We understand that the contractors Messrs Johnson and Andrews have the bridge across Big Alamance at Effins well under way. It is ready for the flooring. We hear it spoken of as a good job. The contractors are working men. Soon the good people from the Stinking Quarter section can come to town without the fear of being cut off by high water.

We hear that our old friend John Anderson of Company Shops, will leave for Scotland in a few days for the purpose of bringing his family to this country—to the elegant home he has prepared for them at Company Shops. Mr. Anderson has become almost a part of the Machine Shop at Company Shops. He has been here for nearly if not quite twenty years. No better man or more faithful employee than Uncle Johny Anderson. May his trip to his native bonny Scotland be a pleasant one; and his return a safe one is the earnest wish of his many friends.

The contractors, Messrs Ferrell and Neal, have so nearly completed the bridge across Haw River at Saxapaha that persons and vehicles pass over. There was a big dinner given last Saturday upon the occasion of its being ready to accommodate the public, atwhich there was a general good time. The same parties have the contract for on the 3rd of July, to nominate a delebuilding the bridge at the Granite Cot- gate to the Constitutional Convention. ton Mills, which they will set about in a few days. These bridges will be of vast convenience to many of our people, and will be elegant bridges, judging from the one so nearly completed.

Mr. B. J. Wicker, the clever artist who has determined to locate permanently at Company shops, shows him_ self to be as energetic in other matters as he is proficient as an artist. Having purchased his lot, he at once ordered his bill of lumber, with which to build a gallery in every way suited to his business. When this is completed, which will be soon, judging from the earnest. ness and energy with which he has gone about it, the people of the county' without the trouble of going elsewhere can obtain as good pictures of any style doors of all Churches and public places as can be put up in the State.

Our people are busily engaged in harvesting wheat. This will be a stirring working week with those who are so fortunate as to have wheat. From every direction we hear a good report of that and all other crops. For this we are thankful. We feel as lively an interest in the crops as the farmer does, for we have to eat, and the farmer has to feed us. The wheat crop is said to be the best in this section since the war. We are truly reaping many blessings. Democratic victories all over the country, good crops, and the certain prospect of a good Correction for our own old State, should the sall feel proud and happy. In the eneral good feeling that is prevailing everywhere, we can't see why the radicals don't give up their devilment, and join in with us, we feel so happy at the blessings already upon us, and the prospect of others, that we will forgive them, and not even tantalize them by a reminder of the bad things their party has been guilty of. Come right on, and you shall feel easy with us, and you shan't be even teased about having been a radical, and helped, uuintentionally perhaps, that party to enrich its leaders at the expense of the people, and to do very many other bad
