THE NEWS.

On the morning of the 24th Jan, at Woodbury, Tenn., the Abolitionists 5000 strong attacked one of Morgan's regiments under the command of Lt. Col. Hutchinson. The regiment after fighting two hours with a force so greatly superior, fell back two miles, with a loss of three killed, including Col. Harrison, and nine wounded.

On the 26th Jan., Gen. Morgan and his men dashed into Woodbury, Tenn. The Abolitionists immediately retreated, leaving Morgan in quiet possession of the town.

On the 27th Jan., Fort McAllister was bombarded five hours and a half by the Confederates. The enemy withdrew, none of our men were hurt.

On the 27th Jan., seven Yankee vessels ten of them iron clads, bombarded our Fort at Genesis Point, Ga., for five hours and a half. When it began to rain, and the Yankee fleet withdrew.

A despatch has conveyed the agreeable intelligence, that Gen. Van Dorn on the 30th Jan., recaptured Holly Springs, with 70th prisoners, and a large quantity of provisions in store.

From Kentucky.—A Kentuckian, sojourning in this city, received a letter from his wife in Lexington, which confirms the rumors we have had of the demoralization and disbanding of Woolford's Kentucky cavalry. At Frankfort the Legislature in session is surrounded by three thousand abolition bayonets, for the reason that a majority of the members are considered disloyal to "the best Government on earth." If this last outrage of the Federal despotism does not arouse the old "Hunters of Kentucky" from their graves, we predict that it will at least fire their proud descendants with a spirit of resistance which will make it impossible that the "dark and bloody ground" shall ever become part or parcel of the abolitionized and mercenary Yankee Union.—Knoxville Register.

Cheering News From Port Hudson.—A correspondent of the Jackson Appeal says: "If there are any fears existing in regard to the safety of Port Hudson, let them be at once abandoned. All the Yankees in the world and in that region where pine knots and cord wood wouldn't bring the first cost of cutting, combined, could not reduce Port Hudson."

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Journal, writing from the army of the Potomac, says: "There is a great deal of talk about another battle at Fredericksburg; but you don't take me into it. I have been in nine dirt real battles, and have been fighting for the nigger long enough. I thought at first, I was fighting for my country, but in a mistake—I don't love the niggers. Our regiment has only about 120 men. Our men are leaving every night."

The Gold Crop.—The New York Times says: "The amount of gold which will be received from California during last year was nearly ten millions less than in 1861, and if we did not capture or sink the Alabama, it will probably be very short this year."

The iron steamship Cornubia arrived safe this morning at a Confederate port. She ran through six blockaders, and just eighteen minutes in doing it. She brings a valuable cargo.—Wilmington Journal, 31st.

"Abraham," to the Jews—rescinding Grant's order expelling them from the Yankee army:—

"To your tents, oh! Israel!"

Why are mistakes like the whale that swallowed Jonah? Because they take in a great (prophet) out of the water.

Oranges.—Sweet oranges sold at auction, in Savannah, on Saturday, at $25 per hundred—good, bad and indifferent.

The Lynchburg Republican, of yesterday, says that a gentleman who left Knoxville on Sunday last, reports that the Kentucky Legislature had passed, by a majority of five to one, an ordinance of secession from the Abolition Union. He further states that as soon as this decision was announced, the Legislative Hall was surrounded by a regiment of Pennsylvania soldiers, and every member of the body arrested. The Republican adds: "We are not prepared to express an opinion as to the truth of this report, but the indications all point to an early move of the kind, if it has not been made as stated."

The New York World reminds Butler of his promises. When in Washington last winter, an attempt being made to serenade him, he put his head out of the window and exclaimed: "I will not make a speech till I've had a fight." Gen Butler has not yet had his fight. The World thinks, therefore, that he should forego his speech.

A requiem mass was said at the cathedral in New York on the 16th inst., for the souls of the Irish of Meagher's brigade, who stormed the city of Fredericksburg and paid for it with their lives the next day.—An immense congregation was present.

A Paris correspondent says that the Empress Eugenie has named her favorite horse "Stonewall Jackson."

NEWS.

Gallant feat at Charleston.

One Yankee vessels captured, two sunk, and the balance driven off

CHARLESTON, Jan. 31.—Several days ago, General Ripley despatches a force of artillery, commanded by Lieut. Yates, to James' Island, with the design of attacking the Yankee gun-boats cruising in Stono River, about eight miles from the city. Col. Yates posted his guns, twenty-one in number, in a semi-circle, reaching on both sides of the river, around the Yankee gun-boat John P Smith, and at 4 o'clock yesterday (Friday) afternoon, opened a concentrated fire upon her. She replied with broadsides. The engagement lasted one hour, when the gun-boats hauled down her flag, surrendering unconditionally, with one hundred and eighty prisoners. She carried eleven guns; many of the crew were killed and wounded; our loss was only one, man wounded. Other very important movements are in progress here.

