the right to settle, become citizens and recieve for their services are half of one we half of their policy and their policy and the settle services of the services of the bound of the settle of the

VOL 5

GRAHAM, N.C. WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 19 1879 7.8.07 strick from Male's

THE GLEANER

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY E. S. PARKER Graham, N. C,

Every person sending as a clab of ten sub-scribers with the cash, entitles himself to one copy free, for the lengh of time for which the clab is made up: Hapers sourte different offices

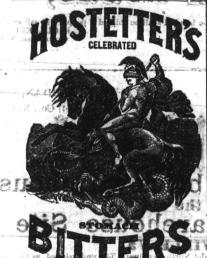

No Departure from the Cash System

Rates of Advertising Transient advertisements payable in 1 m. 2 m. 3 m. 6 m. 12 m.

$2 00 $3 00 $4 00 $ 6 00 $10 00 $ 00 4 50 6 00 10 00 15 00

Transient advertisements $1 per square or he first, and fifty cents for each subse your organization with the Bitters, and it will resist and haile alike the rirus of epidewics and the changes of temperature which disorder the the changes of temperature which disorder the constitutions of the feeble. There is vitality in it. It is a pure vegetable stimulant, a rare alterative and anti-billious medicine, and has not a harmful diment among its many ingredients. For sale by all druggists and respectable Dealers generally.

Graham N G

Dealers in DRY GOODS. GROCERIE, HARDWARE, HATS, BOOT & SHIGES, NOTIONS, IRON, STEWL, SALT, MOLAS-SES, DRUGS, MEDI-STUFF &C &C.

Dr. B. M. Sellans

Company Sheps Is now receiving and putting up his

DVINew Goods

A rich and beautiful line of ladies dress good

Cloaks $3.75 to $17.00.

A fine lot of cheap ready-made clothing SUITS FROM $4.00 to $27.00

NOTICE.

Letters of a ministration having been issued to the undersigned, upon the estate of David W. Kerr dee'd, they hereby notify all persons indebted to said estate to nake immediate paynent, and all persons holding claims against said estate to present them, on or before, the list day of December 1880 or this notice will pleaded in bar of their recovery.

This 27th day of October 1879.

CHAS. J. KERR. Admr's ALEXANDER WILSON.

A MOUNTAIN BIDE.

Of course we girls all pitied Rachel Tinkham, but we never quite made her HATER BEINNE WELL BOLOGO

She was such a shy little thing, and blushed if you spoke to her, and acted dresses all the time, and never was invited to our parties.

She lived in a tumble down old house which had been a very grand mansion

The Tinkhams had been great people in my grandmother's day. Nothing was left of their grandeur now, however. for there had been wine in one generation, and whiskey in the next, and delirium tremens in the third.
Ray's father was the third. She had a wretched time keeping house for him. Her mother was dead. 'We' were the girls of Mrs. Bland's private school. A dozen of us were upon the cast ver-andah one morning. We were all talking at once. Same one, it seemed, had said the high school girls were better scholars than we were. 'Very well. So they are.'

This was Kate Avery, and she was standing up by the lattice where the morning glory vines grow, and where a hundred clusters of little bells swung out blue and purple and rose pink. If Kate was anything, she was bonest, though she was handsome too.

We have music and French conversation, and Lon has a pheeton, and I have two lankeys and Queeny has been to awful secret though it's the truth. The high school girls are miles and miles beyond us in Latin and mathematics.'

'indeed they are, said 1....1'm what mademoiselle calls an 'idgit' in arithmete. I really suppose that two and two make four, but if one of those girls were to tell me that they made five, I shouldu't lare dispute her.'

The fact is,' said Kate, 'little Tinkham is the only one of us who is sure of her multiplication table. But then she doesn't really belong to us. She would not be here if it wasn't for sweeping and dusting o pay hertuition. There she is this min-

A small, thred looking figure in a coarse dress came in sight round the corner. It was Ruchel with her load of books in her

She has worn that dress every day for three months,' said Lou Stedman; 'Iverily believe she goes to bed when it is done up.

My dear, she can't. She has to wash and iron it herself. Oh, there is Queeny ! cried Kate. It was such a gentle, graces ful girl who came walking fast to overtake lay, caught step as she overtook her, and began talking pleasantly, 'Doesn't she look nice in that seal brown suit? And isn't it just like her to carry Ray's books for her.'

Queenv's real name was Alice. Grehard Grass Stied, Clover Seed and Bress Queen if you had seed her walk beside ittle Tinkham that morning, open the Scott & Donnell gate, and stand still, orect, with that grand way of hersetor the girl to pass through. I believe we all rather worshipped Queenva water

Kate met them with her forehead all tied up into hard knots, and asked Ray, didn't she want to be an angel, and hein her with those dreadful fractions?'
So the two set down on the door step, and the rest went into the schoolroom. Then Lou called out to Ray to came and dust her desk. She said 'It wasn't half dusted: "Queeny saidsaid and and

'Ray is busy, I will do it;' and she, sle it and dolling prouder than ever, dusted Lou's desk herself.

