Whig The North Carolina

CHARLOTTE, N.C., FEBRUARY 18, 1862.

"Do true to God, to your Country, and to your Duty."

VOL. 10.

HRS. T. J. HOLTON.

Advertisements inserted at One Dollar personare sincero less, this sized type) for the Sestinser, and 25 conte for each continuance. Court ad-tisements and Sheriff's Sales charged 25 per whigher r and a deduction of 33 per cent. will out from the regular price, for advertisers are

1) Postmasters are authorized to act as agent.

spent

fairlifully tonied."

ANSWER TO "HE " DYING SOL. DIER."

"il come near they, tourade, near then, f'il my arms around then falses on aspent I will hear thee, And to thy friends all shall be to'd. And when in death time shall be alweping-Semimore on early to wake-I'm be weeping, annly weeping, For my lours feels as if 'swould break.

We will miss you, brother, mass you, When in costi then alt land low, corminate in camp be with us,

And on suty with us gu-And when the dis of battle's rolling. Thou'lt he about from the stead ... who obeyed your country's calling Eron at the risk of life.

I am listening, comrade, listening', To the words you have to say. But at to part with thee "to sad, Tis and to ves the : pass eway. But I hnow 'the Good's good pleasure That you now is for shall go. And he in Heaven with the angels.

And have your sins made 'white as show Cil tall your fisher, 1 will tell him, Poly and many, with withened hour, } That his pan hes gone to Heaten, And prayed in death to meet how there. And outer mother what an lower you,

Will ever prey time in press Till she, too shall poss attay,

I am fistaning, comrade, listaning. "Tis of your wife & know you speak-I will tall lige door you mineed her. Missed her ways mild and meth, I will sell her to kise thy boby. Like he him you just impressed 2 To hold her us whan last you held her,

Closely folded to your break. 1 will telf ber, surely tell ber. Il. w very dear alle man to you,

That you prayed the Lord to blass her, Which I pray Ha'll svar co. And now, dear brother you will have me, Oh, how and it is to part ! ire mi earth to see ther

Now that death has prereed thy heart.

IRS.T.J.HOLTON,INFIGURES AND PROPRIETNESS.DEFENSETERMS:TERMS:Terms:Terms:Terms:Terms:Terms:To Notice days - happy days constructed, and they have too, too quickly days when she sat at the old corth window, been destroyed. Days dark, dark and anxiously watching for some demonstration dreary seem to await me. It was joy that which would tell her that Charles was again saused my heart to throb theo, now it is soming to tell her of his coustant love, of in higher ; and a deduction of 33 per cont. will caused my heart to throb theo, now it is coming to tell her of the contact tow, or side from the regular pricts, for event. will caused my heart to throb theo, now his undying affection; it was at such times a term the regular pricts, for event. Will be include a curse; we lived for that her fields to to to prayer athy 15 cents per square for each time. Presents when sending in their accentionements of which taxs of functions desired or ather the number of insertions desired or ather the stinct terms they are, for no kind and affed her to fall, him, she had pointed out to him what he ather the function of the continued in the inserted unit forbid and charged actions's Uhariess is by my side. The bar- his present course, but as yet her entreaties ure, to obtain which he had taken his sud-room has now become his parlor, and and had been of no avail.

s clan of evil associates his hours are being. The sister of Annette Fenno, though yonny and inexperienced, was not unmind "Be of good cheer dear sister, you know ful of the great change which had taken the tears of his constant wife began to flow, the object of my mission. We should all place to ber brother to law, for the marks bot with angulah, not with sorrow, but with ways were ourselves to meet the meny ad- of that demon, whose power is sufficient to joy, fervent tears of joy. versities which ine our devious ways in destroy the character, the reputation, the Ouly two years have passed away, dear lifs; we should ever prove true in every life, and the soul of all those over whom situation which Providence may call us to it obtains a mastery, are sufficiently andi The clouds which now well from your ble for the must inexperienced youth to sight those happy days, upon which we detect.