The two iron clad gun boats Chicora and Palmetto State, with three steamers as tenders went out beyond the bar, at 1 o'clock, this morning, to attack the blockaders.—Firing began soon after one, and for a time was very rapid and continuous. After it slackened, but continued at intervals until 9 o'clock this morning. Commodore Ingraham is aboard the Palmetto State, as Commander of the expedition.

12 m.—The expedition was a complete success. We have authentic information that the Palmetto State sunk the Yankee gun boat Mercedita in five fathoms of water. The Captain and crew surrendered and were paroled. They begged for assistance when their vessel was sinking, but we had no boats to offer them, and they were told to shift for themselves.

The Chicora sunk one gun boat, name unknown, and set on fire the Quaker City, which struck her flag, but afterwards escaped in a crippled condition. The blockader in sight. Our iron clads are cruising triumphantly off the harbor. The whole Yankee squadron has fled. The prisoners taken in Stono were brought to the city this morning. Commodore Ingraham's official report corroborates the above. Our community are much elated and excited.

9 P. M.—The Palmetto State and Chicora have returned to the city. They were greeted with enthusiastic cheering. As they left the bar, four blockading steamers re-appeared in the offing.

From the West.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan 30.—Wheeler's Cavalry destroyed the main transports on the Cumberland River, last Friday. The same command destroyed an engine and train of cars, and captured 52 prisoners on the Nashville and Chattanooga Road, last Saturday.

North Carolina.

WILMINGTON, Jan. 31.—Our pickets at Swansboro, Onslow County, report that seven transports passed there yesterday afternoon. The pickets at New River report that five passed there yesterday and nine last night, all bound South.

The Steamer Cornubia arrived at a Confederate port this morning.

Northern News.

The New York Herald of the 29th has been received at Richmond, from which the following items are obtained:

Burnside has resigned the command of the Potomac Federal army, and Gen. Hooker has taken his place. Gens. Franklin and Sumner, in consequence of this change, also withdrew from their commands, not having confidence in Hooker's ability.—Gold advanced in New York to 152; Government stocks declined. Cotton sells at 80 cents per pound.

The radicals have again demanded the removal of Secretary Seward, and beast Butler is proposed for Secretary of War.—The New Yorkers are much dissatisfied at the dismissal of Gen. Fitz John Porter, and accuse the Administration with acting from party motives. Mrs. McClellan (wife of the General) has been prosecuted with a house in New York, handsomely furnished, by the friends of the General.

They had a regular mess in the Yankee Senate on the 27th. Mr. Saulsbury, of Delaware, made a speech in which he denounced Lincoln as an embecile. The Vice-President called him to order several times, and finally ordered the Sergeant-at-arms to take him in custody. Mr. Saulsbury drew a revolver as he went out. The next day Mr Clark of New Hampshire, offered a resolution for his expulsion.

The New York Tribune proposes to borrow $400,000,000 with the understanding that no more is to be borrowed if the rebellion is not crushed by the first of May. It says if the Union can't be restored in that time it hardly be done afterwards. In the meantime it calls upon the Government to prosecute the war with all its might and power until that time.

Important Foreign News.

The steamship Saxonia has reached New York with advices from Europe to the 14th. The most important feature of the news is the address of the French Emperor at the opening of the Corps Legislatif, which is thought to shadow forth French intervention in the affairs of the United States.—He said:

"I have made the attempt to send beyond the Atlantic advices inspired by a sincere sympathy; but the great maritime Powers not having thought it advisable as yet to act in concert with me, I have been obliged to postpone to a more suitable opportunity the offer of mediation, the object of which was to stop the effusion of blood, and to prevent the exhaustion of a country, the future of which cannot be looked upon with indifference."

GOLDSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, JANUARY 23, 1863.

General Orders, No. 9.

I. The commanders of Brigades will give to the officers detailed for recruiting service, (one from each Company) special instructions to arrest and forward to their dispositions all absentees without competent authority.

II. A full pardon, except as to forfeiture of pay for the period of unauthorized absence, is hereby proclaimed to all such men, absent without leave, who may voluntarily return to their respective commands on or before the 10th day of February next.

III. All enlisted men who do not voluntarily return within the time specified, and all who shall after that date absent themselves from their commands without proper authority, will be charged with desertion and tried by the new Military Court in session. If found guilty they will be sentenced to death, whether present or absent, the commanders will be ordered to execute the sentence wherever the condemned can be arrested.

