LOCAL NEWS.

Graham people have been practically doing without sugar for more than ten days. Next Thursday, Nov. 29th, is Thanksgiving Day. It should be appropriately observed.

Col. J. A. Long, who went to Suffolk, Va., several weeks ago, is reported to be somewhat improved. The Graham Boy Scouts acted as ushers at the speaking by Judge Pritchard at the court house Tuesday night.

Mr. Ernest Anderson, clerk at Hayes Drug Co., returned yesterday from his home at Durham where he had been sick for a week. Mr. Sam T. Johnston had the misfortune to have the index finger on the left hand cut off just above the nail in a plainer last Friday morning.

Mrs. Bivins, wife of Mr. Chas. Bivins of Haw River, died last Friday morning, aged 46 years. She is survived by her husband and four children. The November term of Alamance Superior Court will convene next Monday for the trial of criminal cases only. Judge Geo. W. Connor will preside.

The yard in front of the Christian church, North Main St., has been broken up and sown to lawn grass, also some of the trees have been taken out. No one should forget for a moment that it is his or her duty to stop all waste of food. To save it to help to win the war sooner; to waste it to prolong it.

Rev. J. Frank Siler, recently of Asheville, now Presiding Elder of the Winston-Salem District, was here yesterday in the interest of the Woman's College of Greensboro. The residence of Mr. Jas. K. Mebane is being slightly changed in appearance by taking away the two small upper porches on the front. A new bath room at the rear has been added.

The weather continues fine and many are continuing to sow wheat. Those who stopped when they had sowed about their usual crop may regret it when the harvest time comes around. Mr. J. L. Scott, Jr., has torn the picket fence on the street in front of his residence away and is replacing it with a cement curbing with brick columns at the corners and on either side of the openings.

Mr. J. M. McCracken was down town and at the Postoffice Tuesday for the first time in nine weeks. His friends were very glad to see him out again and looking so well after his long confinement. The North Carolina Conference of the M. P. Church convened at Mebane yesterday. More than 150 ministers and delegates are in attendance. The Conference was called to order by the President, Rev. Geo. W. Holmes, of this county.

If Chatham rabbits are commanding the prices being asked for the Alamance kind, the Chathamites will soon relegate their old cars and cheap ones to the scrap pile and be riding in real automobiles. Just a few years ago the universal price was five cents—some times less, but a year or so ago there was a little advance. There has been a steady advance and now, in these parts, the consumer is asked to come across with 20 cts.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Farrior Powell of Whiteville spent Sunday here. Mrs. J. W. Menefee is visiting relatives in Fayetteville. Miss Olivia Cox went to Greensboro last night to hear the Russian Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Eugene McCracken of Winston-Salem spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McCracken. Mrs. M. J. Brady, who has been visiting in Morganton, W. Va., is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr.

Mrs. E. F. Knight of Raleigh spent from Friday till Tuesday here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. P. Smith. Mrs. J. D. Kernodle left Sunday for Lumberton, called there on account of the sickness of her granddaughter, little Miss Elizabeth Proctor.

Miss Swanna Buckner, who has been spending some time in Greensboro, returned to her home here Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. J. Dolph Long and Master George returned Monday evening from a visit to the home of Mrs. Long's father, Dr. Geo. S. Attmore, at Stonehall, N. C.

Messrs Sam Basom of Graham, Euclid Cook of Swepsonville and J. E. Williamson of Saxapahaw, stationed at Camp Sevier, S. C., are at home on a furlough. The first named arrived Saturday and the others Sunday. The town is installing an electric fire alarm system. The court house bell will be used in connection with the system. Since the whistle was moved from the Ice Co.'s plant the town has had no way of giving a fire alarm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Long went to Winston-Salem Tuesday, evening to be present at the marriage of the former's brother, Mr. Ralph Long, and Miss Cornelia Storrs Taylor at 8 o'clock last night. They returned this morning. On Sunday morning, Nov. 25, 1917, Rev. H. E. Spence of Durham, N. C., a preacher of prominence and a speaker of unusual ability, will preach the dedicatory sermon. A hearty welcome awaits all who will come. A special invitation is extended to all former pastors and all those who assisted in this work.

Judge Pritchard speaks in Graham. A good audience turned out Tuesday night to hear Judge J. C. Pritchard at the court house. Mr. J. Dolph Long, after some preliminary remarks about what the Red Cross was doing for the comfort of the soldier boys, presented Mayor Heenan Hughes, who in well chosen terms, introduced the speaker of the evening. Judge Pritchard did not come as a stranger, being known and known of by a majority of the people here, having been in political life for the past twenty years. He was at one time a United States Senator and is now a Federal Judge. He has studied the war situation and he talks about it in a plain matter-of-fact way. He knows from those with whom he has come in contact of the atrocities and unpeppable crimes committed by the enemy of free government and feels these should be avenged for the future happiness and safety of coming generations. He urged a whole-hearted support of the government that victory might be assured and come sooner. His was a speech that was received with the closest attention because he spoke calmly and deliberately. So many people have not realized this country is engaged in a great war for the preservation of human liberty, that it is well for men like Judge Pritchard to come along and tell them about it.

