Hon. Roger Q. Mills Dead.

Former United States Senator Roger Q. Mills, of Texas, a leader in State and national Democratic politics for many years, best known, perhaps, as the author of the Mills tariff bill, died Saturday at his home at Corsicana, Texas, aged 79. He was a Confederate soldier, a native of Kentucky, and when a young man moved to Texas and began life as a drug clerk, afterward becoming a lawyer. He served 20 years in the House of Congress, being first elected in 1872 as a Representative-at-large from Texas. He resigned to enter the Senate March 29, 1892, and served as Senator until March 3, 1899.

A batch of newspaper clippings from Ardmore, Okla., received in Newton by relatives, threw the first light the family has seen on the murder of Preston L. Yount, formerly of Newton, near Providence, Okla., August 19. He was literally cut to pieces by one J. E. Sorrels and possibly also by C. D. Denson, both of whom are in prison at Ardmore, Sorrels being held without bail and Denson is a default of $5,000 bond.

With no dissenting voice, Francisco I. Madero received the nomination of the progressive party for President of Mexico, in a convention held in Mexico, City Wednesday.

A campaign which has for its purpose a reduction of the high prices of food was started Thursday in Paris. Ten taxicabs, their occupants carrying devices on which were inscribed demands that the cost of necessities be lowered, paraded through the thoroughfares. Open agitation, with some violence, was begun the same day in many other cities and towns in France and the movement spread over that country.

Stoned and forcibly robbed of 3,000 pesos by a mob of Maderistas, in the principal thoroughfare of the capital of Mexico, General Bernardo Reyes, candidate for the presidency in opposition to Francisco I. Madero, was forced to abandon an effort to address his constituents and to run the gauntlet of a jeering crowd upon whom the police had received orders not to fire except as a last resort.

Ninety-one applicants for license to practice law made up the class that appeared before the Supreme Court Monday, eleven more than ever appeared on a similar occasion in the past.

A reward of $500 has been offered by J. A. Rowe for the recovery of the body of his brother-in-law, Mat R. Walker, the young man who is supposed to have committed suicide midway the trestle over Banks channel Wednesday night of last week by shooting himself and falling over into the swift, ocean-going stream. Lenoir News: Mary Harper, colored, 16 years old, was so badly burned last Thursday night that she died Saturday. Some boys at Harpers town, two miles west of Lenoir, were repairing a bicycle by lamp light, the lamp being on a chair. The lamp was turned over and one of the boys threw it out the door, hitting the Harper girl, who was sitting on the porch, setting fire to her clothing.

Charlotte Observer: The Norfolk & Western railway, acting in conjunction with the Southern, Seaboard, Atlantic Coast Line and other roads, hauling Pocomantas and New River coal into the territory of the Carolinas, has just issued a new tariff which, generally speaking, reduces the rate 10 cents a ton on all coal hauled. The tariff is effective October 15, and awaits only the approval of the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

Judge Ward, of the Superior Court bench, who has been sick a long time, has improved and is about able for duty.

Dr. L. N. Burleyson, the Council physician who was charged with selling cocaine, was acquitted. The negroes who said they had bought cocaine from him told a different story when the case came to trial.

Standard Oil Company Dissolved.

Washington Dispatch, Aug. 31.

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the corporation which has been the storm-center of anti-trust agitation throughout the country for years, today passed out of existence, so far as its present form and functions were concerned. After today this famous corporation will have ceased officially to carry on its operations as the head of a vast organization whose activities extend into almost every part of the world.

In obedience to the decree of dissolution of the Supreme Court, it is to relinquish its control of the subsidiary concerns, and today was the date set for the ending of the old regime. With the end of the business day the company's transfer books, containing the list of stockholders, and the stock of its subsidiaries were distributed among the stockholders in the parent organization as on record at that time.

The work of apportioning the company's holdings of the stock of more than 30 subsidiaries affected will occupy at least three months, it is expected, so that the readjustment will not be complete prior to December 1.

