

THE GLEANER.

GRAHAM, N. C., JUNE 29, 1875.

Local, State and General.

W. T. JOHNSON, EDITOR.

Mr. John C. Robertson, of Company Shops, is our authorized agent to receive subscriptions, and receipt for the same.

READ AND SUBSCRIBE!

We propose to send the GLEANER as a campaign paper to subscribers till the first day of September, 1875, for the small sum of TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. We intend it to be a live campaign paper, and we extend the time to the 1st of September in order that we may give the returns of the election from the various counties to all our campaign subscribers. All sums under two dollars may be sent by mail at our risk, all over, at our expense in registered letter. Everybody wants to keep up during the campaign any way. No one, certainly, can grumble at the price. Send us in clubs friends. It is of consequence that the issues be thoroughly discussed. Your campaign subscription will commence, just as soon as we get your name and the money, and will end the first of September. Don't delay. We all have an imperative duty to perform. We intend faithfully trying to do ours in this campaign, and want you to help us. We ought to get a thousand campaign subscribers, and can, if our friends will interest themselves for us. We are waiting to hear from you. Go about it to-day.

Wilmington and Charlotte are having water-mellons.

Judge Bynum of the Supreme Court has filed a dissenting opinion in the case of the State against the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company.

We learn from the News: Two engines, belonging to the Petersburg road were attached, at Weldon, for debts due the employees.

Maj. William Patterson requests us to announce his name as a candidate before the mass-convention, to be held on the 3rd of July, to nominate a delegate to the Constitutional Convention.

It is said that at the recent term of Forsythe Court the Grand Jury found a true bill against Judge Cloud for assaulting a negro for singing a religious song! The Judge is nervous, you know.

A son of Mrs. Hunske of Hillsboro, while out squirrel hunting on last Friday a week ago, accidentally shot his hand, while about loading one barrel of his gun, in a shocking manner; the lead tearing through the base of the thumb and lodging in the wrist. This we learn from the Recorder.

Mr. Willie Mills, a native of Salisbury, but a citizen of Raleigh, died suddenly last Sunday evening a week (g). He was well up to ten minutes of his death. He was sitting on the steps when taken with hemorrhage, which produced death in a few minutes.

Gov. Vance a short time ago delivered his lecture, "The scattered Nation" in Raleigh, for the benefit of the young men wounded at the Centennial at Charlotte. The Jewish citizens of that city presented the Governor a handsome gold watch and chain, in token of their appreciation.

Judge Mitchell has resigned. He was the only Judge in the State, of democratic politics, up to the election last August. Old age and bad health led to his resignation. He has an unblemished reputation for high integrity.

It is understood that Mr. Furches, a republican, will be his successor. Mr. Furches is said to possess the requisite legal learning, and in every respect is as little objectionable as any of his party.

On Thursday evening last, a little after sun down, the young man, Mr. Trollinger, in charge of the jail, went in to look after the prisoners. Two of them, William Gibson, a negro charged with stealing money from Col. J. Holt and his sons, and another negro, named Hank Freeland, charged, with stealing chickens from H. M. Ray, Esq., had gotten out of the cage in which they were confined, and when Mr. Trollinger walked around the cage, they ran out at the door, through which he had entered, and hurriedly shutting it they bolted it on the outside, and the jailor was a prisoner. The two negroes then ran down stairs into the lower part of the jail, and unfasted the back door, which was secured by a bar and in the dusk of the evening made good their escape. They have not been captured. The jailor raised a pitiful cry of distress, which after awhile was heard and he was released, but too late to give successful pursuit to the escaped negroes. All that is to be done now is to settle some six months board bill for these two sovereigns.

At the recent term of Halifax Court, Judge Watts left the Court to go to make a speech, at Nashville. He gave a capital case to the jury on Friday evening and left. The jury agreed, and were ready to render their verdict on the same night, but there was no Judge, and the jury had to stay until Monday—more than two days—to await His Honors return. The office holders are going crazy over the Constitutional Convention. They fear for their interests. Why are the office holders so afraid of a Convention of the people? Have they no higher feeling than to live off of the people, and hold place and power forever? No use "kicking against the pricks."

At the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad, at Salisbury, on the 22nd of this month, as advertised, Hon. A. S. Merrimon became the purchaser for his clients at the sum of eight hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. He transferred his bid to the Commissioners for the State of North Carolina and she will be the owner of the road. As soon as the sale is confirmed and the title perfected steps will be taken to push the road through to Asheville.

We learn from the Nut Shell that an affray occurred in Newbern last week in which a white man by the name of Watson was dangerously, and it is feared, mortally wounded by a negro named Roberts. The white man was trying to quell a difficulty between the negro and a white boy, when he became involved, and received the feared fatal blow from a bar of iron in the hands of Roberts.

The commissioner of the Land office at Washington is taking measures to dispose of the great number of land patents in his office which have been accumulating since the days of President Monroe, and now number more than three hundred thousand. They will be properly classified and sent to the different land offices throughout the country for delivery to those for whom they are intended.

A gold-headed cane is being disposed of in Raleigh, at 25 cents a ticket, each ticket holder to deposit one vote for some minister in the city, and the one getting the highest number of votes to have the cane. The proceeds thus realized are to be given to the relief fund for the benefit of Messrs. Williams and Birmingham, the disabled artillerymen. So says the News.