Mr. Erastus Brown Huffine of Gibsonville and Miss Stella Corinna Cox, daughter of Rev. L. I. Cox of Elon College, were married in Raleigh yesterday, 21st inst. They will be at home in Burlington after December 1st. Miss Cox was formerly audit clerk in the office of the Register of Deeds of this county and is a bright and attractive young woman. Cleve Whitaker was shot and killed, Dock Whitaker his brother, wounded, and Sheriff Kirk of Carroll county, Tenn., shot in the hand when the sheriff accompanied by two deputies, went to the home of Charles Whitaker, father of the Whitakers, four miles from Huntington, Tenn., to arrest Dock Whitaker and his brother-in-law, Jo Baker, charged with deserting from the army. Baker escaped. Cleve Whitaker was not taking part in the row when he was shot.

County Organization of P. O. S. of A. On the 17th, at a meeting in Graham of representatives from the various Camps of the Patriotic Order of the Sons of America, the Alamance county organization of the P. O. S. of A. was organized. Mr. W. P. Smith was elected president; J. B. Frazier, secretary; J. E. Williamson, treasurer; J. C. Carter of Mebane, P. A. Holt of Graham, T. T. Stafford of Burlington and G. W. Isley of Swepsonville. The meeting adjourned subject to call.

Cox-Huffine. Mr. Erastus Brown Huffine of Gibsonville and Miss Stella Corinna Cox, daughter of Rev. L. I. Cox of Elon College, were married in Raleigh yesterday, 21st inst. They will be at home in Burlington after December 1st. Miss Cox was formerly audit clerk in the office of the Register of Deeds of this county and is a bright and attractive young woman. Cleve Whitaker was shot and killed, Dock Whitaker his brother, wounded, and Sheriff Kirk of Carroll county, Tenn., shot in the hand when the sheriff accompanied by two deputies, went to the home of Charles Whitaker, father of the Whitakers, four miles from Huntington, Tenn., to arrest Dock Whitaker and his brother-in-law, Jo Baker, charged with deserting from the army. Baker escaped. Cleve Whitaker was not taking part in the row when he was shot.

Protecting Your Children. The long, hard school term drains the vitality of growing children and you wonder why they are listless, puny and pale. Every school child will show marked improvement in health and growth if given SCOTT'S EMULSION. Its rich, uniform cod liver oil gets into their blood and gives them vim, snap and zest. It creates strength to resist school sicknesses, overcome pinched faces, sallow complexions and dull eyes. High authorities have established again and again that cod liver oil promotes growth and energizes the body and brain. The imported Norwegian cod liver oil always used in Scott's Emulsion is not refined in our own American laboratories which guarantees it free from impurities. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Comment. A laborer, who has to sign the payroll with a cross mark is paid $71.50 per month straight time, and time and a half for overtime, while the Blanktown committee is advertising for someone who has spent seven years in a grammar school, four years in a high school, and four years in a college—a total of fifteen years of preparation in all, for the sum of $37.50 per month for eight months in the year. This is something to think about and it is thought about not only by teachers but by those who would like to teach if they saw a living in it.—News Letter.

Notice. On November 1st the discounts on Power Bills were withdrawn. There is no discount on lighting bills up to $10.00. In excess of $10.00 there is a discount of half one per cent, on each whole dollar of the amount over $10.00 if paid before the 15th of the month. The cost of furnishing the service is so great and the profit so small, you prompt and early payment will greatly assist us. Piedmont Ry & Elec. Co.

Rev. Mr. Martin, Pastor of Friends Church, Dies—Remains Carried to Indiana. Rev. Wm. Fleming Martin, who had been sick since about the first of November, died at his home here Sunday morning between one and two o'clock. He had a complication of diseases but an abscess in the head was doubtless the immediate cause of death. At the time of his death he was 33 years, 5 months and 23 days old. While he was sick his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Martin of Balboe, Ind., came and was with him when the end came. The remains were shipped Tuesday at 11 o'clock to Pennville, Ind., for burial, accompanied by his mother, his widow and his three little children. Collections were taken up at the various churches Sunday morning to afford means for defraying the expenses of the trip back to the home State. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were both natives of Indiana. Mr. Martin had served the church here for about two years and was esteemed by all who knew him. His family have the sympathy of this community in their sore bereavement.