IV. In Companies all the enlisted men of which are present for duty, one of those absent under legal orders or upon the 8 or sick leave, Division, District and Department Commanders are authorized to grant furloughs, at the rate of one for every twenty five men present for duty in each company, and for periods which, deducting the time necessary for going and returning, will not permit the parties to remain at home more than forty days. Whenever they are authorized by the rule to suspend a part of a company, which will be but rare in every instance that no enlisted man of the Company is absent without competent authority. Company and Regimental commanders will forward, through the regular channels, at the rate and upon the conditions above specified, recommendations of the men most meritorious and deserving of furlough.

V. All enlisted men who overstay their regular and furloughs, or those granted days above, will be immediately arrested on their return, an examination made into the circumstances of each case, and the facts reported to the Brigade Commander, who will either punish the delinquent, or cause charges to be preferred, or return him to duty unpunished, as the circumstances of the case may in his judgment require.

VI. Major A. F. Conn, Chief Quartermaster, will cause these orders to be advertised once a week, for three weeks in every newspaper published in North Carolina, and in the newspapers published in Columbia, Augusta, Greenville and Yorkville, South Carolina.

By Command of Maj. Gen. G. W. Smith.

A PROCLAMATION

BY ZEBULON B. VANCE,

Governor of North Carolina.

Whereas, it has been made known to me that a large number of soldiers from our armies are absent from their colors without proper leave, in this the hour of our greatest need, and it being considered to be evident that a large majority of such were impelled to this course by a natural and almost irresistible desire to see their home and friends once more after so long an absence, and not because of a cowardly determination to leave their brave comrades to share all the dangers and hardships of the field at such a time whereas, Major Gen. G. W. Smith, in command of the Department of North Carolina, by consent of the Secretary of War, has promulgated an order declaring that all who may voluntarily return to duty by the 10th day of February next, shall be received into their several commands with another punishment than a forfeiture of their pay for the time they have been absent without leave; and declaring further that those who absent, or return by the said 10th day of February, shall when apprehended, be tried for desertion, and if duly convicted, be made to suffer death:

Now therefore, I ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my proclamation to all soldiers from this State, serving in the armies of the Confederacy, who are now illegally absent from their colors, commanding them to return to duty with their comrades, and so availing them of the benefit of this opportunity of saving their friends from the disgrace and infamy which will cling forever to the name of a deserter from his country's cause, and themselves from a felon's death. May, after carrying their country's flag in triumph through various bloody conflicts and making themselves a name, of which their children's children might have been justly proud, have forfeited it all by absenting themselves at a moment when their own State is invaded and about to be desolated by a brutal, ruthless foe. Now is the time to reinstate themselves, by a prompt return to duty. I appeal to them to stand by their country yet a little longer, and not to sully by desertion the bright and glorious reputation of the State, which they have helped to win on a hundred hard-fought fields; and I appeal to all good and loyal citizens throughout the state to give their influence to induce these men to return. Let no one, unmoved by this appeal to his patriotism and honor, suppose that he can remain at home with impunity; the full power of the State authorities, aided if need be by the Confederacy, shall be put in force to arrest and bring him to punishment after the 10th day of February next, and there shall be no rest for the deserter in the bosom of North Carolina. And let non-excuse their desertion by declaring that they go home to take care of their families; they will add nothing to the comforts of their families by bringing like guilty men in the midst by day, and by plundering their neighbors by night; they only bring shame and suffering upon the heads of the innocent, and their little children, whose gray headed old men, will have the finger of scorn pointed at them and the bitter taunt will fling in their ears, 'Your father skulked on the wings to keep from fighting for his country.'

The State is now trying to provide food for your families, and each county is making a similar provision; and as your Chief Magistrate I promise you that the wife and child of the soldier who laid the army down his duty shall share the last bushel of meal and the last pound of meat in the State. Let every patriot in the land arise with all his influence in the execution of this proclamation and our victorious ranks will soon be filled, and our country soon be rid of the enemy.

In witness whereof, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor, Captain General and Commander in Chief hath signed these presents, and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at the city of Raleigh, this 28th day of January, in the year of our Lord, 1863.

By the Governor.

General Orders, No. 9.

The following regulations are published for the information of those persons wishing to draw bounty of deceased soldiers, in accordance with an ordinance of the Convention ratified the 22d day of February, 1862.

REGULATIONS.

1. The payment of bounty to the representatives of deceased soldiers is based upon the certificate of the commanding officer of the company, who will state the time of the enlistment of the soldier, the date of his decease in service, the amount of bounty already paid by the State, and the company and regiment to which he belonged.
