handsome living at once. Several Ladies in various parts of the United States, whom I have instructed in the business, are now clearing from $3 to $12 per day;