It was this morning, Friday, that Mrs. Bland told us that to-morrow would be 'Mountain day.'

All the schools in our town drive to the mountain once a year. Our day ai-ways comes in September 00

This time Mrs. Bland couldn't go, so she sent along her cousin to matronize us. She was a fidgety person, afraid of piders, and no good anyway.

'We are to start at nine o'clock,' Queenv aid. Ray can you be ready so early?" Queeny was a new scholar. She didn't know that Ray never went, with us to such places. Now the flushed and re-

'I don't think I can go to the mouns

*Certainly, you are going,' Alice said it in her queeniest way. 'If you can't go to morrow we will put off going.' 'Saturday is my day to clean the schoolroom,' Ray answered. oom,' Ray answered.

'We will clean it. Let's begin this minute, and off came Queenie's cuffs and Kate's, all the cuffs, in fact. We went to work, and had such fun sweeping and scrubbing. Just imagine Kate and Queeny washing the floor. They did it else, we heard a voice ring out clear;

Now, remember, Queeny said, the last thing, everybody is to wear her oldest dress. And, Ray, would you be kind enough to bring hard boiled eggs for your luncheon? One apiece for us all

Ray looked bright all over, and said

Now It hink it was just beautiful co Queeny to think of that. She knew little Tinkham, couldn't bring frosted and French rolls as the rest of us did.

So she spoke of the eggs. We all remembered that Ray had wonderful chickens. I am sure the word about old dresses, too, was meant to help her.

The next morning Obed Tainter cam-round with his uncovered omnibus and his two great horses and picked us up.

We went for Ray last. She was standing in front of the old house, beside, the tumble down gate, with her basket of eggs in her hand.

She looked perfectly happy, and her dress was so clean and smooth Kate whispered to mei som a guinagguv stable d "That dress has been washed and ironed since last night. Just think of it! It was a clear, warm morning and every one was in such a glow of good spirits. I think we were all glad we had

Rachel with us and the hond and said the Bayer B would never have gone, and if Ray hadn't gone the rest of us would never have come home, and this story—for there is a story - would never have been told, no It is eight miles to the mountain; and there is a carriage road to the top. The last two miles are very hard and steep, because you rise nearly a thousand test

But Obed was a steady, good driver nd his horses were steady good horses We always drew lots for the seats; be side Obed. and it was one of our treats o get him talking about his team, as he called it to took balance a same remove and what are their names it asked Queeny · Well' a pause. Obed was a slow talker, but he had a great deal to say: The off one there is Casar and the nigh one he isnAlexander, nond evial and

'Are they aireid of the cars? 'Aint afeard o' nothing in natur."

Obed paused for us to think this over,

Know too much, them erecture do They've carried a load to the mountain four times a week all summer. They'd take ye bout 's well of I wan't along. They know-well beats all what them mimals know. Understand 't I'm talking bout 'em talking bout 'em talking minit is well s von do. They're used to being talked to. My wife she thinks a sight of 'em. Beats all! She'll go out to the barn, and she'll carry 'em apples, and she'll be all over 'em; an one week when she was sick, an kep in the house, you c'n believe it or not, but it's a fact that them creeture lost flesh. She braids up their front hair for 'em and ties it with a red ribbon one day, and then the next day she unbraids it, an' it's crimped, all in the fashion, you'll understand. As they were a comin' to a pars ty to day, they've got their hair erimp-

But alas for Cæsar, and alack for Alexander. It was a terrible piece of work that you came near doing that day tho' we girls never shall feel that you were much to blame.

You see this was what happened.
We were all tucked into the wagon as tight a figs in a bex, that afternoon, ready to start for home, when Lou called out that she had left her parasol. She must get outland run up torthe tower to 'You just keep y'r sittin,' said Obed 'l'il fetch yer umbrill;' and he started for the tower. Il was about ten rods off. The tower and stable are built in a small cleared space at the top of the mountain. All around and below are thick old woods great rocks. Obed had just gone out of sight when der and saw a terrible pair ot wild ani-mals. I looked toward the girls, and saw two rows, of white Gright fall

Some of us were shricking, 'Whoa' A few were getting ready to jump. All this in an instant, and then, suddenly above the noise of the wheels and everything else, we heard a voice ring out clear; The reins were dragging on the ground

'Sit still girls! I think I can stop the

It was Ray Tinkham, of all people in the world , wish an heghal ar She stood up with a steady look in her

I must explain here that the road from the tower runs down a gentle, slope for half a mile, aild there comes a short turn. Beyond that is Long lift; the steepest, and most dangerous part of the way. Kate seized my hand and whispered: they get to the turn, we shall all be kill-

