Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

THE GUILTY PARTY. One of the most powerful short stories written by the late O. Henry was called "The Guilty Party."

"The red haired, unshaven, untidy man sitting shoeless by the window answered, with a frown: "Checkers! No, I won't play."

And this is Henry's "dream." He is that red haired, unshaven, untidy man sitting in his stocking feet by the window while his child plays in the street.

TO THE MAN OF FIFTY. I have two friends, each fifty years of age, who have retired from business.

As I myself am on the shady side of fifty, though as young in spirit as any boy, I wanted to know how these men looked upon life.

"I had a hard fight to make my money. No one helped me; on the contrary, everybody tried to beat me. I have enough to pay all bills while I am on earth. I am under no obligations to anybody."

"The other said: "I tried to do some good as I went along, but failed. I am tired of the struggle. I have earned a rest. I have no grievance against any one. Let the world wag as it will."

"I was surprised at the bitter dress I had discovered in the bottom of these hearts. They were wrong, both of them. They hauled down the flag too soon. They were well whipped, though still boastful. The battle of life is only about one-half over at fifty."

SNOBBERY IN SHORT SKIRTS. A Chicago woman who sent her daughter to a private boarding school tells this story: "I asked my daughter after a few days how she liked the school and how she got along. My girl said: "Well, mother, it's a very nice school, but the little girls are the straightest creatures. The first thing she said was, "How many carriages have you?"

LIME ON THE FARM.

Best Way to Test it is to Try it on Small Patch.

Lime seems to be needed on parts of most farms. It corrects sourness, mellow heavy soils, favors light soils to retain moisture, helps the growth of clover and alfalfa and checks the increase of some plant diseases.

Professor Brooks has been looking up various sources of lime in New England markets, and he finds that it is sold in two different grades by crop and when it can be plowed, it may be planted broadcast and worked into the soil with a harrow.

One hundred pounds of quicklime contains as much essential lime as 120 pounds of slaked lime, thirty-two pounds being moisture from the air, and it contains as much as 175 pounds of raw limestone.

MAKE FARMHOUSE FIT. Don't Build Compact City Dwelling on Your Spreading Green Fields.

In our great cities land is dear and houses must be adapted to small areas. Architects have studied how to get the most house on a limited space because the man of moderate means cannot afford to buy a big lot.

A Japanese Festival. The boy festival in Japan, occurring on the 5th day of May, is also called the sweet flag Siberian iris festival, as the girls, on the 3d of March, is called the peach blossom, while the 9th of September is the chrysanthemum festival.

THE DRESS OF THE HIGHLANDER. The highland dress, without a rival in picturesque, unique in its longevity and remarkable for the manner in which it has been employed to distinguish the different families or clans of one race, appears to be a survival of the ordinary Roman dress and a relic of Caesar's invasion of Britain.

THE NEW CHINA. If anything is needed to prove that China is under the government of really able men the record of the recent fight against opium should be sufficient.

Train and Track. Venezuela added only three miles last year to the length of its railways. "Breakfast trains" to accommodate late sleeping suburbanites are being tried by some of the railroads entering London.

Household Hints. Household ammonia will put out a gasoline fire quickly. Teat cakes left lying around where cats and dogs can eat them will rid a house of the rodents.

Proposal Rock.

By EBEN B. MATTESON. Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

They were dawdling about on a seabeach. The girl was pretty, though burned brown by the sun. The sleeves of her dress or her waist or whatever it was were rolled under to above her elbows. The fellow was in tennis costume.

"Do you see that rock out there?" she asked, pointing to a protuberance from the water about a hundred yards from shore.

"There's usually a villain who serves to bring out the virtues of the hero by contrast."

"It means that if a girl receives a proposal on that rock there is a subtle influence that—disposes—"

"The girl at least would certainly know what she was going to get. Take the man's feet for instance. She could see the bunions—"

"If you are married don't you expect your husband to see you in curl papers?"

"How funny! I never thought about it."

"Or see you take the balloons and rats out of your hair?"

"I'm not talking about after they are married. It's the proposal that interests me. But don't let's talk any more about it; you stub all sentiment; I don't believe you have a sentimental hair on your head."

"I won't have any kind of a hair on the tip when I'm thirty. It's pretty thin there already."

"I'll go and get a boat and we'll go out on to Proposal rock."

"She neither assented nor demurred to this. He left her and, going to the pier nearby, came pulling back in a boat. It was a thin one with outriggers.

Stubborn Case.

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week, before I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone, and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic. If you are one of those ailing women who suffer from any of the troubles so common to women. Cardui is a builder of womanly strength. Composed of purely vegetable ingredients, it acts quickly on the womanly system, building up womanly strength, toning up the womanly nerves, and regulating the womanly system.
