LOCAL NEWS.

The County Commissioners will meet in regular monthly session next Monday.

Increased postage rates go into effect tomorrow—letters 3c instead of 2c, postcards 2c instead of 1c.

Last Friday night a Halloween party was given at Graham Graded School. It was an enjoyable occasion.

The Oakdale Community Fair will be held Saturday, 3rd inst. It is hoped the weather will continue fair for the occasion.

Graham Chapter of United Daughters of the Confederacy is meeting with Mrs. Junius H. Henderson this afternoon in monthly session.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Graham Christian Church will meet Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 7th, at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. D. Kernodle.

A big delegation from Graham Red Cross Chapter will attend the Red Cross convention in Raleigh tomorrow. They go to get all the information they can about the important work they are doing in behalf of the soldiers in the trenches.

As a token of his appreciation of the excellent service they have performed during his several weeks illness, Postmaster J. M. McCracken has given his assistants, Misses Agnes Linder and Mary Beal, each a handsome cameo. The young ladies greatly appreciate this mark of confidence from their chief.

Some towns prohibit by ordinance the burning of leaves and trash on the streets. Graham has lots of trees and when the leaves are falling the streets are almost covered, but the leaves should not be burned. They should be placed in lots and stalls for bedding and manure. Leaves contain valuable and expensive elements of fertilization. It costs little or nothing more to haul them off than it does to burn them, besides cutting out the danger from fire.

Last night Graham Chapter of Daughters of Confederacy gave a most enjoyable Hallowe'en party. At the Mexican Theatre the school children sang patriotic songs and gave recitations and drills under the direction of their teachers. Mr. J. D. Long made an excellent speech in behalf of the Red Cross work. Next Mrs. J. J. Henderson in a unique speech presented a masked young lady (7) whose identification was so guessed at and offered her as a prize to the successful guesser. A young lady guessed her (his) name.

After the very enjoyable exercises in the theatre the hall over Graham Loan & Trust Co.'s office was visited. Here the ladies had ginger cakes, fresh cider, pumpkin pie, coffee, sandwiches, chicken salad, etc. for sale, and also held an auction sale. Aside from having lots of fun a net sum of $35 was realized and this was turned over to the Red Cross workers.

Among the Sick.

Mr. Y. A. Oldham, who suffered a stroke of paralysis about eight weeks ago, has greatly improved, but is still confined to his home. Mr. Oldham is one of Graham's oldest and best citizens.

Postmaster J. M. McCracken continues to improve.

New Advertisements.

The Ladies' Emporium & Millinery has an ad. in this issue that should be of special interest to the ladies. They have an elegant line of goods and it will pay you to call on them.

W. E. Hay, Burlington has another bargain sale on. Look up his ad. and go to see him. He guarantees to save you money, and a call is all he asks to convince you.

D. M. Johnson's Mill and Feed Store has an ad. in this issue. Look it up—it should interest every farmer who has grain to sell.

Graham High School Honors Member.

The class of 1918 of Graham High School gave a party at the home of Misses Annie W. and Fannie D. Moore, members of the class, Tuesday night in honor of their classmates, Miss Annie Barnwell, who leaves for her home this week. Miss Barnwell is very popular and a fine student and her departure is sincerely regretted by her classmates and the school. In addition to the members of her class, Supt. Chas. W. Rankin, Miss Josephine Thomas and Miss Adelaide Morrow, of the faculty, were present. Refreshments were served and the hour was passed pleasantly.

Want to Washington to Accompany the Pathfinders.

The pathfinders for the Bankhead National Highway by previously arranged schedule left Washington City Tuesday. Messrs. Robt. N. Cook, H. J. Stockard, E. P. McClure and Edwin D. Scott left here Sunday for Washington to accompany them from the capital city back to Graham. The party spent Tuesday night in Richmond and last night in Raleigh. At the latter place the above named gentlemen left the party and came home to arrange for their reception in Graham.

Boy Scouts Sell $80,400 Liberty Bonds—Other Sales.

Graham Troop of Boy Scouts sold $80,400 of Liberty Bonds which went through the banks of Graham, Burlington and Greensboro. This is a fine record and the Boy Scouts are to be congratulated on their excellent work.