Ray was climbing, over the driver's sent. She always could climb anywhere like a cat. She didn't pause au instant, but she called back to me:

Natty Brock, put on the brakes. The s you can. med down the handle of the brakes. I prayed too. I believed I should never pray again. I saw and thought of a hundred things t once. I saw the great tree trunks and the huge black rocks close upon us. I remembered the clematis over the front door at home, and wondered who would tell my father that I was dead. To T Meanwhile, Ray was over the dash-buard and down with her feet over the m fletreet words, and to bride one and the next we saw of her, she was creeping along the pole between the horses steadying herself with her hands on their

The horses went tearing on like wild horses, their manes flying and their great podies quivering all over. Every instant the girls, were becoming Queeny was holding Mrs. Bland ousin with both hauns to keep her from leaping out. Kate cried

We are almost to the turn. What is Ray doing? She will righten the horses worse than ever!' and she covered her The brow of the bill was not forty feet off. Far behind, we could hear Obed's voice screaming to the horses to stop. The keeper of the tower was flying to ward us. But they were to far away to de any good. There seemed not one chance in a thousand for as. But that very instance when we all believed we were lost, we looked at Rave We saw her reach forward with one hand, and grasp the relas which joined the houses together. Just there the connecting straps crossed onenother her fingers clutched them. Oue sharp, flerce jerk of those heads ackward, and the horses alackened their speed, and in an instant more stop-

The wagon stood still, although the yet. But that small hand of Ray's beld on with a death grip, and in a moment the ground directly and more way and Mrs. Blanp's consin distinguished herself by most delicate handling imaginable. "It he'r hides dropped off'n the'r ribs; but I tell ye ther never was the team hitched I tell ye ther' never was the team intened ap yet that 'ud stan' hornets. Blast the ar which had to be cured, which gave it amounted to nearly so, but, out a few days ago. The operation described took. While in New York a few days ago

There's a sayin' monget learnin' men, that, when you aint get the reins, you can stop a nuneway horse if you walk out on the polet and grip, hold o' the bid less but it ain't every thorse that'll stand is '.'

not been light on her feet, an' level in plexion showed the result of her head, she never c'd'a done t. Trell, fast, you if these horses had'nt been been un.

you if these horses had nt been been uncommon good horses, nothing on airth woul a stopped cm.
And Ray. I never meant to make so long a story of it, but I must tell you that we gave her a party soon after this. All the lathers, and mothers, and brothers went, and we carried her a carpet for her room and a now chamber set, and nice new clothes all through; and a few, of the gentlemen gave her a bank-book, whatever that may mean. I only know that she was to have the income of cer talu money, and that it was enough to shat she was to have the income of certain money, and that it was enough to educate her thoroughly. We had the best time that night, and Queeny's tather took Kay out to supper, and she sat, at his right hand, and everybody treated her as though she had been a princess of the blood. I do believe there never was a happier girl on earth that Rachel that might.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.

The Manner in Which a Texas Child

The San Antonio correspondent of the Galveston News tells the following story of a wonderful isurgical operation recently performed in the fermer city. San Antonio contains a wonder the like of which cannot be found in the United States. It nothing more or less than a child seven years old that, instead masticating and swallowing its food the usual manner, is fed, through the usual manner, is fed through an aparture in the stemach made for that aparture in the stemach made for that lowed. To the inquiry if this mode of purpose. The child is gaining strength; can walk and play; and bids fair soon to be as stout and healty as any other child. On Saturday last I determined to go and see the child for myself. The facts are as follows: About two years ago Mr. S. T. Eumley, at that time living in Penasylvania, had the misfortune to have his little daughter Jessie drink a solution of lie, which a negro woman had scok, wife, "man wants but little. solution of lie, which a negro woman had carelessly left on the table. A large quantity of the corrosive liquid was swallowed. Death is the certain result in such cases. There have been quite a number of casas in San Antonio, where children drank concentrated lye, and none have survived except in this instance. The lye destroyed the mucous instance. The lye destroyed the mucous membrane, and a stricture of the aesophagus is formed which means that the throat or at least the channel through the which the food goes into the stomach, is drawn together or contracted to such a degree that only liquids, and not much tive condition and then goes into a consuptive condition and then perishes of slow attraction. It is impossible for a human being to live exclusively or liquid nour ishment; but where concentrated lye has been taken there are times, particularly in cold, damp weather, when the sufference between the two.

"Martha,' said a new-made granger to his wife, "we'll have lots of pumpkins next year. I planted about forty; had to dig awful big holes to put 'em in, though."

A not allowed. hence the sufferer slowly starves to cages. It tires the monkeys.

Such was the condition of the little girl, Jessie Lumley, when she was brought to San Autonio for treatment. The child was very much emaciated, could not swallow even liquid food for days at a time. As it was the only pos. your hat." consented that the operation making an heads.

