DETERMINED TO BE HONEST

The other day a man with a gaunt look halted before an eating stand at the central market, and after a long survey of the viands he said to the woman.

"I am a poor man, but I'll be honest if I have to be buried in paupers' field." " What's the matter now ?" asked the woman, regarding him with suspicion. "No one saw me pick up a $20 bill here by this stand early this morning. but as I said before I'll be honest."

Mar.

" A $20 bill-picked up!" she whispered, bringing a bland smile to her face.

"I suppose," he continued, "that some one passing along here could have dropped such a bill, but it seems more reasonable to think that the money was lost by you.

" Don't talk quite so loud," she said as she leaned over the stand. "You are an honest man, and I'll have your name put in the papers so that all may know it. I'm a hard-working widow, and if you hadn't brought back that money it would have gone hard with my poor little children?"

" If I pick up money, by a stand I always give it up," he said as he sa down on one of the stools.

"That's right-that's honest," she whispered. " Draw right up here and have some breakfast." He needed no second invitation. The way he went for cold ham, fried sau_ sage, buscuit and coffee was terrific to the woman.

"Yes-1-um-try-to-be-hon est." the remarked between bites.

" That's right, If I found any money belonging to you I'd give it up, you bet. Have ano ther cup of coffee?" " Don't-care-fidoo." he said, as he jammed more ham into his mouth. Even courtships have an ending. The old chap finally bogan to brea'he like a foundered horse, and pretty soon after that he rose from the table.

"You are a good man to bring my lost money back," said the woman, as she brushed away the crumbs.

"Oh I'm honest," he replied : " when I find any lost money I always give it up.'

"Well, I'll take it now, please," she said, as he began to button his over. coat.

"Take what?" he asked.

"That lost money you found."

"I dldn't find any! I'll be honest with you, however, if I ever do find any around here?" "You old liar! Didn't you say you found a $20 bill here?" " No, ma'am. I said that no one saw me pick up such a bill here!"

" Pay me for them pervishuns!" she yelled, clutching at his throat. "I'll be honest with you-I havn't a cent!" he replied as he held her off. She tried to tip him over into a barrey or charcoal, but he broke loose, and before she recovered from her amazement he was a block away and galloping like a stage horse .- Detroit Free Press.

FLAT FOOTED,

Some years ago, in a certain country not far from Lynchburg, a good old Baptist preacher got up a revival in one of his churches, and for several weeks shook the foundations of Satan's kingdom, and gathered in a great number of new converts. B. t there was one old grey haired reprobate who invariably stood up when others kuclt, and snored splendidly throughout the sermon. Finally the pastor approached him, and said:

" My friend don't you want to be say ed?"

"No!" thundered the sinner, " don't."

The preacher left him and finally called upon all who desired salvation to rise. Everybody rose but the old man. The minister then requested all who did not desire to be saved to rise. 陳潔於是:美斯家

The stalwart form of the old man towered above the heads of the audience and his eyes were riveted upon the preacher.

"There," said the latter, "is a man who desires to go to hell; behold him !"

The object of the preachers solicitude then said, in a loud voice,

"I am a man, but scorn to tell a lie. If I wanted religion I would kneel at the altar, among the people of God. As I don't want it. I prefer to remain with people like myself, The only difference i', that they speak falsehoods when they pretend to desire salvation, while I confine myself to the truth." This eccentric genius subsequently became a christian and is now one of the pillars of the church.

A Doctor went out West to pactice his profession. One day a friend met him on the street, and asked him how he was succeeding in his business. "First rate," he replied. "I've had one case." "And what was that?" "It was a birth!" said the dector. "How did yeu succeed with that?" "Well, the old woman died and the child died. but the old man has a strong constitution, and I think I'll save him yet!"

Moody, in one of his Brooklyn ser mons said: " Suppose that President Grant or some other politician should die suddenly, there would be commotion and distress through the whole country, yet in heaven it might not be known at all." Brother Moody is a born humorist, says the Richmond Enquirer.

In a recent scandal case in Smith counity, Ky., a lady witness declined to answer a question, and the attorney demanded her reason. Because it is not fit to tell decent people." "O, well,' said the lawyer, " just walk up here and whisper it to the Judge."

Child-" Does the Lord take the papers?" Mother-"No, my child, why do you ask?" Child-" Oh, I thought He didn't it takes our minister so long to tell Him about things."

had a centest in Cincinnati, in which the farmers have been victors, as they al-ways will be when they act together. It seems that the farmers had 40,000 hogs in pens at Cincinnati, for which the packers refused to give $5 per hun-dred. This the farmers refused and demanded $7.50, without which they would drive their hogs home. The packers wilted and paid the price, the farmers thus securing for themselves the handsome sum of $300,000 more than they would have obtained but for combination.

This is something new, the farmers unlike other producers, having to sub-mit to the ignoble necessity of allowing the parties who buy to fix a price on the articles they offer for sale. But the Grange is teaching its members that they have rights as well as power. We have only to stand together, with a fixed resolve to make our business efforts a success.