The total sales for Graham, as reported by the National Bank of Alameda, aggregate $109,750. Another fine record.

The Sales for the entire County of Alameda aggregate about $300,000. This, too, is a record to be proud of.

Headquarters Co. Takes $5,000 Liberty Bonds.

The Headquarters Co. of the old 3rd N. C. Inf. now the 120th U. S. Inf. at Camp Sevier, stationed here last summer, Maj. Don E. Scott in command, subscribed for $5,000 Liberty Bonds. They have done well. Many of the soldiers have subscribed liberally, their subscriptions aggregating more than $35,000,000.

BANKHEAD HIGHWAY PATHFINDERS HERE TODAY.

Party Composed of Senator Bankhead, Engineers and Others—Speaking and Lunch Served by Ladies.

A large party left here this morning for Mebane to meet the members of the pathfinding party, which left Raleigh this morning to go to Charlotte today. The party passing through here, arrived at 12 o'clock on schedule time and was composed of the following:

Senator J. H. Bankhead, Congressman E. Y. Webb, ex-Congressman T. S. Powell, president of the Bankhead National Highway Association; Dr. H. M. Roe, president of the American Automobile Association; J. A. Rountree, secretary of the Bankhead National Highway Association; John Olive La Gore, chairman of the Pathfinders Commission and editor of the National Geographic Journal; M. O. Eldridge, United States Office of Public Roads, and member of the Pathfinders Commission; A. S. Datchelder member executive committee, A. A. A. and member of the Pathfinders Commission; Ernest Coler, American Motorist; C. E. Ireland, assistant secretary Bankhead National Highway Association; Mrs. Ruth Kramer, member woman's board, United States Good Roads Association; Miss Selene Rountree, Birmingham; Col. Benahan Cameron, of Staunville; C. M. Vansy, member of board of directors of Bankhead National Highway Association and W. S. Falls, State Highway Engineer.

The party did not have time to stop for regular dinner. The ladies of the town with Graham Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy in charge took in the situation and prepared a splendid lunch, but no time was lost in eating, for while some were speaking others were eating. The speakers stood on the mound at the Confederate Monument. Hon. J. Elmer Long introduced the first speaker Mr. J. A. Rountree, who in turn introduced Congressman E. Y. Webb, then Senator Bankhead of Alabama, and next Mr. T. S. Powell. All made short talks and each one expressed his gratification at what he had seen and for the cordial reception.

Senator Bankhead of Alabama, the father of the act of Congress creating the National Highway that will extend from ocean to ocean, and coming this way from Washington will extend on to Los Angeles, California. The Senator, after expressing his deep gratification that the school children had turned out in a body for the occasion, spoke of the highway. He said it would be the greatest and best in the world, over 4,000 miles in length, and traversing the best and richest country in the whole world. That it would never be closed to travel on account of the stress of weather. That it would be a thoroughfare for the people of the greatest and richest nation on earth. He said that he was going to travel over it, and that he was coming back to Graham again if he had to come in a flying machine.

Now, it just as well be stated here at this time, that the road is not going to be a free gift from the Government. The country it goes through will have to pay something and that something will not amount to a hundredth part of the benefits received.

Those who spoke expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the territory and the lay of the land through which they had passed, and the people who heard them had a feeling that they were already pre-disposed in favor of the route they were now looking over.

At Mebane this morning the delegation from Burlington and west of there and from Graham occupied more than fifty cars. The Highway party proper occupied nine cars. Altogether it was an imposing procession.

The excellent manner in which the Daughters of the Confederacy and the ladies helping them handled the lunch part of the occasion which contributed to the pleasure and comfort of the inner man cannot be too highly commended.

J. L. Sellars of Hickory committed suicide Sunday by shooting himself retired merchant, 61 years old. Poor health.

The 35th annual convention of the North Carolina Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in the First Baptist church, Goldsboro Nov. 1-4.

The News-Herald says the ladies of Morganton are holding prayer service weekly in the graded school auditorium and that the service will be held regularly during the period of the war.

SUFFERING FROM COLD
If you shiver in frosty weather, if you have cold hands and feet, if colds are stubborn and frequent, then your blood may be thin and impoverished.

