It is believed here that the Railroads of the West and Canada can "choke off" the publicity given the movement by distributing heavy advertising contracts among the newspapers, especially in the South and East. The "Back Home" circulars and literature received here in the West are passed from one to another until they are worn out. Sometimes one circular will be mailed and re-mailed a hundred times, and in this way interest continues to grow. Here in the City "Back Home" has become a by-word. I have heared men here say that it is worth a hundred million dollars to the South if the movement is pressed for all it is worth. It is generally admitted even by the "land sharks" and boomers of the West, as being great "hit"; but they say the pe ple of the South are too slow take full advantage of it. ng a Attack Like Tigers.
