

THE GLEANER.

GRAHAM, N. C., JULY 27, 1875.

Local, State and General.

W. T. JOHNSON, EDITOR.

Mr. John C. Robertson, of Company Shops, is our authorized agent to receive subscriptions, and receipt for the same.

FOR CONVENTION:

E. S. PARKER.

ATTENTION.

I will attend at the following times and places, for the purpose of collecting the taxes for 1875:

- At Fred. Graves', Cobles' township, Tuesday, July 28th.
At George Patterson's, Patterson township, Wednesday July 29th.
At John Parry's Newlin township, Thursday, July 30th.
At John Roney's, Albright township, Friday, July 31st.
At E. L. Mebane's, Boon Station, township, Monday, July 28th.
At Morton's, Morton township, Tuesday, July 27th.
At McParr's Store, Fayette township, Wednesday, July 29th.
At Lea's Store, Pleasant Grove township, Thursday, July 30th.
At Mebanes, Me, Melville township, Friday, July 31st.
At T. L. Bradshaw's, Thompson township, Saturday, July 31st.
At Graham, Graham township, Monday, August 2nd.
At Compny Shops, Graham township, Tuesday, August 3rd.

Croquet is the order of the day among the fair sex of our town.

The Charlotte Democrat has just entered upon its 25th year.

There are only thirty-five white radicals in Franklin county.

There are 250 visitors at the Warm Springs in Madison county.

A fire occurred in Wilmington Saturday night, doing little damage.

A part of the penitentiary battalion that was sent to the Wilmington work house has escaped.

Hickory, Morganton, Old Fort, and Asheville are overrun with Summer visitors.

Col. Edmond W. Jones has been nominated by the Democrats of Caldwell for Convention.

At an entertainment given by a number of Orphan children, in Goldsboro last week, $22 was collected.

The Concord Sun reappears under management of Messrs. Everitt & Nelson, editors and publishers.

The Surry Visitor reports several cases of a serious nature from spider bites in its county.

Robert K. Bryan Esq. has been nominated by the democrats of Pender county, for Convention.

Dr. W. J. Hawkins has been re-elected President of the R. & G. R. R. He has been President for 19 years.

The Supreme Court have decided the contested sheriff election case from Wake in favor of Dunn, thus sustaining the decision of the lower court.

A little girl, about 11 years old, killed a rattlesnake about four feet long, with 14 rattles, in Surry, one day last week.

Mr. White of Bethel Township, Cabarrus county brought into Concord last week a lump of gold as large as a hen's egg.

The Greensboro Patriot says there is an apple tree on the farm of W. R. Smith which is fourteen feet in circumference, and is a never failing bearer.

Some women are very pretty. We do not like pretty women—they are always so many fellows around them. They remind us of a lot of flies on a molasses stick. We like the molasses, but—both the flies.

Our townsman, J. W. Harden has fortified himself against lightning, in that he has just had rods fixed to his dwelling. Reading accounts of recent destructions by lightning caused him to do it, we suppose.

TOMATOES.—Col. W. A. Albright weighed a tomato last week, that weighed fifteen and a half ounces. He thought he had succeeded in raising the largest tomato that could be produced in Graham, but not so. Our friend J. T. Crocker has raised one reaching twenty and a half ounces. Mr. Crocker seems to know how to raise tomatoes as well as potatoes.

Hillsboro Recorder says; Governor Graham owing to his health has not been able to meet any appointment. He addressed a letter to the meeting held at Cedar Grove on Saturday which gave his views on the question. His absence is very much to be regretted, as he would be able to give valuable information and rouse interest on the important subject. It is probable he will speak at Durham, and if health improves at other points.

DISHONEST RADICALS.

The batch of telegraphic news published yesterday is a stinging indictment against the republican party.

1. In South Carolina ex-Treasurer Parker, a violent radical and carpet-bagger, has been convicted of embezzling seventy-five thousand dollars from the treasury of the State during his administration.

2. Another dispatch tells of the defalcation of Matthew Drosser, a republican mail contractor on the line between Vicksburg and New Orleans.

3. Still another. "The Postmaster General has commenced suit against the bondsmen of over 40 defaulting contractors." The "Forty Thieves" to the front again! Of course all these Government contractors are favorites with the radical administration.

