

CHARLOTTE: Thursday July 29, 1862.

FOR GOVERNOR, WM. JOHNSTON, OF MECKLENBURG.

Announcement. We are authorized to announce that Col. P. W. ALEXANDER is a candidate for the county of Mecklenburg as Senator at the next election.

The friends of John L. BROWN announce him as a candidate to represent Mecklenburg county in the House of Commons of the next General Assembly of North Carolina.

Remember. That we take all kinds of country produce in exchange for the Whig. Eggs, Butter, Lard, Chickens, or any thing that is in the market.

Wood. These of our country friends who intend paying their subscriptions in wood, will confer a favor upon us by bringing it in as soon as possible.

"Jeems" would inform the Ladies of the City that they should visit the Hospital at the Military Academy, there they will find objects worthy of the attention of a Florence Nightingale, come Ladies go down or send the Soldiers some delicacies.

A great many soldiers have been passing through this place from the South for the past week, all bound north, we hope that the war will be carried into the country's country so that they will feel some of the privations, while speaking of soldiers, we would say those that have passed through here to be a jolly crowd.

Let all be ready "keep time to the music" that beats for our next campaign.—Examiner.

Butler in Europe.—The London Telegraph, after reviewing Butler's atrocities at New Orleans, thus concludes: It is true, that Butler and his villainous deeds may be disavowed by the Washington Government; but how facile are these official disavows.

AN INCIDENT.—During Gen. Jackson's march to Richmond from the Valley, the men from hard service had become fatigued and were on short rations.

Nothing of importance has transpired during the past week in our lines near Richmond, but it is a fact that a hard fight was fought in some of the late operations.

on foot between the two powers, that will be an acknowledgment of the South in one sense of the word, we hope at an early day that the Yankees will see the error of their way and return to their homes.

Recruiting at the North seems to be an up hill business they came in very slow the papers from the North give woful accounts of it and that by drafting, meetings are held daily and nightly but no use soldiers cannot be had, heavy bounties are offered for men but they are not to be had.

Resolved, That we do not approve of that feat in the act of conscription which tolerates substitutes. In the fight for freedom all should fight, as all will be free.

Resolved, That while duty and the law compels us to fight, public pledges, duty and honor compel these gentlemen to aid us.

Resolved, That these proceedings be published in the Standard, and all papers in the State who are for a vigorous prosecution of the war be requested to copy.

Resolved, That if those gentlemen will show half the zeal for the fight that they did for secession, the victory will be ours.

CHARLOTTE HOTEL, BY H. H. McCREE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE Proprietor of this Hotel will still at his post ready to fulfill the duties of "mine host" to the traveling public and others who may call on him, and he desires that as comfortable and pleasant a stay as possible be made by all who are sojourning in this city. Being situated nearly in the centre of Charlotte, Business Men will find this Hotel a most convenient and desirable location. He has been engaged in the business at this stand nearly eighteen years, and in that time he has made several additions to his former house, and it has been greatly enlarged and improved, presenting in front a two story BRICK BUILDING measuring in length by 12 feet in width, handsomely shaded by trees on the sidewalk, affording a pleasant promenade at all hours of the day.

The House has been thoroughly furnished with the best and in every part of its structure, complete and abundant and comfortable, especially in the DINING ROOM, where the "summer room" is "renewed" day by day.

Connected with this Hotel are Stables, a Riding room for 100 horses, abundantly furnished with grain and provender, attended by faithful and obliging attendants.

The Proprietor feels confident that with his long experience and many new advantages added to his desire to please, he is prepared to offer his friends and the "most of mankind," as many comforts and as much good cheer as will be found anywhere, perhaps a little more so.

IF ANY rate try the Charlotte Hotel. J. B. KERR October 15, 1858.
