

THE GLEANER.

GRAHAM, N. C., JAN. 2, 1889.

Happenings at Home.

Mr. David Bell spent a few days in town last week. A brick hall storm visited us last Thursday afternoon. P. R. HARDEN & SON have on hand a fine lot of shingles for sale. A perceptible increase of water in the wells is one of the results of the late rains. There has been a dearth of amusement generally incident to the holiday season. Dr. Geo. W. Long returned from Baltimore last week. We learn that his health is poor. Mr. J. I. White's excellent school at Hawthfield, will open for the Spring term on the 9th inst. The new organ for the Presbyterian church has arrived. It is a fine one and possesses excellent tone and power. Mr. Geo. W. Whitsett and Misses Ione Parker and Maggie Hunter came home from college to spend the holiday. ALWAYS REFRESHING.—A delicious odor is imparted by Floriston Cologne, which is always refreshing, no matter how freely used. Mr. Chas. Tidball has closed his school here and gone home. He does not intend re-turning. We learn that he has secured a place elsewhere. Brother Bradshaw of the Ashboro Courier, has taken to himself a wife. He was married in Greensboro to Miss Lou McCulloch. We wish him all happiness. The County Superintendent will examine white applicants for teacher's certificates at the Court House on Thursday the 12th inst., and colored applicants on Friday 13th. The new year was ushered in with a snow storm. The snow began falling before daylight and continued falling most of the morning. The prospect is that more may be expected. After a long silence occasioned by sickness, our western correspondent favors us with another interesting letter. It is to be hoped that he will keep well hereafter and write often. The Fall term of Graham Normal College was a success in every way. The Spring term will open to-morrow. It gives us pleasure to note the prosperity of the institution. Mr. J. H. Coleman, late of Greensboro, has opened an establishment at Gant & Davidson's Mills, for the manufacture of furniture, mattresses and coffins. We bespeak for him a share of the public patronage. There is a very bad hole in the road a short distance below Mr. C. P. Albright's residence. We saw a horse and buggy stuck fast there one day last week. It might be well for our town authorities to look after it. Yeargan, Petty & Co., have received a second supply of ladies' cloaks. The handsomest cloaks for the price in the State. Mr. Theo. F. White is connected with the house. He will take especial pleasure in filling orders from this County. All persons indebted to the firm of J. J. Long & Co. are respectfully invited to come forward and settle their accounts once, all claims against the firm will be paid when presented. They are still selling at cost, come soon and buy goods cheap, as they will close out in about ten days. Mr. T. B. Mosely, formerly connected with the Banner Warehouse, is now with Parrish & Blackwell. We don't know much about the tobacco business ourselves; but Mr. Mosely does. He will make use of his knowledge for the benefit of all who carry their tobacco to the brick warehouse, and give satisfaction to planters if anybody can. Roads that were worked just before the bad weather set in, are in a very bad condition. It appears to be the policy of overseers to do road work when they can do nothing else. This should not be so. We would like to see another grand jury with some curiosity about the road laws. A few cases properly prosecuted would have a wholesome effect. An appropriate present for the children, and one that will last all the year round is a subscription to OUR LITTLE OWN. January number is equal to any that has preceded it. The reading matter is choice and interesting to the youngest children, and the illustrations are attractive. It is published by the Russell Publishing Co., Boston, Mass., at $1.50 per year. Yeargan, Petty & Co. offer to furnish suits, costumes, party and wedding dresses to order. If the lady making an order, will give color, quality and kind of fabric wanted, also measurement and the price she wants to pay, they guarantee an outfit as fashionable and cheap as can be gotten up anywhere in the United States. Send orders to Raleigh, N. C. A WORD TO MOTHERS.—Mothers should remember it is a most important duty at this season to look after the health of their families and cleanse the malaria and impurity from their systems, and that nothing will tone up the stomach and liver, regulate the bowels, and purify the blood so perfectly as Parker's Ginger Tonic, advertised in our columns.—Post, See other column. YOUR VERY LAST CHANCE.—The December or Christmas number of the Southern Musical Journal is on our table. It was the last with which the shoemaker of Seville killed his wife, and with this, expires in glory, the old series of the Journal. January begins a new volume with a new series, but the dollar's worth of Premium Sheet Music, which has hitherto been presented each subscriber, will not be longer given. The Publishers offer one last chance to secure this Premium, and will extend it yet to all who subscribe before January 10th, 1889. Remit $1.25 at once, and the Journal for 1889, with its $1.00 worth of music bound in it, and $1.00 worth of Premium Sheet Music of your own selection, will be yours. This Christmas number has three Music Gems, 'He Giveth His Beloved Sleep,' 'The Celebrated Chop Waltz,' and 'Blue Bird Echo Polka.' Send your subscription to LADDEN & BATES, Southern Music House, Savannah, Ga.