sere wont to somment, may ere long pass. Having so often set upon his knee and assy, and you may soon behold that refor- listened to the loud tickings of his watch in mation for which you have so long and so those courtship days-pleasant days-when allog for which you have so long and so those courseling days persons days when inhfully tolled." "Ob," replied the wife, "could I, by having imbided some of those tender feel. All is quiet, save the hury needle of the "Ob," replied the wife, "could I, by having imbided some of those tender feel. All is quiet, save the hury needle of the ties. I tail you, cousin, you can never an should well his ward and sould have made some Hereulesu effors, banish from his signt ings which is three days are so manifest, it faithful wife, or the constant ticking of the bis evil as occates, I know that I could then is not to be wondared at that she should once rawsed warch. have an influence over him; but now, slas! still retain a strong love for him, not only my influence is nearly goue, and with it for the relationship which he now bors to my hope is fast waning; but my love and my prayers for him unver shall abate." "He will return soher to night, dear sis-Passessing a strong belief that her inflater for he promised us he sourd ; and then ence would greatly assist to and bringing with a wife a tender love, and a inter a pure about that reformation, for which her ristor affection. We will endeavor to win him had so long and so ardently rought, she re from his goil a subranas. But have I be is solved to spend a few days with her, in counting." Unaries Camdon's father was sne of the most unred usen in the rown, and his family the most influential. Yet better would it was off red. Three days had passed an ay have been for Accelte Femic has her its since ins enser's arrival during which thus or occupied a different sphere in life, for Charles had been in that state when to do The most tiek most's sone, he telted more 1; unfilted him for any official, or to re-upon his father steputation and wealth to ceive any admonition, however gettic upon his fathers reputation and wanth to calve kay accounting, now or particular in the internal action and the president himself. The initial night, however, he returned at an earlier hour them to be fragment in highs to win Charlos Candon, had assumed those neutroning arts, and be-Indicates there be writching sincing arrs, and Derived a second discover be writching sincing which which we do not all be a second discover dis would She mingled but hills on a series and arrow preferring rather the sweet society of her sister, together with that of a choice collection of buoks. She that of a choice contection of portation of ing but the gass would balls. Tails pread of the deal ing represente of ing but the gass would balls. Charles Caudion, and show he defined to pay his attention to ber, she enderstand of the balls of the table. Charles Com-pay his attention to ber, she enderstand of the balls of the table. case him with her mind instead of by co quettish airs, preferring rather to esplivate him with inward thought that butward draws, and in this she was successful; for Charles Candon had even an ugh of sodie- is he was wont t ty to know that true worth dues not cousiet him in that belief Ty to know that thus work in useril foring, not Long and ardenity did thusing and ardenity and kindly and af-in that which clothes the body, but in that fortionstely did they administer to him evwhich are contained in a well filled purse, ery comfort which are for to withstand but in those charms which are contained in those foeings which every word seemed to

And to be bound if I was shown were brought gue will have and using takes, whiten in the set takes in the state being to gue will have a supply is the I attrict then in reality, and Danes, ob-kind words that strengthened him -- it was those and the gue will have to supply is the I attrict then in reality, and Danes, ob-kind words that strengthened him -- it was the state being to gue glorious sport. I hope my sunt and "I feared, Fred, from your conduct, last kind words which he had received during Cousin Lucy are well."

ting into raptures of deligns at the bash to so and, but I feared it might get to be but as soon as obtained, a quick step could have been heard ansteuing toward the resi-dence of Charles Condou. The hopes of his faithful wife had began to weaken, but little Sosy remained firm in the belief that he would return sober, and with the treas-ure, to obtain which he had taken his sud-den dencerture.

bot with arguinh, not with sorrow, but with she really had the conscience to and noswored, joy, fervent tears of joy. Only two years have passed away, doar ''And you did not go !'' said he. fore it went further. You were right in your reader, but what a change has been wronget in that family during those two years.-The happy wife and husband can now be The happy wife and husbaud can now be recursuing the barbound there are no words, rep of his lowing wife - there are no words, rep around is fresh and delicies. It is not lowed for years are her father would be done so it you had not told me all. Bat now I will be "I thing the contrary," said he, "for I alls to withdraw my thoughts from her." there is no instring the rest, where are no words, rep around is fresh and delicies. It is not loved for years are her father would con-

ONE beautiful morning in June I received the following letter :

NEW YORK, June 20th, 18.

