Street Cars Coming.

That track-laying on the Electric Street Car line is now in view from the court house and going ahead at the rate of about 700 feet a day confirms the hope held out for several years that Graham is really to have electric street cars—that the time now is but a matter of a few weeks.

Residence Burglarized.

Some time last night the home of Mrs. Ellsabeth Freeland on the Haw River road was burglarized. A silver watch belonging to Mr. G. Walton Gossett, No. 91610, in initial on case, was taken. Between $15 and $20 were taken from the pants pockets of Messrs. G. C. and J. D. Freeland. Trunks were opened and ransacked. Nothing is reported missing except the watch and money, so it seems they were after valuables easily gotten away with.

Piedmont-Carolina Fair Association.

This is the name of a Fair Association organized by the colored people of this section of the State and the district embraces Winston-Salem and Durham and intermediate territory. They will hold this fair at the grounds of the Alamance Fair Association the week after the latter fair and will open on Oct. 10th and continue four days.

Oxford Orphans Coming.

The Singing Class from the Oxford Orphanage will give a concert in the Montwhite Theatre at 8:00 o'clock, Monday night, August 7th. These entertainments are highly enjoyable and while the admission price is very reasonable it is a source of considerable help to the orphanage.

Mr. J. Scott Hunter Receives a Call to Georgia.

The Durham Sun of yesterday says: Secretary J. S. Hunter, of the Durham Young Men's Christian Association, has received a call to Thomasville, Ga., and in all probability will accept this call.

Watermelon Feast.

According to custom Graham Water and Electric Co. gave its annual feast of melons to its employees and their families last Friday. There was an abundance of sweet, juicy, ice-cold melons, and the feast was heartily enjoyed by all whose privilege it was to attend.

Fourteen Turkeys, Mule and Mare For Sale.

Old Long Homestead. One full blooded bronze gobbler which cost seven dollars and fifty cents, a year ago, at Baltimore. One full blooded broze hen, which cost, at Occombees Farm, three dollars and fifty cents. The others are mixed breeds. The entire flock may be had, at greatly reduced prices, for cash. Also one mule and one mare, for sale. The mare was purchased from Mr. W. C. Moore, of Graham, for $150 cash, on account of her unfitness for a family buggy horse. All cheap for cash, or a bankable note. D. A. LONG.

Brick Machine for Sale.

One No. 3 J. C. Steele & Son Brick Machine, together with truck, etc., all in good repair, for sale by River Falls Cotton Mill Co. Apply to J. W. Menefee, or J. D. Kernodle, July 27, '11.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson.

By REV. T. S. LINSOOTT, D. D.

Aug. 13th, 1911.

(Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)

Jehohakim Burns the Prophet's Book. Jer. xxxvii.

Golden Text—The word of our God shall stand forever. Isa. xli:5.

(1.) Verse 1-3—What was the character of Jehohakim?

(2.) Why is it that God bears so long and patiently with sinners, and waits such loving pains to save them?

(3.) What advantage is it to us that men like Jeremiah wrote the history of God's dealing with his people, and that we have these records in the Bible?

(4.) Who had been the kings of Judah since the death of Josiah, and what had been their characters?

(5.) Verse 4—What was the chief purpose of the Lord in commanding Jeremiah to write a book, containing what God had revealed to him, concerning the sin and the coming punishment of Judah?

(6.) Jeremiah had previously delivered these messages orally and had been tried for his life on account of it; why was it important that they should be written?

(7.) Why is it necessary that such important messages should always be written?

(8.) Verses 5-6—Why could Jeremiah not read the roll personally in the temple?

(9.) If we cannot go personally as missionaries, what is our duty in the circumstances?

(10.) Why is every Christian in duty bound to be a missionary, either in person or by proxy?

(11.) Verse 7—God was then very anxious to save these sinners from the doom they were bringing on themselves; how does he show the same anxiety to-day?

(12.) Verse 8—Which was the more meritorious in the sight of God, Jeremiah or Baruch; the man who writes a book at God's command, or the man who publishes it at his command?