Rev. H. E. Spence of Durham Will Preach Dedicatory Sermon—Life and Growth of Church For 20 Years. Twenty years ago about one dozen Methodists met in Alamance county court house, at Graham, and organized the Graham Methodist Episcopal church under the leadership of Rev. J. A. Daily. Services were conducted in the court house regularly once a month for a while, then the Christian church was very graciously offered, and for a time these few Methodists met there, in the afternoon. This spirit of friendship and brotherly kindness was very much appreciated, but the loyal little band began to long for a church home. Looking down through the years they had a vision. They caught a glimpse of the possibilities before them and set out to make them real. Encouraged by the churches of other denominations, and strengthened by others who came to join them, they went to work with a will. After years of work, self-denial, and sacrifice, they had finished and almost paid for an excellent wooden church. Five years ago these people were called from their homes in the night to see their church laid in ashes. But with that same spirit that had actuated them in the beginning, and with an unconquered will and a faith unshaken, they turned again to the court house to pray and to plan. They had another vision, and went to work to "rebuild the temple". By the help of loyal friends the present building was made possible. In less than two years after the fire they again assembled for worship in a new church. The building was unfinished and they were in debt, but by faith proved by works, and made more precious by sacrifice, the house was completed and the debt wiped out. Today a splendid brick structure, costing more than nine thousand dollars, stands as a monument to the loyalty of these Methodists and the faithfulness of their friends. On Sunday morning, Nov. 25, 1917, Rev. H. E. Spence of Durham, N. C., a preacher of prominence and a speaker of unusual ability, will preach the dedicatory sermon. A hearty welcome awaits all who will come. A special invitation is extended to all former pastors and all those who assisted in this work.

Two Later Accounts of Capt. Stockard's Birthday Celebration. Graham, Nov. 17.—The children grand children, great-grand children, and friends of Capt. John R. Stockard met last Sunday at the old Stockard homestead, about 3 miles south of Graham, and gave Captain Stockard a surprise celebration of his 81st birthday. More than 100 guests gathered for the occasion. Dinner was served from a table in the yard just in front of the old home. Just before dinner all the guests were summoned to form a semi-circle in front of the porch while Mrs. W. S. and Dr. A. Long, nephews of Captain Stockard, made very impressive talks. Rev. J. A. Burgess expressed his gratitude that such a life as that of Captain Stockard's had been lived in the community where he preached. Then Capt. Stockard himself arose and in a few well chosen words stated the importance of right living. A prayer was offered for the two members of the family who were absent because of the war. These were Dr. J. K. Stockard, now at Camp Greener, and Ben B. Stockard, at Camp Sevier. Those present were Dr. D. A. Long, Daniel Long Kernodle, Dr. W. P. Moser, and daughter, Mrs. Mrs. Barbara Moser; C. P. and H. E. Rauhut, Miss Elizabeth Rauhut, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holt, Numa and Lois Perry, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McPherson, Rev. J. A. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Nicholson, Miss Letitia Staley, Mrs. Archibald Cook and children, Geo. H. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ingle, Walter Wood, C. J. Gee and Miss Elma Wood of Burlington; Prof. and Mrs. D. C. Holt and children, Miss Maude Tickle, Miss Latha Stockard, J. D. Tickle and W. H. Wheeler of Liberty; Miss Blanche Stockard of Raleigh; Dr. W. S. Long of Chapel Hill; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dixon of Mebane; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Stockard and family; Geo. R. Percy, W. H. and Joseph Stockard, Mrs. Maritza Stockard and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Newlin of Saxapahaw; Mrs. C. W. Stockard, Wade and Jane Stockard of Greensboro; J. N. H. Clendish, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Foust and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stockard and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Enoch and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thompson and children, Dr. W. S. Long, Jr. and son, W. H. Coble, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wood and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Foust, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Stockard and children, J. Edgar Long, Earle Moore, J. A. Askew, Oscar Henley, Mr. and Mrs. John Long and children, and Miss Hayes Wood of Graham. Capt. J. R. Stockard of this county, entered upon his 81st birthday on the 8th inst. The 11th inst. last Sunday, his neighbors, relatives and friends, in a large number, assembled at the old Col. John Stockard Homestead, where the Capt. lives and celebrated his birthday. He was bright and cheerful as usual. When the bountiful repast was spread, in his yard, he stood erect and invoked the Divine blessing. The day was perfect. The guests stood with uncovered heads as the venerable patriarch made an address of welcome, with tender words of benediction. Dr. W. S. Long, now 78, looking to be about 60, preached a short and impressive sermon. The pastor of the M. P. Church and Dr. D. A. Long aided in the religious services. The photographer was there too. Everybody appeared to be happy. It was a joyous occasion. DANIEL ALBRIGHT LONG.

Big Family Reunion at Old Homestead of the Late William A. Patterson. His widow, Polly Isley Patterson, was ninety-three years of age November 16th, 1917. Her three brothers: Austin, Leonard and George, are dead. Two sisters living: Barbara Isley and Margaret Isley Bryan. She has about thirty-one grandchildren and six great grandchildren. About nine dead. The name of her father—Christian Isley; mother, Nancy Whitesell Isley; grandfather, Malachi Isley; grandmother, Kitty Heart Isley; great grandfather was named Malachi Isley, too. His wife was named Magdalene. They came from Germany before the Revolutionary War. They were buried at St. Paul, near the old Isley Homestead. It was a beautiful sight to look upon such a bountiful table, standing in the yard among the majestic trees, with grandmother Patterson seated near the center, her two aged sisters by her side, all bright and cheerful—children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, a host of neighbors and friends from Alamance and other counties gathered about that table and renewing old acquaintances, forming new ones. The religious services were conducted by the Pastors of the Lutheran church, the M. P. church at Mt. Hermon and the M. P. church at Graham, and DANIEL ALBRIGHT LONG.