SCOTT'S EMULSION
has been correcting this condition for nearly fifty years. It possesses rare powers for creating natural body warmth, for charging summer blood with winter richness and strengthening both throat and lungs.

The Norwegian cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our modern plant and palatable. It makes it pure and palatable. Graham Drug Co., Distributors.

Graham Red Cross Has Shipped Supplies For Soldiers—Making More and Needs More Help to Sew and Knit.

The Graham Red Cross Chapter shipped ten dozen suits of pajamas and 200 pairs of socks to Washington a few days ago. Splendid work is being done by the comparatively small number who are taking part in it, but it is hoped that more of our town ladies will awake to the necessity of doing their bit for our soldier boys, and that everyone, whether Red Cross members or not, will be impressed with the fact that it is, in reality, our work, and not child's play nor passing fad, and will come and sew or knit, or do both if they have time. The work room is well equipped, heated and lighted, the work is already cut out, and those in charge will give all necessary instructions for making the garments. The room is open almost all day Friday, and wool and needles may be secured there, and those who do not know how to knit will be taught, and then the knitting may be done at home at odd times, or at night. The children may learn to knit mufflers and wristlets, and so do their share in the work. The auxiliaries at Saxapahaw, Swepsonville and Haw River have fallen in line and are doing excellent work, as is also the colored branch of the Chapter in Graham. As fast as wool is purchased it is taken by those wishing to knit, but more wool is being ordered at intervals, so there will be plenty for all who will help. So let all, old and young, white and colored, feel it not only a duty but a privilege to give a little of their time to help make comfortable our boys who will soon be in trenches giving their lives in defense of our country.

Hot Cakes Better Than Buckwheat at One-third the Cost.

The following recipe has been given us by Mrs. Grant Estlow and it is printed for the benefit of those who like "hot cakes" which are better than buckwheat and can be made at one-third the cost:

1 cup shorts (heart of wheat),
1 teaspoonful baking powder,
Half teaspoonful soda,
1 cup buttermilk,
1 tablespoonful white flour.
Mix into stiff batter, add tablespoonful of molasses and bake on a hot griddle.

Money The First Essential.

From speech of Secretary McAdoo at the American Bankers' Association.

"When war comes to a nation the first essential is money. We must keep our soldiers and sailors armed and equipped with the best that money can buy and American skill devise. We must constantly provide them with necessary clothing and food; we must pay their wages; we must as a humane and just nation support their dependent families while they are risking and giving their very lives for us; we must supply them with a reasonable amount of life insurance."

"The first duty of the Nation to her gallant sons who go forth to die upon the field of battle to protect your lives, your property, and your honor, is that it shall re-stitute to them that which it destroys when it drafts them into the service of their country or when they volunteer to go into the service of their country."

When the Government reaches out its hand and takes the young man who is earning twelve, fifteen, twenty-four hundred, five thousand dollars a year; more or less, it not only says, "You must put your life in the balance and give it, if need be," but it conscripts that man's income and earning power down to three hundred and ninety-six dollars a year, because that is all it pays to a soldier.

"The Nation also destroys the insurability of that man. He finds instantly that no matter how healthy his sinews nor how strong his heart, no matter how good a risk he would be in peace time, he cannot get no insurance. With his earning power reduced, he is at the same time unable to make any sort of insurance provision for those dependent upon him."

"It is asking too much of the generous, just and humane people of America to re-stitute also the insurability of that soldier, to give him the opportunity of buying insurance from his own Government at reasonable rates, so that he may make the last loving provision that every man should make for his family if he has to face death?"

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has announced that there will be issued by the Treasury Department in the near future a circular setting forth the manner in which Liberty bonds of the first issue may be converted into Liberty loan bonds of the second issue.

The conversion will require the adjustment of interest and the Treasury Department has devised a method whereby this, in a large measure, may be made without the actual payment of any cash by the holder of the bond to the Government or vice versa.

It is well to remember that the date of the second issue of Liberty loan bonds is November 15th, and that no conversions can be accomplished prior to that date. Opportunity, however, will be given to holders of the first Liberty loan bonds to deposit their bonds for conversion in advance of the actual date of issue of the second issue.
