Frog hunting as a sport in these parts has never ranked along with fishing. In fact, as a diversion, it has had little attention, but the success achieved a few nights ago by Messrs. J. J. Henderson, Edwin D. Scott and Michael Holt Kernode, bids fair to make the sport loom up in large proportions. The sportsmen bagged 53 bull frogs and shut off enough music to drown the Marine Band.

Mrs. J. D. Kernode, Chapter President, was hostess to Graham Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy at the May meeting. There was a full attendance of members and the ladies were very glad to welcome Mrs. Lynn B. Williamson as a new member. Several fine reports from committees were read and special attention given to plans for Memorial Day, May 10th. A special Memorial program followed the business meeting and delightful refreshments were served by the hostess. The Chapter will meet in June with Mrs. W. H. Anderson, Haw River.

Dr. W. W. Staley of Suffolk, Va., to Preach Sermon at New Providence Memorial Day.

Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., of Suffolk, Va., will preach the annual Memorial Sermon at New Providence the first Sunday in June, (June 4th) at 11 a. m. The Providence Memorial Association is indeed fortunate in securing Dr. Staley, a beloved son to Alamance county, to preach for them on this occasion. Dr. Staley's presence on this occasion will, we trust, be the means of greatly aiding the Memorial Association in its noble work. It is doing in caring for the Old Providence cemetery, that sacred spot of land where rests the bones of the forefathers and kin of virtually every old family connection of this community. Dinner will be served on the church grounds and at 2 p. m. the Memorial Association will hold its annual meeting, elect its officers and attend to all business coming before it.

CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL EXERCISES.

Dr. Harper Delivers Address-Graves of Confederate Veterans Decorated-Business Suspends for the Hour-School Children Attend in a Body.

Yesterday, May 10th, Confederate Memorial Day, was appropriately observed here, the Daughters of the Confederacy taking the lead, as has been their custom since the organization of Graham Chapter. A well arranged program was carried out.

In the morning flowers were carried to the cemeteries and placed on the graves of all Confederate veterans, and in the afternoon the address was made and the other exercises held. The hour for the address was 3 o'clock, and during the hour the business men closed their places of business and attended. The teachers and pupils of the Graded School marched down Main St. to the music of two drums by the Oneida Band, Mr. Boyd Harden leading the procession and bearing the beautiful flag of Graham Chapter. The small children of the Grade carried small Confederate flags and all the children carried flowers. Arriving at the Confederate Monument the school children split into ranks, surrounded the monument and placed the flowers on the plat about the monument. After singing Dixie the school children marched into the court room followed by the Daughters, Veterans and citizens.

The court room had been attractively and appropriately decorated for the occasion. A special choir led by Miss Kathleen Long sang appropriate songs. Prayer was offered by Dr. T. C. McConnell, after which Mayor Heenan Hughes introduced in happy style the orator of the occasion, Dr. W. A. Harper, Pres. of Elon College. Dr. Harper was specially happy and practical in his address, holding up the Confederate veterans and the women of the four years struggle as models of adaptability to the conditions then and since; their unflinching loyalty to home and country; their efforts and success in rebuilding a devastated land, and their model citizenship in all the relations of life, as exemplars and patterns for the young people of this day.

After the address Crosses of Honor were bestowed. Then the school children returned to the monument and sang "Tenting To-Night." After "taps" an informal reception was tendered the veterans and light refreshments were served. The program of the occasion was well conceived and pleasingly carried out. It was announced that on July 4th the Daughters would serve an elaborate dinner in Graham to the veterans.

At Lumberton Will Inman, a 14-year-old negro boy, was run over by an auto-truck and killed. Will Bullard, colored, who drove the car, was arrested. Cleveland Sirmans, while engaged in a scuffle with a companion on the deck of an oyster boat, on Pamlico sound, fell overboard and was drowned.
