GRAHAM, N. C., March 23 1911.

Mr Thad R Manning, for twen ty-nine years and three months editor and owner of the Henderson Gold Leaf, has sold his paper and retired from active newspaper work. His farewell is pathetic. count of impaired health he quits his life work—a work that he loved and enjoyed and had succeeded in He was known and highly esteemed by his newspaper brethren throughout the State, with whom he was a great favorite. His enforced retirement is a source of deep regret to the members of the press. That he, in the very prime of life, has to lay aside his work is truly regretable and pathetic.

There was a sensational attempt at suicide in Greensboro last Saturday afternoon and the fact that the would be suicide is a daughter of Mr. A. C. Mitchell of Burlington makes the tragedy of special interest in this county. Mrs. Farrar Royster, a bride of about four weeks, is the name of the young woman. She was married to Mr. Royster in Durham, who spent a day or so with his young wife and left her; returned to her in a few days and left again and has not been heard from. On account of the treatment of her hushand she was daiven to the attempt on her life.

Judge W. M.