DIED.
HOLT.—Dr. P. A. Holt, formerly a resident of this town, died in Jacksonville, Florida, on the evening of Sat. the 10th. He will be remembered by many of the citizens of this section of country. He did a large practice in this County before the war, and administered comfort and aid to many a wounded soldier during the war on the battle-fields of Virginia, but now his work is done, and his loss will be felt and mourned by many.

MARRIED.
FAUCETT—TURNER.—On the 24 inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by J. I. White, J. P., Mr. JOHN W. FAUCETT to Miss NANCY C. TURNER, daughter of David Turner, all of Melville Township.

GANT COVINGTON.—On the 27th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. J. H. Vernon, Mr. W. F. GANT of Graham to Miss FANNIE COVINGTON, daughter of Mr. Wood Covington, of Caswell County. May much joy be theirs.

PETTIGREW—CHEEK.—In Hillsboro, on Wednesday, January 21st, in the Baptist Church, by Rev. W. L. Wright, Mr. WILLIAM J. PETTIGREW, of Company Shops, to Miss MARY B. CHEEK, daughter of John Cheek Esq., of Hillsboro. The following-named ladies and gentlemen were attendants: Mr. E. D. Cheek, of Hillsboro, and Miss Thelma Pettigrew, of Mebaneville; Mr. Frank Lynch, of Company Shops, and Miss Fannie Fauette, of Hillsboro; Mr. W. E. Cheek, of Hillsboro, and Miss Sophie Cresswell, of Mebaneville. Miss Lilly Laws presided at the organ.—Hillsboro Observer.

EXTRACT FROM
A Letter from Professor Simpson.
It was my privilege to be present at the closing exercises of Oakdale Academy, June 9th, 1881. The school room was supplied with all kinds of educational books, Reading Charts, Color Charts, Phonetic Charts, Maps, Instructive Matters, &c. Mr. Thompson is a wide-awake teacher, systematic in his habits, earnest in his work, and of good moral character.
S. SIMPSON.

I told you that I was coming, and not to forget it. Now I am in your midst and I find many have taken my advice and gone to P. R. Harden & Son's and laid in a good supply of Clothing, &c. But some are chattering their teeth, and there is no excuse for such, but as there is still plenty of the comforts of life at P. R. Harden & Son's, I will give an extension of a few days to those who have not availed themselves of the favorable opportunities before I begin to stir the dry bones.
Truly I am,
JACK FROST.

A lot of Cabbage, Chestnuts, Apples, Buckwheat Flour, and Christmas tricks just received at
J. W. HARDEN'S.

M. Straus, at the Benbow House, Greensboro, keeps a large stock of Dry-goods, Hats, Boots and Shoes, &c.

FARM FOR SALE!
DESCRIPTION:
It is a mile and a half South of Bingham School, and the same distance from Mabeneville, immediately on the line between Alamance and Orange Counties, a very small portion being in Orange, contains Two Hundred and Sixty four Acres, has upon it a good dwelling-house, barn, kitchen and all necessary outbuildings, all in first class condition, a young orchard of select trees just beginning to bear; the water excellent, the location beautiful and healthy, the land good, and adapted to the growth of grain, grasses, tobacco and cotton, with plenty of timber upon the tract. It is on the headwaters of Haw Creek, and is in all respects in good repair. It is only once in a great while such a farm offers.

SALE AND TERMS:
This elegant farm will be sold at public outcry, at the Court House door in Graham on SATURDAY, 4th Day of FEB., 1889,
for cash.
THE POWER TO SELL:
This sale will be made in the exercise of the power conferred in two decrees, both executed by Capt. James Cresswell to the undersigned, one dated March 31st, 1877, and the other dated April 12th, 1878, and registered in Alamance and Orange Counties. The title is perfect.
Capt. James Cresswell, who lives upon the premises, will take pleasure in showing the farm.