My DEAB COUSIN-1 will be with you

"I am g ad that it gives you so much "What asure. I answered, and turning round Walton ?" pleasure. anized off, much to the annoyance of my

Before going further it is necessary to give from the other." Before going further it is necessary to give from the other." Is way a cuim, loyary night. Not a breath of "Well, really, Mr. Leonard," said she, which second live one vast mirror, in which bours sud treas at my monters brother. He was been in the eivy was educated there, and now lived there, if e are said to be bandware by I looked in the direction indicated, and I have I have a cuim, loyary night. Not a breath of wind disturbed the lake, which second live one vast mirror, in which bours sud treas to a clearly as by day. There was one gird shout from all as we I looked in the direction indicated, and those who had seen him, and amonget them imagine my surprise, when I behald the hills and echoed all round. Is seemed to was my seter; I had useer my sett met him. Indy I had second from Utica to Auburn. selecome us forth. Never did a gayer par-Lwas, herever, much pleased at the prospeet of having a young companion; for al-though a rouple of year- you get than him, knew we would acon become friends ----My family listed on the shorts of Osneco All full the meaning of the secare with into Lake, shout six failer from Auburn, one their souls; for though when they first came all sorts were to be had in the lake in abin@aner, and game near the shore and they were silent, and walked along each wou her way to my heart. We tak over they were silent, and walked along each wou her way to my heart. We tak over the rede in the cars and car mere based they were silent. All full first wou her way to my heart. We tak over the rede in the cars and car mere ing along he was far from being "And continued in confidence. the "the same watch, the toxings of which "There will be several young ladies here in former days so delighted intile Sury, this evening, soil expect you will be pleased seemed to dance in its rays, and objects be." Nor an Uncommon Case - A traveler and surpried when you see some of them." fore indistinct were now seen almost as from Virgiuia, as his blooded horse, pletto-I wouldered as I drove off what she meant, clearly as by day, only the light was parer ale saddle hags, and hangling accountrance for I had not been at home long enough to and more hoavealy. The hail was in view indicated, stopped, at a comfortable wayknow many of the young indices who have in the next of and it was bathed in side into, in Kentucky, one might many yours hear, soil know of only one whom I would a fined of moulight. It never looked so ago. The innitories was a juris, where in them not be there. I had becaus acquainted ner and Danes leaking in one direction on days, and gave the stranger the best enterhappy days, which i tonget in which are but intery, on my the staged at in common, for whenever he would point as well as his only morely company to make point to the boar when I knew you would from college. The train had scopped at in common, for whenever he would point as well as his only morely company to make expect me, and the thoughts of its being Urea, when the conductor entered the out some spot more brandful than the rest, being last. Early in the moremag the stranwith her but lately, on my returning home the lake. They scemed to have thoughts falloment his table and bar would afford, cur, and asked. to Auburn kind words which he bad received during the previous evening that kept him from his morning dram. Ohl what will not kind words do. It was late before the watch was obtained, ing into raptures of delight at the beautions are sond to the second surprised at your not aneodote of the city, and at another bars-ting into raptures of delight at the beautions as on, but I feared it might get to be things to look to, that day : besides it is al in a short time would have done so, if you jay the country, unless you have lived in her do so, it his ward had loved her, but he one of our largest cities, where all is busile fortunately preferred another, and her fa-and confusion. To me, who have always ther had at length consented. lived in town, it is quite a treat to have "She was," he said, by may of explana-even an excursion in the country. But there tion, "a cousts of Isabella Uraham. You is the aid house," he exclaimed, as we came will be considered in the light of a very in full view of my home, "it looks as usual, dear criend, Fred by Gertrude; and, you and I declare I can see and ready to wel-some me, and Consin Lway too. But I say, courin, who are these other young ladies ! I expressed my entire ignorance of who they were. I toxiced, as we drew up at at teels wolded all were in the grove, the door, that Joseph gave a look of sur- making preparations to gass the afternoop

I fear Isabella found me a very dull eem ty set out for pleasure. Moonlight and such scenery are dangerous: and so I found it.

