The Graham Choral Union will meet at the M. P. church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members are requested to be present and any others who will join in practicing songs for the Memorial services the first Sunday in June at New Providence church.

A demonstration, to which all the ladies are specially invited, will be given on May 28, 29 and 30 at the Ladies' Emporium. An expert specialist will be in charge of this feature and will give each one individual attention. Attention is called to the Ladies' Emporium ad. in this issue for further information.

A device, electrically controlled, has been invented by Mr. Earl B. Horner of Burlington, that is claimed will successfully put submarine torpedo boats out of commission. It is submitted to the Navy Department to pass on. If it shall be found practical and efficient it will be a blessing to the Government and will bring fortune and fame to the inventor.

Burlington Graded School closing exercises begin tomorrow (Friday) night with the literary address by W. J. Brogdon, Esq., of Durham. Sunday night Prof. H. H. Williams of Chapel Hill preaches the annual sermon to the graduating class. Monday night annual debating contest; Tuesday night music recital; Wednesday night senior reception to juniors; Thursday night senior class exercises.

On Sunday Next Special Services Begin at M. E. Church. With the eleven o'clock service of Sunday, May 20, there will begin a series of special services in the Graham Methodist Episcopal Church. Those to assist in the meeting are Revs. W. C. Swope and W. S. Eskridge of Charleston, Mo. Both of these men are active ministers of the Methodist church and come to Graham with excellent recommendations. While both are ministers, Mr. Swope is to do the preaching and Mr. Eskridge is to have charge of the singing during the Graham campaign. Press reports in the Missouri papers assign to Mr. Swope the place of best pulpitor orator in the State and speak of him as a speaker of unsurpassed logic, convincing and masterful. This is his first visit to North Carolina. The people of one of the State's first towns have, therefore, have the first opportunity of hearing this very gifted speaker.

All members of the community are urged to attend the meetings and thereby derive personal benefit and make the services of these men count for the most for the town.

The hours for the week-day services are 3:00 in the afternoon and 7:20 at night. Later announcements will be made regarding special feature services. All come to all the meetings and take part in the services.

Confederate Memorial Day. Last Thursday's Confederate Memorial exercises were thoroughly enjoyed by the Veterans and a large assemblage of other citizens.

Col. Fred A. Olds' address in the court house was heard by an audience that filled the court room. It was full of historical interest in regard to the Civil War, for few, if any, are better posted than he. He was listened to with rapt attention to the close.

After Col. Olds had finished the veterans were served a splendid dinner by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

The music was furnished by the Oneida Cornet Band.

GRADED SCHOOL.

Dr. E. K. Graham, Pres. of University, Speaks to Graduating Class.

Three evenings' exercises composed the fourteenth annual commencement of the Graham Graded School.

Last week the delightful recital by the music class on Wednesday night was mentioned in these columns. A program was given that was highly pleasing and that reflected credit on both pupil and teacher.

Class Day exercises was the order for Thursday evening, to-wit: Class Song—Lorena Perry, President's Address—Lovick H. Kernodle, History—Zelma Hornbuckle, Statistics—Myrtle Cooper, Class Essay—Louise Moore, Gifts—Annie Laurie Farrell, That's What the Daisy Said—Song, Poem—Luta Harden, Prophecy—Charles Phipps, Last Will and Testament—Lucile Holmes, Presentation of Banner and Ladder—Dover Fogleman, Response From Seventh Grade—Margaret Moore, Farewell—Song.

Class organization: Lovick H. Kernodle, President, Thomas Cooper, Secretary, Mattie Montgomery, Treasurer.

Class Motto: "Not at the top but climbing."

Class Colors: Yellow and White. Class Flower: Daisy.

The evening was given over exclusively to the class of '17 and it was the "whole show." Each one performed his part creditably to the school and himself. A fine vein of humor and brightness pervaded the entire exercise.

The Class was composed of eighteen members, as follows: Elizabeth Anderson, Thomas Cooper, Myrtle Cooper, Lola Ezzell, Annie Laurie Farrell, Dover Fogleman, Lucile Holmes, Luta Holt, Zelma Hornbuckle, Nina Harden, Lovick H. Kernodle, Julius Johnson, Annie Ben Long, Mattie Montgomery, Louise Moore, Charles Phipps, Lorena Perry, Nell Thompson.

Friday evening, at the Opera House filled to its capacity, the final exercises were held.

The event of the evening was the address of Dr. E. K. Graham, Pres. of the University, who was introduced by Mr. J. Harvey White in happy manner.

Dr. Graham made some very pleasing references to the school in regard to its high stand in the annual debates at Chapel Hill, and his address otherwise was made up from the things which will confront and make up the boy and girl's life in the coming years. It was pleasing, entertaining and instructive.

Next the diplomas were awarded to the graduates and the presentation of the Trustees' Medal to Miss Lola Ezzell whose grade showed the highest average in her class for the year.
