EXILE OF THE POPE.—The following startling announcement appears in the editorial correspondence of the Courier des Etats Unis:

"Pius IX has abandoned the project of interfering by force of arms in the affairs of the Legation, but in revenge, he has manifested afresh and more energetically than ever, the intention of abandoning Rome and accepting the asylum offered to him in the Balearic Isles by Spain. This voluntary exile of the Chief of Christendom will be a fact of which it is easy to appreciate the gravity, and France is exerting her utmost influence to prevent it. Our Ambassador to the Holy See, M. de Grammont, has just arrived in Paris, for the second time in less than a month, to make the Emperor thoroughly acquainted with the real state of things, and to receive instructions how to act in this imminent crisis. It is mainly owing to his efforts that blood has not flowed in the Romagna, and that the Pope is still at the Vatican; but we are informed that he is the bearer, on behalf of the Holy Father, of a sort of ultimatum from which there is no hope that Pius IX will recede. If the astuteness of Napoleon III should be insufficient to get rid of this last and most decisive complication, we are on the eve of the most solemn crisis in the history of Europe."

ROOSTEPHOBIA.—The Newport, Perry co., (Penn.) Gazette gives an account of the death of Henry Black, of that place, who undertook to sever the head of a hen, when he was attacked by a rooster, which spurred him on the hand into an artery. The wound at the time was deemed very slight, and soon healed, but about two weeks after the accident he was attacked with intense pain and sickening sensation of the heart, and continued to grow worse, and his sufferings became insupportable. At this date a remarkable occurrence took place, which is fully verified by many who went to witness it. He drew his entire frame together, as though to gain strength for the act, and his voice broke forth like the crowing of a rooster. This was repeated some time, and such was the similarity of voices, that outside listeners (for all could not gain admission) asserted their belief that it was a rooster. After four days of indescribable suffering he died.

PERSONAL.—We were gratified, yesterday, by a call from Mr. W. W. Walker, jr., of the Columbia Courant. Mr. Walker's visit to Charleston was for the purpose of meeting Mr. Ashmead, the London Attorney, who was charged with the transmission of the necessary legal documents to Mr. Walker, relative to his English legacy.—The chief papers were, yesterday, arranged before Robert Bunch, Esq., Her Majesty's Consul at this port. This visit of Mr. Ashmead to South Carolina will preclude the necessity of Mr. Walker's contemplated visit to New York. For the full reception of his legacy, he will be obliged to visit London about the middle of December. The gentleman who made Mr. Walker his heir, was Mr. Richard Aubrey, of Devonshire, England.—Charleston Mercury

A GOOD REPORT.—The Richmond News says: A lady of our acquaintance, who has sufficiently good judgment and sense to make herself an object of ridicule by wearing immoderately large hoops, was passing up one of our principal thoroughfares, a few days since, when she was met by a young man full of bad whiskey, who was laboring very strenuously to preserve his equanimity, and prevent the discovery of his condition. In endeavoring to avoid a collision with the lady in question, he lost his balance and stepped on the skirt of her dress, when he turned towards her and remarked, by way of apology, "Hoops are up too much room." The lady looked down, and very quietly retorted, "Not so much as whisky, sir," and passed on.

RUNNING WALKING.—It appears that the terrible bridge accident at Albion, was a result of the rope-walking mania. A man had erected a rope to be stretched across the canal and announced his intention to walk across upon it. The point selected for his performance was a few rods form the bridge, which was an arched structure. The rope walker had crossed half way, when the bridge, which was crowded with people and teams, gave in two at the centre, and men women, children, horses and wagons were precipitated indiscriminately into the canal. The loss of life will probably be found to be much greater than reported by telegraph.—Buffalo Observer

SELLING A COLORED PERSON IN ILLINOIS.—Recently, a free colored man, named Geo. Bell, was put up on the block at Carrollton, Green county, Illinois, and sold to the highest bidder. His offence was a violation of a law which prohibits the immigration of colored persons into the State. Having no friend and found guilty, he was fined $50, and not being able to pay the money, was sold to Mr. Felix Morton for sixteen days. It does not appear, says the Cincinnati Gazette, that this little transaction has been flesh created any convulsive excitement among the philanthropists of that State.

The Richmond Whig says:—"We stated a few days ago, that a leading Democratic paper in Georgia had come out in advocacy of the election of the Opposition ticket in that State. We have to state the same thing in regard to an influential Democratic journal in Mississippi—even in Mississippi—and we rejoice to have to cheering a sign to the Southern sky. The paper refered to is the Vicksburg Expositor, heretofore a strong and unwavering advocate of Democratic principles and measures."

A VERY DRY NURSE.—The England papers state that the nurse of an opulent family in London, who rendered the account annually for little nursery etceteras, among which she put down the modest sum of $1, for brandy to sponge the children with.

ANCIENT FAMILY.—It is related of a branch family of the Duke de Levis, that they have a picture in their chateau in which Noah is represented going into the ark and carrying under his arm a small box which is written—"Paper belonging to the Levis family."

At a late celebration the following toast was given, (the author of which "imbibed" when he got home:) "The Bible—the pulpit—the pettiocats—the three powers of the day. The first spreads light—the second spreads morals—the last spreads considerably."

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Nature, in her great laboratory, has stored some remedy adapted to every disease which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has succeeded in discovering a remedy for that most afflictive dispensation, the

DYSPEPSIA!

With all its lesser and numerous evils; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters a case of Dyspepsia cured, was a rare experience in medical practice. Now under the influence of these Bitters the rule is to cure, the rare exception, failure to cure.

Read the following, which the subscriber requests us to publish for the benefit of the afflicted:

An Obdurate and Inveterate Case of DYSPEPSIA CURED BY THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

The following from a gentleman well known in the region in which he lives ought to satisfy all those of little faith:

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 28, 1858.

S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston,—Sirs:—Nine years since I was attacked by that curse of all diseases, Dyspepsia, which so effected me as to cause great oppression, fulness, and bloating of the bowels immediately after eating, accompanied with terrible pains in the stomach, often occasioning nausea, vomiting, acidity, and headache, together with general debility and suffering, altogether rendering life a burthen.

After having tried every known remedy without effect, and despairing of ever regaining my lost health, I was induced to make use of the Oxygenated Bitters, the good effects of which were immediately visible on my health and system.—Before using a whole bottle I was entirely cured; and I feel a pleasure in inducing all like sufferers as myself to make use of this remarkable remedy. THEO. CALDWELL.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON, and for sale by E. Nye Hutchison & Co., Charlotte, N. C. f27

Persons afflicted with the Fever and Ague should not spare either time, trouble or expense, to procure DR. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS, whose beneficient effects upon the human system has been clearly proved to those who have been stricken down in a short space of time by this dreadful curse, whose cheeks are wan and meagre, and whose nights are sleepless and restless, and whose eyes are dim and sunken, with death staring them in the face, this compound must prove a blessing; snatching them as it were from the very mouth of the grave. None can know its true value until they have tested it.—When all others have failed, these Bitters have restored the sufferers to pristine health. Their popularity in all the Western and Southern parts should introduce them to all families.
