PUBLIC MEETING IN GRAHAM.

Upon the reception of the news of the death of Governor Graham the people of this town, and the surrounding country assembled in the Court House, on the evening of the 12th inst., to testify their appreciation of the exalted worth, and respect for the memory, of the dead statesman. This was eminently proper. Our town was named for him. The following proceedings were had:

We the citizens of Graham and vicinity, having received the sad intelligence of the death of ex-Governor, William A. Graham, do in accordance with our profound feelings of sorrow, in view of this providence adopt the following resolutions;

1st. That we recognize in this event, the dispensation of an All Wise God in whose acts we desire ever to acquiesce, and to whose revealed will we reverently submit.

2nd. That we recognize in his death a loss to ourselves of one whose virtues commanded our esteem and highest regard, and a loss to the State and country at large, of one of its wisest, purest and most reliable counsellors; whose ability and conscientious devotion to the public good justly entitled him to the confidence and esteem of the bereaved and afflicted public, which now mourn his death.

3rd. That we tender to his bereaved family our sincere condolence in this affliction which falls heaviest on them.

4th. That these resolutions be published in the ALAMANCE GLEANER, and that a copy of the same be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

T. C. FOUST, Chairman.

J. T. CROCKER, Sec.

We notice the return of our friend Rev D. A. Long, Principal of the Graham High School, after an absence of several weeks. The institution over which he presides opens on next Monday, and we suppose the near approach hastened his return.

There never was in this country, if we accept as true the theory that old Noah had his Yacht sail entirely on the other side, so much rain. It is injuring the low land corn, is rotting tobacco, is damaging wheat and oats in the shock, and is playing the wild generally.

EXCITEMENT AT BEAUFORT.

Sinking of a Steamer—No Lives Lost—All Passengers and Baggage Saved.

[From the Raleigh News.

On Monday morning at 5:45 passengers from the Atlantic Hotel, accompanied by Mr. G. W. Charlotte, the proprietor, took the little steamer Eureka for Morehead City. About middle of the channel the revenue cutter Crawford, Bally commander, bore in sight. Each steamer like a bird through the air pursued her regular course. Just before reaching Morehead danger became apparent, and Capt. Hobbs of the Eureka sounded his whistle twice, which was a signal to bear to the right. The Crawford answered and commenced bearing as agreed on, but Capt. H. fearing the result reversed his engine and commenced backing. Confusion now commenced, as it was evident to all that a collision must take place, and in a twinkling of an eye the Eureka was struck midship, with such a force as to nearly shiver her to atoms.

Water commenced pouring in, and she began to sink and went down in four minutes.

Capt. Ed. Page, conductor of the A. & N. R. R., was struck by a piece of timber and knocked overboard. He sunk and was so long under water that all thought him lost. He finally floated up some distance off, and when help was tendered him he gallantly exclaimed, for God sake look after the women and children." Capt. Bally, of the Crawford, quickly lowered his boat and took all aboard; as little hurt and as badly scared set as was ever before seen though not frightened with out a cause as the running of ten more feet by the Eureka would have been destruction to both boat and passengers.

Out of confusion Capt. C. soon restored order by "this way, gentlemen!" He led them aft and set out a bottle of fine old Hennessy and all drank to his good health, and refreshments were furnished the ladies.

Little Miss Oliver, of Newbern, had her face somewhat bruised. Among the passengers were Dr. Blackall, of the Yarbore House, Mr. and Miss Street of Newbern, Mr. French, of New York, Mr. Cobb, of Baltimore, and others whom we did not know.

Not being a sea-faring man, we give the incident as it occurred, and leave others to decide who was to blame.

NOW YOU JUST CROW, BECAUSE THE CHANCE CAME NEAR BEING LOST.

THE RESULT.

THE LATEST COUNT.

The following is the result as far as definitely ascertained:

Table with columns: Counties, Dem., and Rep. listing various counties and their political affiliations.

Ex President Johnson was buried at Greenville, E. Tennessee, wrapped in national colors, and with a copy of the constitution in his clasped hands, the State officers and many societies attended; the services were Masonic.

If you are at church of a Sunday evening in August without a fan, cast about your eye until it lights on an engaged couple, and when you see how close they snug up together you will lose in a great degree a sense of the heat.

The postal law of the last session of Congress increases the fee for the registration of letters from 8 to 10 cents and the latter law has now gone into effect.

Gen. Wade Hampton is suggested by a correspondent of the Wilmington Journal for the Presidency of the University of North Carolina.

The radical Board of County Commissioners in Wayne county have been indicted for overcharging mileage.

The late frosts of the spring caused our present fruit supply to be meagre.

There are two tickets in the field in California, the division being caused by Senator Sargent and Secretary of the Senate Gorham. The prospects are favorable to the Democrats—California will be followed by Maine, with the chances of success in favor of the Republicans. The Ohio election takes place October 12th, and Iowa will elect a State ticket and a Legislature on the same day. The remaining States will hold their elections Nov. 2nd, so we shall have little else of interest between this and winter besides elections.

Asheville Expositor: A. A. Campbell is defeated in Cherokee by a large majority. The white people of that county would not take any negro equality "in theirs."

THE HONORS TO THE DEAD.

As was expected the remains of the late Governor Graham reached Raleigh on Saturday the 4th. We take from the News a portion of the account that enterprising Journal gives:

THE APPEARANCE OF THE BODY. The body was encased in a beautiful but a neat metallic casket, covered with black cloth and silver mounted. A french plate glass top exposed half of the body to view. A silver plate on the casket contained the plain inscription:

Wm. A. GRAHAM, Deid Aug. 11th, 1875. Aged 71 years.

We never witnessed a more natural looking corpse, just as he appeared in life, with only the appearance of having fallen into a tranquil quiet sleep.

For the few hours the remains were lying in state, the throng of visitors never ceased, and even after viewing the body the grief stricken citizens remained in the park to see the last of the honored dead.

THE DEPARTURE.

At 4 1/2 o'clock, the procession reformed at the East door of the Capitol in the same order as before, preceded by the Citizens' Cornet and the Garrison band, each playing alternately, moved down Fayetteville, and thence by Cabarrus street to the Central Depot. A special train provided for the occasion carried the remains to Hillsborough where they will be interred on Sunday, after regular services, at 12 o'clock. The Raleigh Light Infantry acting as the Guard of Honor accompanied the body to Hillsborough.

The following members of the family accompanied the remains: Mrs. J. Graham, wife of the deceased; his sons, Maj. W. A. Graham, of Lincoln, Capt. James A. Graham, of Alamance, A. W. Graham, of Orange, Col. Walter Clark, (son-in-law) of this city, and Dr. A. W. Knox, New York, (a nephew of Mrs. Graham.)

This has been one of the saddest days known in the history of our city. Every one seemed to feel and fully appreciate the irreparable loss we had sustained in the death of this great and good man, and every body turned out to do him reverence.

As before stated his funeral will take place at Hillsborough Sunday, we suppose at the Presbyterian church, of which he was a member. We suppose there will be a special train from this city on the occasion, but as yet we have no information to that effect.
