TORGAL BARRET Pur Salle.

The Wanderer's Return.

BY MEE. COROLLA M. CRISWELL.

and the sum's puls rays o'er the forest throw

Twee on Autumn day and slong the " wood " A wandering pilgrim strayed ; The drops on his forehead silestly told That a weary march he'd made.

He paused on the brink of a streamlet may, And nighted as he guzed thereonfor his cheek there suited a quivering tear ne to the Spirit land-wandering there-Viela I thou'rt lost to me !"

ad then on his brow fell a shade of care, As he leaned against's tree.

For years I have toiled for gold; And when I returned to share it with no She lay 'mostle the church-yard mould's

And what is this draws of the earth to me, Naught, naught! I'll repair to the express free-Venls along in cour to

The cypress tree! 'scuth its quivering shade Her gentle young form doth lie; Then the Autumn leaves in the boar frust fade, I'll go to tier grave and dis !" The pilgrim moved on to the lane church yard, With many a heartfelt moan-

The grass with white mention flowers was star-

And the oppress leaves salled sown.

A monthly come by her head-stopp grew, And bloomed with a frageance care-Bloom on, ent bloom on ! line see then art frue

Cries the pugriss, knowling there Like me deat thou aling to the parted one's

Though enouner's warm smiles are gone bylike me will thus droop when the forest leaves

Like me wift thou silently die !"

The wild winds swept by with a meaning sound, And the pair heaves slowly fell-As the pilgrim knelt on the grassy mound

And murmured, "Oh! Goo! 'tis well!"

Then gilded the cypress tree; And the pilgrim sighed. "Oh! 'tie ewest to die!

Miscellancous.

"THAT OLD WOMAN."

BY MRS. B. S. GROSVENGE.

---"I DECLARE!" exclaimed Josephine Ainsworth, in a tone of mingled scorn and chaor a call from Mrs. Norton and her sister

"Nothing to your disparagement, or mine were rent away;" and as he spoke thus, of beauty.

"Since this time she has led a life of a calm voice, quite unlike her daughter's control, tears filled his eyes, and a tremor hamble usefulness, unseen by the gay world in which gale was once the brightest star.

the did lady might make her fortune, if she is tones of welcome, only to look upon his world only pretend Less Standish were it ifoless form which the spirit had not pretend Less Standish were it ifoless form which the spirit had not pretend Less Standish were it ifoless form which the spirit had not pretend Less Standish were it ifoless form which the spirit had not pretend the heart-years. It is tones of welcome, only to look upon his ward we cannot speak. Who can number rain may give it the rust. So far, we would only pretend Less Standish were it ifoless form which the spirit had not pretend the heart-years. It is tones of welcome, only to look upon his ward we cannot speak. Who can number rain may give it the rust. So far, we would not speak the heart-years. It is to support that the support is the support of the spirit had the cannot speak. Who can number rain may give it the rust. So far, we would not speak the heart-years. It is to support to the support is the support in the support is the support of the support is the support in t plative heart; the hour for ead regrets, new her ignorant as a shild. This was ill judg eling again the vista of by-gone years, and in the dust. in the changing firelight that alternately gleamed and flickered on the wall, he saw gy of grief by the necessity which compell a type of life with its varying gloom and ed her to take thought for the future. Credbrightness. Josephine, in the meantime, iters presented their claims ; her child must wholly occupied by a prospective party, be fed and clothed; and now there was no was engaged in considering what style of strong arm to come between her and these dress would be most in harmony with her exigencies. Like a true woman, she scorn-figure and complexion. Each color of the ed to be a burden to others. According rainbow was summoned for separate review: ly, refusing all appeauniary aid, she left her curis and braids, ribbons, feathers, and home with its aweet and sad-associations. flowers, were in orn the subject of mental parted with furniture, each article of which deliberation, the busy mind quite forgetting was linked with some fond remembrance, its higher destiny as a creature of immor-

"Josephine," said Mr. Torrey, suddenly sity.