proposed a walk on the lake shore. All feit the beauty of the scene sing into but in these charms which are contained in the second of his self-clines land of his self-clines and our meets second to the head of his self-clines and our meets second to the head of his self-clines and bis induced him to be, but is the used as the second of the head of his self-clines and bis induced him to be, but the the head of his self-clines and bis induced him to be, but the the second of the head of his self-clines and bis induced him to be, but the the big hid clines being. And continued him to be, but the the second of the second of the second and the second of the head of his self-clines and bis induced him to be, but the the second of the seco had stopped at in common, for whenever he would point as well as his one more company to make and left us basking smid the pleasures of his companions; but soon the moeful truth friends than he supposed he had, yet it was; Meantime the train arrived, and with it I started. I know not why, but I felt a

NO, 46.

"And you did not go !" said he. "No doseps, I am gint you toin me to-"And you did not go !" said he. fore it went further. You were right in your "Certainly not," said I, "I had other conjecture, for I thought I loves her, and <sup>4</sup> Wr Dawa Countrs - 1 will be with you on the door, that Joseph gave a look of sur-on the dosh tust. I come by the cars to built before I could east the sindows; is presenting to possible. We arknow or are on do untions but start for the country -can do untions but start for the country, drive my lover to unit and Cousin Lucy, and I remain, dear coustu. I hastened home and handed this letter I hastened home and handed this letter To my mother. As the was reading it, my I hastened home and handed his letter. To my mother. As she was reading it, my Sever Loss entered, and hot need hast follows half of them in the face, and "Count Joseph coming," excisined La ey, gaily sating round the room, for Jo-seph was a great favorite of here, "how replaced I am Oh, Fred, are you not glud." The model was the withdraw to the parlor, she said. As we withdraw to the parlor, she said. As we withdraw to the parlor, she said. The model by the solution of the same introduced to the solution of t "What do you think of Miss Gerirude plane, and all agreed it would be the best "Which lady do you mean !" I replied, to go is pairs, a gentieman and lady is even "I am not interested enough, to know one boat; and of course I went with Isabelia. from the other." It was a cuim, locally night. Not a breach of

I am now the happy husband of Isabella ; and Joseph Danes and lady are with us on

THE PAWNED WATCH. BT IRA E. NORTHBOP.

"LET as hope for the hest, Annette. A reformation may pet take place. You know what Charles promised us last evening." "Ob, indeed, I know what he promised, and it is upon such promises that I have red for the past three years. Hope alone tse-ustained we through many a hard trial; through many a sleepless night and painful day. Hope, ab, blissful hope, thou art my only solace. But I fear I shall die hoping 649 for that which I have long and ardensly bught to produce, a thorough reformation kushaod.

evening, you know his firm resolve."

"Ob, I know it well, dear sister, but it pert, protect and delead ; but at last, Bu Was not his first promise; time and time as any his efforts fruttees, he returned to begain he has said that he would forsake his sative home, to share the genual surfles of tuinot, haunts, and abandon his owil asso his kind and affectionate wife. lates; but they have as frequently been broken. thed over him was often exercised, and in hopes that conseibing of a different ba with a beneficial result, but now, alas I dear ture lister, that influence is nearly gone, and and gloomy feelings and he see his old as with it my hope is fast waning.

" As I sit have in my lously room, how quesee, and in order to review his woun ooking out of our chamber window, watch-a became his lot. His father abgaged in speculations which provand for the first time Chavles Camilon beto support him, and he was at last obliged to leave the parents; roof, under which he had enjoyed as many happy days, and so many earthing blassings.

Un I coid, dreary misfortune, how many bright bearis have been dark-ned by thy presence, and how many hopes-bright and cheminu-have vanished at thy approach the water Care and sorrow are thy only followers, tears thy only companion. A touch from thy hand - ho matter how gentle-is keen ly feit, and our luftwet sime are often humned by thy subduing power.

