The Last Words of Funston

"HOW DELIGHTFUL IT IS!"

BY HENRY FOLK LAWRENSON.

How delightful it is to do one's duty well!

How delightful it is in the House of God to dwell!

How delightful it is, like Sheridan on his side,

With a heart full of hope, to swim to the other side.

How delightful it is, at Country's call,

To put on the armor and fight for all!

How delightful it is, in foreign land,

To uphold the flag and for Justice stand!

How delightful it is to slip out of the sod,

And on the wings of music to fly to God.

Listening to the orchestra playing a beautiful waltz in the hotel where he was staying in San Antonio, Texas, General Funston, speaking to a little girl near by, said, "How delightful it is!" and then expired, these being his last words.

It's hard to get the hang of European politics—over there they call it a Cabinet crisis when some incompetent gets out.

If the light can be turned fully on the food speculators it may not be necessary to hang all of them to lamp posts.

President Wilson is right in insisting on a censorship law during the war. A censorship keeps valuable information from the enemy as well as from curiosity seekers over here. It saves the lives of our "boys" and therefore should be enacted.

A Kaiserite politician grabbing at monkey wrenches to throw into the war machine makes a drowning man grasping at a straw look like a lazy loafer.

The bitter attack on Roosevelt by Herr Stein, of Little Prussia on the Missouri, shows that the Colonel, as ever, is fortunate in the enemies he makes.

Some of the bitterest complainants against the heat wave are strikingly like the gentlemen who were recently knocking the late elongated winter.

The Senate is wisely cutting down the new war revenue bill by a few hundred millions. We can get along on less than $1,800,000,000 extra revenue. Let the future pay some of it. We thank you, Senators.

Washington officials apparently are having considerable difficulty in marching the new quick-step to the tune of that old-fashioned hesitation.

What's in a name anyhow? Look at those military heroes, General Maude and Colonel Gussie!

The Amsterdam report that Germany has paid an indemnity for the Lusitania is premature.

It is quite proper for the government to place a heavy tax on such industries as ammunition, automobiles, iron, steel, and others that have enjoyed unusual prosperity as a result of the war. But who was the benevolent patriot who suggested a crushing burden on the newspapers and magazines by increasing their postage rate, when they have already been dealt a staggering blow by the unprecedented rise of near 300 per cent. in the cost of print paper. Taxing misfortune? Is a new kink to the fair-minded American people. Shame on you Congress, shame, if you do such a foul deed.

Starving Germans are said to be eagerly devouring sparrows. Gott stear the English!

One would have felt a little more charitable about the censorship if George Creel had called up and called down the hypenated editor of a reptile newspaper published in the German language.

Josephus Daniels, Jr., has enlisted in the navy and a brilliant future is predicted for him.

Colonel Gardner is the first member of Congress to resign to enter the army—also the last.

Kaiser Wilhelm doesn't care how many of our tightwads refuse to buy Liberty Bonds.

The Morning Star, of Columbia, S. C., is glad that Major General Wood is in Charleston. That city must be destroyed.

Germany appears to value an inch of French terrain more than all of her reputation in matters not military.

That Congress put the question of the Roosevelt army up to the President to decide was distinctly congressional.

However, it's not likely that Germany's war aims are now so small that the chancellor is ashamed to announce them.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unness corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutrient gets into the blood and rebuilds the nerve cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

Atlantic Coast Inventors.

The following patents were just issued to Atlantic Coast inventors reported by D. Swift & Co., Patent Lawyers, Washington, D. C., who will furnish copies of any patent for ten cents apiece to our readers.

Virginia—J. T. Ankers, Charlottesville, match box; F. J. Ballweg, Mobile, automobile axle, S. Cary, Norfolk, sewing machine table; W. H. Cox, Portsmouth, collapsible boat.

North Carolina—E. S. Brooks, Railway cross-tie; T. M. Jarrell, High Point, non-skid auto chain; W. J. Reid, Dobson, oil burner.

The House of Congress last week rejected the conference report on the $3,281,294,641 war budget bill because of a $3,000,000 appropriation inserted by the Senate for the purchase of the old Jamestown exposition site and buildings and the construction of a naval base and training station there. An effort to gouge the government in the price was charged. The report was returned to conference.

Representative Weaver said last week he has had over a million fish sent to his district. The government is urging members to encourage greater use of fish as a food during the war times.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN

WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make this beauty lotion for a few cents and see for yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain thru a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a white quart jar of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white for very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

Re-Sale of Valuable Land in Pleasant Grove Township.

Under and by virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Alamance county, made in the special proceeding, in which all the heirs-at-law of the late Mary J. Anderson were joined, the undersigned commissioner will, on