The operation has been performed be at the table before him, "the fact that the witness is a desperate man will not determ to be the first time it has been attempted in the United States. Your correspondent cannot give the technical terms, but to the general reader. An incision four inches long was made a few inches to the general reader. An incision four inches long was made a few inches to the left of the pit of the stomach, much the ground directly.

We laughed and we cried, and Man. opening in the stomach should be atnext part of the operation requires the Queeny said. 'One sting is bad enough, and showed waver her eye was beginning to swell. 'The hornets came swarming out of the woods, there,' As for Obed he was a humilated man. 'But I was the one to blame, he said. 'The national statement with everbody is what some people like at the stomach at the greatest to do sententionally remarks the Hessian of the stomach, as the would gradually heals, grows to the world of the glass used in the United States is produced in Pittsburg, where over 5,000 hands are consists in sewing the stomach to the

I thought the horses would 'a' stood till ence of chloreform, and the operation successfully performed. Unfortunately the child had an attack of chills and feve weening gave a little scream, and put, acreament he added in an undertone.

'Sur Ray Tinkham!' cried Kate, and place three weeks ago. The stomach had grown on the sides of the abdomen, and she went apite where the little thing was she was a she was a little on a rock, looking pale. 'You have a she was a little so a rock, looking pale.' 'You have a she was a little so a rock, looking pale.' 'You have a she was a little so a rock, looking pale.' 'You have a she was a little so a rock, looking pale.' 'You have a she was a looked to rear a saw a little so a rock, looking pale.' 'You have a she looked as hale and saw a terrible pair of rise from the ground with a leap, and sooner than a was a look and the could have a sooner than a rock of the she week a beef steak out up fine has been passed with the forceps in the fine passed with the forceps in the stomach, and the child is steadily gain and an awind speed down that narrow rocky road.

I glanced toward Casar and Alexamder and saw a terrible pair or wild any mals. I looked toward fast and any if the programme of an amall one-story house, which we entered a extravagance at a Base and a stravagance at a st whose thin features and pale com ny, the second additional and the common of the commo

The mother brought in a rare beef-steak, which the doctor proceeded to cut up into small pieces, crumbling up some up into small pieces, crumbling up some bread at the same time. The food being prepared the child lay back on the bed and the opening in the side was exposed. It was only an inch in length and presented the appearance to, a hadly heiled cot. It was a little inflamed. I atood by and saw the doctor take one piece after another and carefully introduce it with the forceps into the stomach until the plate was nearly empty. The child complained a little at times, but did not amount to be intering any. She finally said "My stomach is full," and as there was no more steak the doctor desisted. Finally some cotton was placed in the opening, a bandage put on, and she sat up and was soon fonding her playthings.

The following additional facts may be of interest to the medical fraternity and others interested: No particle of solid food has passed through the child's throat since the accident. A grain of rice nearly strangles her. Milk is also injected into the stomach shrough the opening. The only possible danger is from the wound closing up, hence it is kept open with cotton. At first a plug of expansive cotton was used. There is no reason why the child should not become atout and healthy. The tond discome atout and healthy. The tond discome atout and healthy. come stout and healthy. The food di-gests readily, just as if chewed and swal-lowed. To the inquiry if this mode of

"Ah," said a deaf man, who had a scot wife, "man wants but little hear below."

Old Deacon Dobson always boasted that he was 'prepared for the worst.' and his neighbors thought he got it when he married his second wife.

Switzerland puts up condensed milk in large quantities for English market, where it finds a constant sals. There are several Swiss factories engaged in the business.

When a man buys a new hat his male acquaintances take it off; examine it and inquire the price. When a woman gets a new one her female triends turn up their noses at it and call it a horrid thing' That is the difference between the two.

in cold, damp weather, when the sufferer a provincial menageric posted up the cannot even drink milk. All attempts to open the closed assophagus are furtile, not to remain stationary in front of the

A rather gayly dressed young lady asked her Sunday school class what was "meant by the pomp and vanities of the world." The answer was honest, but rather unexpected; "Them flowers on your last."

No," said a Texas lawy placed a couple of loaded Dernigers en

"The man who helps, to circulate a piece of gossip is as bad as the one who originated it. To put your list in a tar-barrel and then go around shaking hands employed in making it. Twelve thous-and one hundred and ten tons of soda ash were used in the business during last year, and the values of the glass made

On Saturday last I visited the child and saw it fed. We halted in front of a small one-story house, which we entered. A little girl with light hair and blue eyes was sitting up in bed surrounded with playthings. Her mother, a young woman of about thirty years of age, was busy is the room.

"Don't you want your supper, Jessie?" said the doctor.

"I want steak. I don't want any bread, 'cos it burts," said the little girl, whose thin features and pale com ny,