An official of the company said today that the only element of doubt as to the general effect of re-organization upon the present stockholders lay in the ability of the constituent companies, operating independently, to produce as large a total of profits as has been possible under the present form of management. As to whether this can be done, he said, only the future will disclose.

Wharf Rats Destroying Poultry in Raleigh.

Raleigh Dispatch. That wharf rats have invaded Raleigh, destroying chickens by the hundreds and endangering garden crops, is the testimony of many Raleigh people. The rodents were brought here, it is thought, on grain trains from Norfolk, and were brought to this country from Norway on cattle boats. These rats are two or three times as large as the ordinary rodents and are so vicious that cats and dogs are afraid to tackle them. Some of the pests weigh as much as two pounds.

Mayor James I. Johnson says that one of the rats invaded his chicken brooder the other night and killed 20 young chicks. Another time the animals pulled the wing of a half-grown hen through the wire netting and broke the wing in several places. All of Mr. Johnson's chickens were kept behind wire screens as a protection from rats.

Other citizens report similar depredations. Everybody in Raleigh who raises chickens has to protect them from these pests, and many people have stopped trying to raise chickens. There are some sections of the city which have not been visited by the rats, but the center of the town is full of them.

A Little Dubious.

There was a new baby up at Johnny Bikins', and everybody in the neighborhood seemed very much interested in the newcomer. On his way to school in morning Johnny was frequently stopped by passersby with inquiries as to the state of things at home. The last individual of record to inquire was the clergyman, who reports the following: Ah, Johnny, my lad," said the reverend gentleman, "I understand that you have a bouncing boy up at your house." "I dun' no said Johnny. "I ain't never seen him bounce—I don't think they've throwed him down hard enough to find out yet."

The clergyman smiled broadly and went on to the next question. "Well, I hope he is a good baby," he suggested.

"Oh, I guess so," said Johnny dubiously. "He don't smoke or drink any, but sometimes he seems to me to swear some."—Harper's Weekly.

New Machinery Before Fire Was Out.

High Point Special to Charlotte Observer.

The Statesville Lumber Company, whose plant was destroyed by fire Saturday, is evidently a very enterprising firm and does not mean to be greatly delayed in reconstruction. The fire broke out about 11 a. m.; at 12 o'clock they wired for Mr. Charles R. Gheen, of this city, Southern representative of the American Woodworking Machinery Company, to come at once and take order for all the machinery to duplicate a new plant. Mr. Gheen caught the next train for Statesville, took the big order and wired same to his house, while the plant was still burning!

Short Weights and Measures.

Every adult in the United States loses a quarter of a cent every day in the year through short weights and measures of butchers, grocers and fruit peddlers, according to Isadore Wolfson, inspector of weights and measures of Indianapolis, Ind., who addressed the International Stewards' Association, in session in Chicago last week. In this way, he declares, the American public is defrauded out of $20,000,000 annually.

He declared that Federal supervision of weights and measures was the only way the public could be protected.

States of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, vs. Frank J. Cheney makes claim that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, Ohio and State of Ohio, and that said firm will pay the sum of $10,000 to the plaintiff in damages for each and every case of Ochs' Hair Cure, P. O. Box 12, Toledo, Ohio, sold by any person or firm, who swears to before me and subscribed in my presence this 31st day of December, 1910.

Suit Against Alleged Lumber Trust.

Alleging a conspiracy to restrain inter-State trade and commerce in lumber and its products, the United States district attorney has filed a bill in the States Circuit Court at Detroit, Mich., to enjoin the Michigan Retail Lumber Dealers' Association, the Scott Publishing Company, of Detroit, and the Lumber Secretaries Bureau of Information, of Chicago, from further alleged unlawful business methods. It is alleged that members of the Retailers' Association endeavor to prohibit manufacturers or jobbers from shipping to competitors who were non-members of the organization.

Congressman Thrashed Four Clerks.