4. But it is the revenue service that shows worse. U S collector Johnson, of Louisville, is shown to have stolen eighty-two thousand nine hundred dollars! That was a big haul; and it appears he has been carrying on his roguetry for years.

5. In St. Louis, Missouri, eight revenue officials have just been indicted for dishonest practices.

6. And in a letter to the Attorney General of Louisiana, Gov. Kellogg makes this damning charge: "Investigations that have taken place before both civil and criminal courts, and the investigation and report of State examiners, disclose gross culpability on the part of other persons whose acts have injured the State, and for years have cast discredit on the government. I especially call your attention to the record in this respect and request that you will immediately take prompt measures to bring to justice all those who have been guilty of defrauding the State as disclosed by these inquiries."

This is a telegraphic picture of Republicanism. It is no fanciful sketch. It is fact, flashed over the wires from authentic sources.—Sentinel

The Radical party fights against reform of the Constitution. It don't want it and it dreads it. But Judge Rodman says reform is needed.—Judge Thomas says so. Judge Cantwell says so. Mark Erwin says so. Iobman says so. Candler says so. Judge Watts says it does not. Ike Young is with him; and so is Judge Tourgee who made it, and continued it to keep himself two years longer in office than the time for which he was elected.

But all the Democrats say it does need reform, and they will reform it.—News.

The Democrats called the Convention to reform the Constitution. Some of the leading Republicans saw the necessity and joined in the call. Let the radical party under the influence of officeholders and the weight of government patronage, stand before the people as the enemies of reform and relief.—Let their hollow friendship for the poor man be exposed, and let their courtship of the negro be made known.

As a party issue, the Democrats accept it.—News.

Capt. S. Battle, says the Roanoke News, has accepted the appointment of Chief Marshal for the next Fair of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society. The Executive committee were fortunate in their selection as one better fitted for the responsible position, or who will give more satisfaction could not have been found. We congratulate the Society on its choice.

Gen. Cox met the redoubtable Judge Watts in Morganton on Tuesday and gave him a most genteel dressing. But the Judge will do the Democratic party good by being suffered to play off in the West without hindrance. The people of the West will see of what material they make radical Judges.—News.

Mrs. Eliza Rhoney, living near Mr. Jake Mestelcer's was struck by lightning last Saturday evening. She was sitting near the fire place and a current of electricity came down the chimney and she was struck lifeless, but by applying restoratives she was brought to life again in about two hours.—Piedmont Press.

Mr. Tourgee chafes under the charge that he is playing second fiddle to the editor of the North State. But it is true, for Mr. Ball made the platform on which he stands, and although he don't like to acknowledge it he can't help himself.

SAMPSON COUNTY.—Hon. J. M. Leach will address the people of Sampson, at Newton Grove, on Friday July 30th, and at Clinton, July 31st. We predict for him rousing crowds.—Journal

Rev. A. F. Redd has disposed of his interest in the Raleigh Biblical Recorder to Rev. C. Bailey, of Warrenton who will assume immediate charge of that journal.

Col. A. R. Lamar will have charge of the political department of the new Catholic paper in Savannah.

The Goldsboro Messenger has a communication, complaining of the invasion of a Hall, opened for an exhibition for the benefit of the Oxford Assylum, by a crowd of negroes, who took their seats among the whites promiscuously, and refused to change positions, and defied the attempt to put them out. They said if they were put out it would be the dearest put out the whites ever had.

The radicals say the Civil Rights bill means nothing. Here it is put to practical use to insult ladies and children, and the negroes secure in their insolence because they have the government to back them. Will the Democrats aid directly or indirectly a party that executed such a law.—News.

Two negroes tried in Wilmington before Judge McKay for a deadly assault upon a white man were acquitted. All the Jurors were negroes. The injured party was a white man. Judge McKay reprimanded the Jury severely, telling them the evidence was so clear and strong they could not possibly have brought in a verdict of "not guilty" unless they had been totally unfit for their duties. He ordered their names to be struck from the list of Jurors. Two negroes were subsequently arrested and committed for tampering with the Jury.—Recorder.