John Patterson, Express Agent at Reidsville, was arrested last week in Richmond, charged with embezzlement of funds of the Company. Patterson says that he is a few hundred dollars short but that he lent the money to friends, and they failed to return it, as they were to do, and hence his embarrassment. He is a young man of good family.

At a general meeting of the stockholders of the Fayetteville and Goldsboro Railway held in Fayetteville June 17th the following officers were elected: Maj. D. G. McRae President, E. A. Bizzell Treasurer, J. H. Myrover Secretary, and Thomas J. Robinson Chief Engineer. This we learn from the Raleigh News.

At the recent term of Halifax Superior Court, a negro member of the Board of County Commissioners was found guilty of forgery, Judge Watts set aside the verdict. He was discharged from his place as commissioner. This we learn from the Raleigh News.

Paul Hayne the distinguished Southern poet and writer will contribute monthly articles to the Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C. No more able paper comes to our office than the Star, and this addition to its attraction and interest will make it shine all the more brightly.

It is astonishing, says the New Orleans Bulletin, to see how little there is of some ladies in these days of contracted skirts. And it is equally astonishing to see how much there is of some others.

The Raleigh Sentinel says.—A negro convict at the Rock Quarry this morning knocked down the guard, a man named Best from Wayne county, seized the gun out of his hand, ran the bayonet through him, and off he went.

The Professors of the University are religiously divided as follows: "Rev. Mr. Phillips and Mr. Graves are Presbyterians; Mr. Hooper and Mr. Kimberly, Episcopalians; Mr. Mangum a Methodist; Mr. Ridd a Baptist.

Everybody would have one hundred and seventy-five dollars if all the property in this country were to be equally divided. It is not to be divided, however, until there is enough to give every one five hundred dollars.

An admirably executed counterfeit five dollar note on the First National Bank of Paxton, Ill., is being freely circulated along the line of the Georgia Railroad. Skillful experts have been deceived by them.

THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1859-'60.—The surviving members of the graduating class 1859-'60 of the University of North Carolina are requested to meet at the Atlantic Hotel, in Beaufort, N. C., on Tuesday, the 3rd day of August 1865. This is in lieu of our appointed reunion at Chapel Hill, in June, 1865—that being prevented by the war. Let us do something for our Alma Mater

We learn that a woman by the name of Jane Archer was killed at Greensboro Friday morning by the eastern bound train. She was hanging around the depot, and was first struck by an engine on the Richmond & Danville railroad, and then she ran across on the North Carolina road where she was run over and horribly mangled. She died instantly.

A GRANGE COLLEGE.—The Battleboro (N. C.) Grange of Patrons of Husbandry are agitating the subject of having in the State an Agricultural College where farming may be studied both as a science and an art.

THE SOUTHERN ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE.—The Vicksburg Herald estimates that the wheat crop of Mississippi this year will be equal to the crops of the last ten years combined.

The speeches have closed, the Judge has delivered his charge and the jury have retired in the Beecher case.

The Democrats of Iowa have nominated Shepard Lefler for Governor, and E. W. Woodard for Lieutenant Governor.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS OF THE PAST WEEK, CONDENSED.

The Southern soldiers and citizens attending the Bunker Hill celebration were everywhere, shown the greatest kindness and hospitality. Speeches were made from which it would seem that all ill feeling is forgotten, and reconciliation full and complete is everywhere taking place.

An American Spiritualist who professed to take the likeness of persons dead, has been convicted in Paris of swindling and sentenced to six months imprisonment.

Train from Cincinnati thrown from track by misplaced switch. The fireman Jas. Kirkup was killed.

Reports from Kansas say that crops prospect in that state are better than ever before.

Apprehensions are felt of serious complications between the United States and Mexico, on account of depredations by Mexicans on the Mexican border of Texas. The Mexican government is unable to exercise control over its citizens on the border. The United States army will act promptly in the protection of American citizens. Genl. Ord has command.

The strike of the coal miners in Pennsylvania is said to be over at last, and everything quiet. The men have all gone to work at a reduction of ten per cent in the prices formerly paid.

A Steamer, lying at the wharf in Cincinnati, was struck by lightning.

W. M. Tweed, under the ruling of the court Appeals of New York, which we noticed some time since, has been released from the penitentiary. Immediately upon his release he was arrested on other indictments and held to bail in the aggregate amount of four million dollars; this he gave, whereupon he was arrested in a civil action and held to bail in the sum of three millions dollars which he failed to give, and was lodged in jail.

Terrible storm in Kansas. Houses unroofed and struck by lightning. The storm covered an area of fifty miles. Five railroad bridges washed away and six cars dethatched.

The King of Burmah has apologized to the British government, and there will be no war.

A gang of counterfeiters in Pennsylvania, headed by Dr. Milton H. Frank, a practicing physician, has been broken up and the leader and others arrested. Twenty thousand dollars of counterfeit money found.

Heavy failures in England continue. Col. B. Y. Sars Supt. of the Atlanta and Richmond Air Line R. R. found dead in his bed in Atlanta.

The special correspondent with the Black Hills expedition reports gold in abundance in Custer's Gulch in the Black Hills.

The peoples Independent State Convention of California nominated Genl. Bidwell for Governor, and the present Lieut. Governor Pacheco for Lieut. Governor. Resolutions against monopolies were adopted.