Congressman Carter, of Oklahoma, who is part Indian, thrashed four clerks in a Washington store last Friday. The Congressman had accompanied his daughter to the store and he says the clerk who waited on her, thinking she was unattended, tried to engage her in conversation and when repulsed became insulting. The Congressman took his daughter outside the store and then returned and administered on the clerk. Three of the latter's companions attempted to interfere and were put to rout. After reporting the case at the nearest police station and leaving his address, the Congressman took his daughter home.

It is said the clerk of the first party denied that he insulted Miss Carter and that the four victims will sue the Congressman for damages.

Senator Simmons made his first public address in the State since the senatorial agitation began, at an educational rally at Matthews, Mecklenburg county, Thursday. The address was non-political. The Charlotte Observer says he paid high tribute to Gov. Aycock and also complimented Gov. Glenn. He doesn't seem to have mentioned Gov. Kitchen or Judge Clark.

Mayor Smith, of Wilmington, and Dr. Chas. Nesbit, the city health officer, were arrested last week on the charge of maintaining a nuisance. It is charged that a sewer has given trouble and the city authorities did nothing to remedy the trouble. Some of the citizens of Wilmington have complained of the activities of the health officer and his arrest may be prompted by revenge.

Sam Hurley, a young farmer of Cumberland county, drove away from home a few days ago, sold his horse and buggy and has not been heard from since. He had money in the bank he did not draw out and his disappearance is something of a mystery.

Thousands of Lambs Shipped From Watanga.

Ed. Shipley, the most extensive stock dealer in the county, was asked by "Democrat" man last week how many lambs had been shipped from Watanga this season. His reply was that he knew of 21 car loads going out—500 head to the car—making a total of 5,400. He says the lambs cost the buyers on an average of $4 per head, which means $21,840 in cash to the sheep-raisers of Watanga, despite the prowling cubs that are constantly making inroads on their flocks.

The Anti-Trust League of America is to Start a Country-wide Movement Against any Amendments to or Changes in the Sherman Anti-trust Law.

This movement is to counteract whatever recommended changes in the law are to come out of the convalescence of great financiers, business men, economists, and labor leaders planned by Senator Cummins for next November. Henry B. Martin, national secretary of the league, has charge of the campaign against changes in the law, and is preparing literature to be sent to all branches of the league, civic and patriotic bodies, and organizations interested in public welfare work.

Discussing the Cummins plan to ascertain whether changes in the law were necessary, as urged by Judge Gary and George W. Perkins before the Stanley steel investigating committee, Mr. Martin said:

"In the light of the conviction of some of the leaders of the steel, oil and tobacco combines and the gloomy prospect that the harvest trust, steel trust and railroad trust are facing early prosecution and certain conviction, with heavy penalties and imprisonment, it is easy to understand the anxiety of the Perkins-Gary-Morgan type of plunderers to rush to Washington and aid Congress in an early amendment to the anti-trust law."

Great Deterioration in Cotton Crop.

According to 1,900 replies of special correspondents of the New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin bearing an average mail date of August 23-24, the per centage condition of the cotton crop was on that date 72.6, as compared with 86.9 a month ago, a deterioration for the period under review of 14.3 points. This compares with 70.7 per cent. last year, 66 per cent. in 1909, 78.1 per cent. in 1907. The ten-year average is 73.9 per cent. and the loss of 14.3 points during August is the greatest in that month in the past ten years. The most important declines occurred in Texas and Oklahoma, respectively, 21.4 points and 19.1 points, where severe drought and hot winds and storms caused heavy shedding.

Typoid Fever Vaccination Compulsory in Army.

Vaccination against typhoid fever has been made compulsory for every officer and enlisted man in the United States Army under 45 years old. The only exceptions allowed by the War Department's order in the matter are those who have had the disease or have already been vaccinated.

This action was taken by the Secretary of War on recommendation of Surgeon General Toney. The army physicians are enthusiastic over the efficacy of the anti-typhoid inoculation. They point to the splendid health record of the maneuver division at San Antonio, Texas, every member of which was vaccinated against the disease which is regarded as one of the greatest scourges of armies. For several months every recruit received into the army has been vaccinated with virus.
