With population increasing, compulsory school law, and increasing attendance in the shools together with the lengthening school term makes it an imperative necessity that there be aystematic control of quarantine. The older a child is before having measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough, or other so-called diseased of childhood, the better its chance for recovery without complication.

One of the best means at hand for reducing the death rate in North Carolina from this class of diseases is the enforcement of an effective quarantine. Such a systematic control should apply with equal force to Cherokee as to Durham.

Another handful of purpose seems to have come Paul's way in his being allowed to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him (verse 16). That soldier must have learned much of Jesus Christ, for as Paul talked to him privately it was like pouring water into a bottle rather than throwing it at a lot of bottles. Our Lord spoke more than once to audiences of one, as in the case of Nicodemus and the woman of Samaria, Having called the chief of the Jews together, Paul explained to them why he had come to Rome as a prisoner, adding, "For the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain" (verses 17-20). These sayings of the Spirit through Isaiah concerning Israel's blindness and hardness of heart are quoted in Matt. xiii, 14, 15; John xii, 39, 40; Rom. xi, 8, as well as in our lesson. Jere-miah and Ezekiel were both told that they must expect opposition and that their message would not be received by many (Jer. i, 17, 19; Ezek. ii and iii, xxxiii, 31). The apostles also were told that they were sent out as sheep in the midst of wolves and might expect to be hated, put out of the syn-agogue and killed (Matt. x, 16-28; John xv, 18-21; xvi, 1-3). The most that we can aim to do in this age is by all means to save some (I Cor. ix. 22), for we are nowhere taught that the world will ever be won to Christ until Israel shall have received Him at His coming in glory, and then when the glory of

This bond of schools, courses of study for comthe Acts begins with the Lord Jesus speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God during the forty record of Paul's two years' testimony at Rome concerning the same great topic. In connection with our Lord's teaching after He rose from the dead, we need to notice what He talked about on the way to Emmaus and also that same evening in Jerusalem (Luke xxiv, 27-44) and observe that both He and Paul used the same textbook, the Scriptures written by the Holy Spirit, through Moses and the prophets, for all Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost (II Tim. til, 16; II Pet. 1, 21).

Rev. D. M. Stearns.

After carrying three months at Malta of the International Sunday School another ship from Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, was sailing for Italy, and on that they departed and reached Italy-in safety, remaining three days at Syracuse and seven days at Putcoll on the way. No doubt the gospel was preached at both places, but at the latter place there were believers, and the fellowship must have been very helpful to all. It would be a great event for the brethren at Putcoll to hear from those who had so recently come from Jerusalem and to hear Paul tell of his missionary tours and rehearse all that God had done by him and all that he had suffered on his tours at Jerusalem must have thrilled an assembly of believers and inspired them with greater zeal for God and his kingdom.

To conduct several conferences. As a leader of leaders of adolescent ages, Mr. Alexander is entitled ered the highest authority in North America, if not in the world, and it is a very rare opportunity for those interested in constructive and educational lines of work red to master what the particular line of work may be. Mr. Alexander is helping leaders to promote a plan of work which has an assembly of believers and inspired them with greater zeal for God and his kingdom. The brethren at Rome, having heard of Paul's arrival in Italy, came out to meet him as far as Appli forum and the three taverns, and, having welcomed him and encouraged him.

to take part in the Convention program are Judge Gilbert T. Stephenson of Winston-Salem, times use this incident as suggestively substrative of our meeting the Lord in the art and returning with Him when the shall come to set up His kingdom. Just the meeting and returning—I have no other thought of any analogy in the incident (verses 11-15). Another handful of purpose seems to have come Paul's way in his being allowed to State; Mrs. E. R. Michaux of Greensboro, Supt. of the Elementary Division of the State Associa-tion; Miss Martha Dozier of Greensboro, Director of Religious Education of Guilford county, and Supt. of the Girls' Section of the Secondary Division of the State Association; Prof. P. L. Wright of Winston-Salem; Dr. Edgar Knight of the faculty of Trinity College, Durham; Dr. Thos. New-lin, President of Guilford College; bound with this chain" (verses 17-20). There is only one person who is called the hope of Israel or the hope of the church, only one in whom there is any hope for either (Jer. xiv. 8; xvii, 13; Joel iii, 16; I Tim. i, 1). His coming for us is our blessed hope, and His coming with us in glory will prove Him to be the hope and Saviour of Israel as a nation (Tit. ii, 13; Isa. xxv, 8, 9; Zech. xii, 10; xiii, 1). The brethren at Rome said that they had never heard anything against Paul, but they would like to hear what he thought of this sect that was everywhere spoken against. A day having been appointed, many came to his Dr. John A.