Being entirely unfit for any kind of basiught to produce, a thorough reformation ness which requires constant attention or but not in as good humor as when he re-the character of my last, though idolized mental ability. Charlos Camton wandered tired. Having refrained from partaking from one place to another, in quest of some "But you know what he promised us last thing by snich he could monstain bimself and hur to whom he had vowed to "sup

A situation was at last offered him, which, The influence which I once poss- though meutal in its tendency, he accepted could soon be prosured. With and sociates non by one desert him in couse ean I keep my thoughts from wandering ded freiings the intoxicating cap was week back to those days, when you and I sat iy sought.

It was a long time before his constant ing the marry laborars, and listoning to the wife would believe that her kusband, with that an inobriate when sober always has Jather sugaged in speculations which prov ad to he of the most unwaves ful this sector, shall mean delight her with its censelies and for the first time (invite them to be the billing). The watch was present, some and for the first time Charles Content of months ago, for money to only report may spin to look around for business, and to call but never again shall a drop enter my to his aid abe little useful talent when he threat. To morrow the time expires for months ago, for moony to buy liquer with, which it was pawned, and it must, it shall be redeemed. I have not forgoile happy days, when I longed for the hand to sold was the cause of my early arrival hour this evening. To morrow I must obtain well that an allowon to the past, or a true picture of the present, would bring about these and and groumy feelings which not man, that he was not a lost and despised heine, the tender voice of his wife told him

re, and the cheering words of his little Surg

(as he was wont to call her) strengthened

Long and ardently did they labor with

It was a late hour before the tria senarateil The wife and sister were over delightod with what they had heard, the poble resolutions which had been formed, and the prospect of their being adhered to.

At an early hour Charles Camdon areas of his usual beverage before reliving, his nervis were all unstrung, his hand trem Hed.

Broyed up with an ardout desire to abtwo the watch, Onarles Candin wand-red from one friend to another, see "ing from rach a small amount, which in the Regte gate would enable blat to obtain the deares reasons. Had the friend to whom he made the first application turned him a eas, with that invalling language which th insurate too often res ites when appealing for money, his nobie resolution would no daubt have been weakened ; but instead of receiving from sunt triend words implying no confidence-no money, he received and leave her at the Mansion House ?"

1 replied that 1 would be most happy good forme. The evening do so. She was some parted and searce her at the Mansion Heuse?" I replied that I would be most happy to do so. She was soon seated, and the ents again under eay. I found my com panns a very beautiful young lady who exerging to rivit some friends. She said to take place the day following the is word for a point the group day who is a very beautiful young lady who is word for a point the group day who is a very beautiful young lady who is word for a point the group day who is a very beautiful young lady who is word for a point the group day following the is word of the day following the is word of the day following the is a very beautiful young lady who is a very b s giving to visit some friends. Sue said it was to take place the visit of observation and the some and the solution and the sol sarting her. Her name I did not ask; next day Danes and I went shooting, and d she, I supore, furget to tell it. The on our way to the woods passed tas heards of men anne between Unes and Aaburn seemed ful grove, we had beau in the most pro- yero-ore that I did not mention anything more lovely than it was then." ner i felt ware, but how i was ever going to then out shown beneath the shade of a first advertises for no approxime. He event and out who the was, I could not tail. I ald tree, determined, however, on estima at the Man-with us. ion House, and learning there all they and did fait justice to the visuals, while the linuediately suswered that I was : and It saused me a good many pauge to witness dignaut at what he supposed his said, Will you take this young lady in charge, the part of allocat out with ir aw my eyes from their in setting plan whiskey before him, Will you take this young lady in charge, the part of allocat oursed. Date: for his when the means of hearing meetar were so brewing unclar were so old woman drive it semethings with the other

(1) and I tok a pang at parting with trout. That I had never fait before. The ad-ber, "as it was isst ught. I mean faith and the structure whole uf-ber, "as it was isst ught. I mean faith the structure whole the structure is the structure of the structure is the structure and that I use has manifed anything adjoint more lovery than it was then. and why hange his sign on a such a tere, I and tree, to discuss the good things we used " A boy from the manage preferred." We ware hoth tired and nungry,

-A cuter, learning product leasts that an inobriate when sober always has bond band panty and to shorthant of the solution of th " for is is the ugliest mug I ever saw."

"Fred, I am going to get married."