"I have no recollection of the name," still remains to be recorded ! was the response. "Who sas she, uncle ! "One of the few who possess beauty of fea endowments beyond his years. To train tures and symmetry of form combined with him for a position of henor and usefulness, manners at once winning, dignified, and un-affected. Add to these attractions a warm, loving, sympathizing heart, and rare inteltestant endowments, and you have some needed rest, for the take of supplying him faint conception of Grace Hamilton in her with books, and teachers. lectual endowments, and you have some faint conception of Grace Hamilton in her dawning womanhood. As you may imagine, such a sweet bleason did not blush on the child the deeper thought and lofter reported that she was plighted to Frank Liedsey, son of the envised millionaire, and spiral Spencer, less wealthy than I give thee up! was the ery that burst feem for many imagine, was and to have remore proved inserted. By the envised millionaire, and she are spiral to both sizes. They had gained were reported that she was plighted to Frank Liedsey, son of the envised millionaire, and she wishing was and to have any in different directions, one which lights many bude off promise fixed upon little more, and made off to wards the ball-room. They had hardly reached the door when our half-conscious the fermer, but belonging to a more aristaterable was the fermer, but belonging to a more aristate family, was said to have won the prize. Byth these rounces proved inserted, and when He awent to the more and to the two two wards the continuous charge which was so favore which lights many bude off promise from the fermer, but belonging to a more aristate family, was said to have won the prize. Byth these rounces proved inserted the lines of the Chickahominy, and are now about the moment, and the special continuous charge which was so favore which lights many bude off to wards the door when our half-conscious, on which lies and the furious charge, and were reached the door when our half-conscious, on which lies to be sent with the deeper thought and lofter wards the ball-room. They had hardly reached the four wards the prome. They had paled to the child the deeper thought and lofter wards the ball-room. They had hardly reached the four wards the ball-room in the door when not be substant to both sizes. They had gained to remove the fixed upon little more, and made off to wards the other wards the ball-room in the furious charge which was so favore the feem of the child the deeper thought the deeper thought the deeper thought th enly treasures.

arranged, Gruce invariably had a cheerful was almost too much to be borne." to sked around him a portion of the san- so unfeeling as to let her suffer."

ternoon, she continued, and instead of en knew not Joseph. More thanking God for my quiet life. My home seems a peaceful ark of refuge.

"The lines are fullen to us in pleasant labor. places, yea, we have a goodly heritage, "Not long after her last bereavement, responded her husband; and when Grace one who had loved her when she was the date bounct and evertanting mass users.

It made me sich dress, bonnet, and wearer, all freeon up at the North Pole together,— layer of years, twining around and into that Grace Hamilton, in her unchanging what could Mrs. Norton think when she found such other, until they have become indisdevotion to the dead, and her holy trust in found such a piece of antiquity in our parler !"

Our hearts have grown together with the Though he did not press us claim, no including the unchanging and into that Grace Hamilton, in her unchanging and devotion to the dead, and her holy trust in solubly one. Sometimes I inquire what God, was infinitely more layely than she would become of either if the other part had been when in the full glow youthful were occasion to blush for a guest than I "This conversation with its attendant yet not unnoticed by the Father whose lov and this morning for Mrs. Denham."

oircumstances is impressed upon my mind ing oye is upon His fewliest child. Right"Did you notice her bound?" inquired by the sad events that soon followed. A ly beleiving that no employment is degra-Josephine "It was relvet, to be sure, but few days subsequent, I was startled by the ding which promotes the well-heing of saybody with half as eye sould see it was intelligence that Edward was dying, or, it others, she has always found something to all of two years behind the times. The might be, already dead. I hurried to the do, and consequently means of subsistence.

all that makes life descrable is gone." to a refined and cultivated taste. Hereon Mr. Torrey and his nicee were sitting fort had been considered in every house together when the twilight shadows deepen. hold arrangement, while of the pelty de-ed. This is an hour deag to the contem- tails of business, his coving care had kept practice nearly the most for each regress, new arr squareant and the flower too tenderly and unseen questionings with the past, ed faffection, for the flower too tenderly and unseen questionings of the future.— eheltered hows before the first blast, with Mr. Torrey sthoughts went backward, trav- its petals consided and its tendrils trailing

"Grass was suon roused from the letharand, looking to the widow's tiod alone for help, esumenced her struggle with adver-"Josephine," said Mr. Terrey, suddenly sity. The following years were years of interrupting this train of thought, "have trail. Patient labor, meck endurance, and you heard your mother speak of her early inneounplaining selfdenial—much as has been written on these themes, how much

