

THE GLEANER.

GRAHAM, N. C., JUNE 15, 1875.

Local, State and General.

W. T. JOHNSON, EDITOR.

Mr. John C. Robertson, of Company Shops, is our authorized agent to receive subscriptions, and receipt for the same.

READ AND SUBSCRIBE!

We propose to send the GLEANER as a campaign paper to subscribers till the first day of September, 1875, for the small sum of TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. We intend it to be a live campaign paper, and we extend the time to the 1st of September in order that we may give the returns of the election from the various counties to all our campaign subscribers. All sums under two dollars may be sent by mail at our risk, all over, at our expense in registered letter. Everybody wants to keep up during the campaign any way. No one, certainly, can grumble at the price. Send us in clubs friends. It is of consequence that the issues be thoroughly discussed. Your campaign subscription will commence, just as soon as we get your name and the money, and will end the first of September. Don't delay. We all have an imperative duty to perform. We intend faithfully trying to do ours in this campaign, and want you to help us. We ought to get a thousand campaign subscribers, and can, if our friends will interest themselves for us. We are waiting to hear from you. Go about it to-day.

PARKER & JOHNSON, Editors & Publishers.

ATTENTION!

A meeting of the Executive Committee, of the Democratic-Conservative party, for Alamance county, will be held in Graham, on Saturday, the 19th day of June. Every member of the committee is earnestly requested to be present. Business of the greatest importance calls the meeting.

G. S. Bradshaw, recently of this county, but now of Trinity College, a son of our old countyman W. S. Bradshaw, in passing from the new to the old Chapel at Trinity College, mistook a window and fell to the ground from the third story. His injuries only resulted in dislocating his right arm.

Mr. B. J. Wicker of Chatham county who has been for some weeks at Company Shops, engaged in his calling as an artist, has met sufficient encouragement to determine him to locate permanently at that place. To this end he has bought a lot and will at once erect thereon a building, suited in all respects for a photographic gallery. He takes photographs, of all sizes, and all other pictures and is said to be unsurpassed as a tasteful accomplished photographer.

PATRONS COME TO THE GRANGE!—Our worthy brother, and Lecturer of the State Grange, John B. All Grangers in Alamance are respectfully invited to participate. Come one come all! Let each member bring a basket of eatables, and let us have a general jubilee on that occasion.

D. A. MONTGOMERY, June 10th, 1875.

TRINITY COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

From a communication giving a full account of the commencement, which was received too late for insertion in full we condense the following: The annual sermon before the Theological Society was preached by Rev. E. A. Yates of this State. The oration by members of the junior class are spoken of in a very complimentary manner. The reunion banquet of the "Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity" was in every way pleasant. The speech of welcome was by B. J. Reynolds of Lenoir and was pronounced a "gem." Our townsman B. F. Long delivered the oration which was all that his friends could have wished it to be.

The sermon before the graduating class was preached by Bishop Marvin of St. Louis, Mo., from the first clause of the second verse of the 18th Psalm, "The Lord is my rock." The Alumni Address was by Mr. Webster of the Reidsville News. The crowd was unusually large and all well pleased. The graduating speeches of the fourteen members of the junior class would have been highly creditable to the graduating class of any college in America. Mr. Kennedy of S. C. obtained first distinction. Mr. Taylor of N. C. second, and Mr. Spinks of N. C. third. Dr. Munsey failed to come and his place was filled by Bishop Marvin, in an admirable address, in which the Bishop expressed an agreeable surprise at the prosperous condition he found the college in. Nearly six thousand dollars were raised to pay the debt on the new chapel. The party was splendid and opened by the marriage of Rev. W. H. Pegram and Miss Emma Craven, by Bishop Marvin.

At a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, on the first Monday in this month, a full Board being present, the following claims were allowed:

Eliza Friddle for support of Jacob Friddle, pauper $9.00; Dr. F. R. Freeman, medical attention, paupers at poor house, $12.00.

Foust, $6; David Freshwater, $6; John S. Shaw, $6; E. C. Murray, $6; W. P. Barwell, $6; J. S. Morrow, for listing and assessing property for 1874-75, $12.

Holt, sawing and lumber for poor house $1.04; John S. Ray, care of child of Susan Hughes pauper $6; P. R. Harden & Bro. furnishing Samuel Mebane pauper $6; Daniel Worth furnishing Jas. M. Hughes pauper $2; Daniel Worth furnishing Mary Jones pauper $6; Daniel Worth for furnishing B. The Trustees of the University of the State, meet in Raleigh to-morrow.

To NEWSPAPER MEN.—Any good man wishing to engage in the newspaper business can, with small cash capital, secure the press, type, fixtures, and good will of the Concord Sun. For particulars, address John R. Harris, Concord, N. C. The press of North Carolina is requested to copy this notice, the property being that of the late C. F. Harris.

An old white man, name unknown, seventy or seventy-five years old, was run over and killed last week near Laurinburg on the Carolina Central railway. He was lying between the cross-ties with his body covered with a coat or cloth at the time, and was not seen until too near to stop the train. Upon the deceased were found several letters but no one knew his name.

The Ohio republican convention condemned the third term notwithstanding the President's letter, just the same. The President is mad. He thinks his party is losing strength in casting him off. It may be some comfort to his Excellency to know that if his party cast him off it is the cast off of the people. Cast off that's it! both Grant and his party.

"Young writing my bosom," said a despairing Baltimore lover to a coquetish girl whom he had long sought in marriage. His burst of grief decided her, and, putting out her hand, she softly murmured, "Well ring my finger, if you will be happier for it! I will vex you no longer!"

A committee was formed in Elmira, New York, last Friday evening, of which ex-Congressman H. Broadman Smith is the head to make arrangements for the erection of a monument to the Confederate dead, nearly three thousand of whom are buried in the Woodlake Cemetery there.

Mr. Thomas Powers in Newbern turned down the wick of his lamp and blew under the burner to put it out when it exploded, hurling the fragments of broken glass about the room. Be careful of lamps. They are dangerous. They explode when you are not thinking about it.

Theo. N. Ramsey, writing to the Sentinel from Bloomington, Illinois, says: That that city now has a population of over twenty thousand, and that H. N. James Allen built the first house there, in 1830. It was a double log house. Allen was from North Carolina.

The programme of the republican party as determined upon by its editors, published elsewhere, is by authority and was signed by W. S. Ball, editor of the New North State, as chairman, and John S. Ball secretary, as we learn from the Raleigh News.

The democrats of Randolph, have nominated for the Convention Dr. J. M. Worth of Ashboro, and Dr. B. Craven, President of Trinity College. General satisfaction is expressed, and the ticket will sweep the county.

Paul Bundly, a young man of Concord, about 24 years of age, was found dead in his bed. The verdict of the coroner's jury was to the effect that his death resulted from a spasm, to which he was subject.

A trotting match for $1,000 between Ajax of Martin county, and Bob Lee, of Edgecombe county, will come off on the 17th of this month. Both horses are under training. Ajax is the favorite.

Charles A. McMillian of Fayetteville was on last Saturday, during a game of quoits, struck on the head with a quoit, and so seriously injured that he died on Sunday morning. He was an old man.

A man found dead in South river, in Sampson county. So long in water that no one could tell whether white or black. The jury of inquest thought he was a mulatto and had been murdered.

The next Annual Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association will be held in Wilmington on the 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th days of November.