Mr. E. A. Wright, of Goldsboro, having been nominated for office by the Radicals, published a manly card in the Messenger, declining to receive office at the hands of that party, and uses the following strong language: "I had rather toil for an honest living by the sweat of my brow and live poor, and die poor, and at last be buried by subscription; than to bring this disgrace upon myself, my wife and my little ones, and the rest of my kindred and the whole white race thrown in.—Journal.

During the campaign last summer, the Republican candidates assured the people that Congress would not pass the civil rights bill, and if it did Grant would certainly veto it. How has this promise been kept? Congress did pass the bill, and the signature of U. S. Grant made it a law. Now, when these same Radicals assure you that the law will not be amended as to include schools, don't believe them. Falsus in unum, falsus in omnibus.—Sentinel.

The radicals howl now over the probable expenses of the Convention. They made the people howl in 1868-'69, when they held power, and, at Littlefield, Holden, Swepson & Co. to robbing the treasury, while Kirk and Bergen made war on the people.

A lady correspondent, who assumes to know how boys ought to be trained, writes to an exchange as follows: "Oh, mothers! hunt out the soft, tender, genial side of your boy's nature." Mothers often do—with an old shoe.

The laying of the corner stone for the "Temple of Israel" in Wilmington on Friday the 16th, was celebrated with imposing ceremonies. The Star contains a lengthy report of the sermon, address, banquet, torches, &c.

Another professing honesty, Colfax lecturing on morality, or Beecher preaching purity and charity, are not more absurd than the Republican Party of North Carolina prating of economy.

Judge McKay held the first Court in the new county of Pender week before last. The session of the Court lasted twenty minutes. There was no business before the Court.

Six negroes were brought from New Hanover county last week to the Penitentiary,—all for larceny, and sentenced to terms of from twenty years down to three.

M. S. Robbins Esq. of Randolph has been called upon to fill the vacancy occasioned by the declination of Dr. Craven to run for Convention.

Shelby Banner: A Mr. Stedman, who was living in Rutherford county, was killed last week by lightning, while hauling up wheat.

Gen. T. D. Sewall, of Maine, who succeeds "Long" Perry in the Revenue department of the Carolinas, has reached Raleigh.

It is thought that the wheat crops in the west have been injured while in the shock from the continuous rains of the past two weeks.

The Raleigh Light Infantry will celebrate the anniversary of their organization, by an excursion to Kittrell's Springs, to-morrow.

It appears that North Carolina furnishes three fourths of the dried black berry crop of this country—15,000 barrels out of 20,000 raised.

The Supreme Court have decided that Dunn is the legally elected Sheriff of Wake.

B. Gratz Brown has been promoted from the governorship of Missouri to the editorship of the St. Louis Times.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

TWO VALUABLE FARMS For Sale.

Having a large quantity of land, I wish to dispose of the following described plantations: First—The farm known as the Ruffin Quarter place, situated in Alamance county, on the waters of Haw river and Big Alamance, containing Two Hundred and Seventy Acres.

one third timber, the balance in a fine state of cultivation. Upon this farm, which is conveniently and healthfully located, two miles south of Graham, the county seat, is a fine young orchard consisting of 1500 young fruit trees, of choice varieties, carefully selected; a good dwelling-house and all necessary out-houses for croppers, tenants, or laborers.—In every way a desirable farm.

Second—The farm known as the Boon place containing Two Hundred and Seventy-Three Acres.

lying four miles south of Company Shops, on the place of Big Alamance within a few hundred yards of Alamance Factory. Of this farm about one half is cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, the balance in original growth. Upon it are two homesteads, both of which are comfortable and conveniently located. These farms are adapted to the growth of grain of all kinds, tobacco, clover and grasses. Upon each are large meadows, in good condition. I also wish to sell a Valuable Water power on Haw river, attached to which are about forty acres of land; or as much as may be desired. This valuable property is on both sides of Haw river eight miles from Mebaneville on the N. C. Railroad, and is improved to the following extent: There is an excellent dam, recently and substantially built, affording a head of water, unending, and sufficient to run any quantity and quality of machinery. Eligible sites on both sides of the river. There is a grist and saw mill in operation, a good store house, miller's house, and some shanties. Terms made easy. For particulars address either myself, or E. S. Parker, attorney at law, Graham, P. O., Alamance county, N. C. W. R. ALBRIGHT. If the above described water power is not sold, I would like a partner, or partners with some capital, to engage in manufacturing.