"One bright spot, however, gilded her "A very lovely girl whom I knew when life's page. Her child was a lad of much Have you heard I was younger than I am now," he resumed, loveliness of character, possessing mental about me, Jane." endowments beyond his years. To train was an object for which she concentrated all her energies. She ate plainer food, wore [cearser garments, labored when she leve and practice of the right, being his "The blow came, and Grace stood alone only treasures." "I often saw Grace and her bushand at subtry sky bent frowningly above her, the of Teutonic orgin, his appearance well interpretation of marked their marriage, and when I marked earth was hard and frozen under her feet, crusted with dry mud, and his hat looking their perfect union of thought, interest, and the bleak desolation of nature was an like a collapsed steamboat cylinder, with their perfect union of thought, interest, and their perfect union of thought, interest, and and the block desolation of nature was an like a collapsed stamboat cylinder, with affection, I fameled that the bliss enge emblem of her chilled, desolated heart .- the top blown off, was brought up on comknown in the sinless bowers, of Eden had Pecuniary resources were exhausted by plaint of a dry goods man for stealing a day.

face, and the formerly received Edward "Where were her friends "interrogated became social and hospitable, as if wishing Josephine. "They certainly would not be ight that glowed in his own heart

"If am afraid we are too happy," said the response; "her only brother had removed to a distant home, and immediately their fireside, according to my frequent custom. "I have been making calls all the aftom, "I have been making calls all the afthan one heine rying Mrs. Lindsoy's new house, or Mrs. was thrown open to her, but the nobly re-Spensor's obsequious servants, I returned fused to accept its shelter, saying that chari-thanking God for my quiet life. My own ty was for the infirm and helpless, and not for those who had health and strength to led her little boy toward him for a good going and admired Grace Hamilton, and night kiss, he folded mother and shift to who, for the memory of that early love, his heart in allowing embrace. 'She determined to be bappy,' he said, when Grace and fortune to her acceptance. 'My affective to her acceptance. 'My affective to her acceptance. had gone up stairs with the little one; 'I tions are buried in the grave of husband bulieve she is the best wife in the world.— and child, also replied, 'and I would not and when they at last made their appears to say not be the world not took, after waiting until I thought they I thought I floved her, he continued, with he wrong you by giving you only the shatter sayer means to come, whe should be here deep feeling, when we were married, but we wreak of a heart. Henceforth I shall but that old Mrs. Donbarn, with her out of there are no words in the language strong live alone for God, and the cup that my should be appeared by the complete the shatter are no words in the language strong live alone for God, and the cup that my shall a not drink it."

ly beleiving that no employment is degra-

Away up in the northern part of Vermont says the Kuickerbooker, is a primi tive sort of little village, called 'The Gen-Here not long since, the rustic youths of the vicinity congregrated for a 'dance,' and 'dance they did,' said our informant, with an unction unknown to our city belles

One interesting young man having 'im bibed 'rather two freely became 'fatigued in the course of the evening and wisely con-the one I mean. Do you understand this, how came yes to steal this cordurar.

to go to church. pair of breedies ?'

but don't you know that this way of got- gun laves within a stone's throw of the place-ting new breeches and dresses is against where we write. This deadly weapon has want them to give security for your ap-pearance at court. You confess you stole anybody to awar to it."

going to steal der monish to pay for it.

expressed is, that the supherabundance of

MRS. T. J. HOLTON,
IDITIONS AND EXPORATIONS.

INVESTIGATION White will be found to be a second the large of the control of the second to the s plate. Harris's wound proved a severe taining supplies for further operations a-one, and he has come home to have it pro- gainst the snowny. But far above all this, perly attended to. The standard of the it will evidence to cold and heartless hing-Confederates was riddled will bullets, and land, and selfish and politic France, that Confederates was riddled will bullets, and tand, and sensen and points tracer, that presents a very tattered aspect, but it will doors are exacts that not only beat in universe be a noble and proud trophy of the sen with our own in our great struggle for courage and resolution of the man who bore interpondence, but have the national manit so hely through all the terrible scenes interest to according to the national manit so hely through all the terrible scenes interest to according to the national manifest of that eventful day.—New Orderns Delta.

No doors this friendly action, involving as if does great responsibility on the part pendent of the N. Y. Tribune, in McCel-

During the first day's skirmish on our A door ajar near the dance hall reveal: fight, two soldiers, our from Midne, two deed, invitingly, a glimpse of a comfortble other from Georgia, pested themselves be they said in our Nexican embrogia, rand bad of which be took possession with a hind a tree, and indulged in sundry shots, prespect of an undisturbed 'species.'

