 GRAHAM, N. C., Sept. 14, 1911.

Judge J. Crawford Biggs of Durham, one of the foremost Judges of the Superior Court, has resigned, and Gov. Kitchin has appointed Hon. Howard A. Foushee of Durham his successor. He enters upon his duties next Monday. Other than Mr. Foushee three other prominent lawyers of the district were strongly endorsed for the position: Granville county presented Mr. A. A. Hicks, Guilford Mr. A. Wayland Cook, and Alamance Col. Jacob A. Long. The bar of Alamance endorsed Col. Long and a delegation presented the petition in person to the Governor. Alamance feels that her claims were superior to those of any county in the district, as she has never had a Superior Court Judge and but one term for Solicitor in fifty years, and for the further reason that her candidate by reason of his long years of active practice and his acknowledged ability pre-eminently fit him for discharging the duties incident to the office.

TO HOLD FOR 15 CENTS.

The Southern Cotton Congress, composed of 500 farmers and as many more bankers, financiers, Congressmen and U. S. Senators, representing every cotton growing State in America, met in Atlanta and on yesterday decided not to sell cotton for less than 15c. per pound. It was estimated that the crop would not be more than 12,500,000 bales. It is proposed to place the cotton in bond and it appears that ample funds can be secured from American bankers and a French-English syndicate to finance the scheme.

A most sensational and mysterious murder was committed about Thursday of last week at Hendersonville. The body of 19-year-old Myrtle Hawkins, daughter of a prominent citizen was found in a lake Sunday morning, placed there some four hours before. The latest developments point to the implication of a doctor and a young man.

Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., whose long sensational trial for the murder of his wife was concluded at Chesterfield C. H., Va., last week, was found guilty. The jury deliberated 58 minutes. Judge Watson, who heard the trial, sentenced Beattie to be electrocuted. Few murder trials have excited such general interest, from the fact the prisoner's relations with another woman appear to have moved Beattie to the commission of the crime. Beattie will appeal and is hopeful that he will escape.

Rev. Dr. R. C. Anderson has resigned as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Gastonia to accept the presidency of the Montreat Association, to which he was recently elected to succeed Judge J. D. Murphy, of Asheville.

Frank F. Capers, a prominent banker of Greenville, S. C., a son of Bishop Capers and a brother of Capt. John G. Capers, late commissioner of internal revenue, was stricken with paralysis at Linville last Saturday after a strenuous day on the golf links. He was in a critical condition at last account.

The dead body of young Braxton Barkley, of Salisbury, who was drowned in the Yadkin river a week ago Sunday, was washed ashore and found last Thursday, some 10 or 12 miles below the point where he went down.