Puring the first day's sairming on of latter Governments have stood from us, there is good reason to hope they will, as the provided in the sunday and the provided in the same that the provided is the provided in the p It so happened, howbelt that this was time keeping up a lively chai. Finally, the ladies withdrawing room, and no soo that getting a little tedious, Georgia calls ner had he closed his eyes then a pair of blooming dames came in from the hall, and began adjusting disordered ringlets, the dim light of the tallow candle not disclosing the tenant of the bed. The girls way and misses. "Too high," says Maine, had tangues, like most of their sex, which "Now give me a show." Georgia pokes out his head, and Maine binnes away.— this way are a light of the most of their sex, which "Now give me a show." Georgia pokes out his head, and Maine binnes away.— claims and the manne of ner had he closed his eyes than a pair of out to Maine. "Give me a show," mean-Have you heard anybody say anything the two afternated several times, without about me, Jane?' hitting. Finally Maine sends a ball so as the process of the proce

DGTCH ENGLISH.

Jasob Exterbazy, a middle-aged man, f Tentone oven, his annearance well in

There appears to be a strong indication a general action on the Peninsula to-Rhown is the sinless bowers, of Eden had resources were examined by plants of any greatered by g ed in the hospitals, to repair to his post sited much surjectly and sensation.

> Bassuse mine precedes was sicht good go to church.
>
> A REMARKABLE GUN.—The Williams indebted to the attention of a firmid.
>
> It appears that New Orleans is destitute of fixed, and the chirty yards to make you at it has been achieving wonders wherever of fixed, and the chirty and Federal authority of breectes? Yaw, de schneider must have some for it brought down the game a eighteen huocabbage, and toder vat's left might do for dred yards, just twice the suggest range of my rrow, when I gets married. It would the enemy's weapons. At twoive hun-make a gost cost. dred yards it was as reliable as most gume 'l see that you are a man of foresight; at three hundred. The inventor of this law!' been invented a whole year, during I ton't care bout the law. I'm a worch time he has sought in vain to base it introduced. At last he has succeeded -Have you got any friends who will go The General who ordered the experiments which have resulted as are described has Pleuty of friends, and more dan I suppose you have yourself. Dey come and tarn number has been ordered. If we had swear anything. Dey awear vare I was them a year ago they might by this time i get us clear, have changed the whole face of the war - Oh, we don't want them to awear; we Bickmond Disputch.

> CONVEDERACE CURRENCY IN NEW URcorduray, and there is no occasion for LEANS. - Another instance of the noble and | The flummand correspondent of the Norself-sacrificing patriotism of the people of fork day fred asys Yaw, you find I meht tell a lie. Tuch New Orleans, is the fact that Confederate . The delegations from South Carolina man never do anything viels he afraid to tell Yaw, I did steal the stuff, but I can currency continues to be received at par, and terraps wanted only be President, before to despite the occupation of the city by the enemy. The Mayer of New Orleans says at all unsured defend forms of and Norin a public proclamation :

> who hold Confederate money, and wish to war for twenty years, rather than one juch rain may give it the rust. So far, we be part with it, can have it exchanged for city of Verginiz soil should be surrendered like, no blight of any kind has appeared bills by applying to the Committee of Pub. So let us have about surrendering upon either.—Spartanturg Spartan.

Spong Among the Pickers;—A corres-tioned by England and France, may em-bed by England and France, may em-tryll her in a war with Language but notwithstanding the distance at which the two latter Governments have stood from us, various supply departments, so mealously kept for the Arkansus Brigada All the tests and pump closes and bisukets and infin rabbers, and everything else. Don't forget nost!" And with this parting in- junction he and his "Are above Brigade" hurried on with the light. — Alex Englances.

Do you know what steal means? with a full carriedge box. If there is an in our power, happily, to satisfy the public action to-day the sound of the gains will desire for explanation from official document is one kind of steel, but not some I mean. Do you understand this. your, of fuseday merning, upon the sab> have coursed pro joint arrangements and agreements to obtain a supply from abroad. To this word, a heat is to be granted safe conduct from Minite and back again with four-ties Upple mass cars are to be run for the upper of transporting provisions, and boats are to pass up to Hell River, on certain conditions and under current restrictions. We shall publish these documents in the Elevening News of to day, being received at roulate are hour last argus for crest description in our unfortune sister. with the flag of trave, is the agent apport

THE WHEAT CASES - From numerous persons on sales day last we learn that the prospects of an abandant wheat and ear crop are exceedingly flue. The only fear no reason to reject it. These individuals he was contracted, is so on the contract of the sales of the sales