Less By 122 Bales Than in 1916.

A card from the census bureau, Department of Commerce, Washington, to Mr. P. A. Holt, who furnishes ginners' reports for Alamance, states that 200 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, were ginned in this county from the 1917 crop prior to Nov. 14th as against 323 ginned from the 1916 crop up to and on the same date. If the report indicates the production, the crop is more than one-third short of last year's crop, which would account in some measure for the high price at which the staple is selling and would also indicate that the high-water mark is not yet reached.

Superior Court.

The November criminal Term of Superior Court convened Monday with Judge Geo. W. Connor presiding and Solicitor S. M. Gattis prosecuting for the State.

Ex-Sheriff J. A. Hamilton was appointed Foreman of the Grand Jury. The Grand Jury finished their work Wednesday afternoon and were discharged.

The Judge in his charge to the Grand Jury called attention to the increase in the size of criminal dockets, incident to the unrest growing out of the world-war crisis as he believed. He observed that there is an additional duty incumbent upon all good citizens that society may be protected.

The court has made good progress with the docket and no case has been continued where it could be avoided.

To defendants who have been found guilty of the violations of law charged against them have received sentences in fines and imprisonments as the court believed commensurate with the offenses.

At the opening of the court it was hoped to get through by Wednesday afternoon, but, on account of the addition of other cases and the passing over so few, the court will last at least till Friday afternoon.

Wilkesboro Patriot. Ex-Sheriff S. J. Greenwood of Roaring River recently returned from Chase City, Va., near which place he purchased 1,000 acres of fine farming land at a cost of $30,000.

By a unanimous vote of the student body of the A. & E. College in Raleigh, it was decided not to have the usual Y. M. C. A. entertainment this fall, but to use the money, about $50 for Christmas boxes for the soldiers in France. This reception has heretofore been given to the Meredith and Peace College girls.

Graham Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, are continuing to do good work, some of the things done recently are they have hauled corn and on two occasions they shucked corn for two citizens who could not get help. On Saturday, Nov. 17, the Scouts at 1 o'clock p. m., mounted the big Auto Trucks from L. Banks Holt Mfg Co. and Travora Mfg Co. and invaded the woods 9 miles South of Graham and are bringing up 30 cords of wood which will be given the poor. On Tuesday night, Nov. 20, when the S. Federal Court Judge J. C. Pritchard spoke to the Red Cross Chapter in the Court House the Scouts acted as ushers and a patrol went to Mr. L. B. Williamson's where the Judge was stopping and acted as an escort of honor to the Judge. The Scouts are planning to plant gardens next spring. Already a number of acres of land have been given them to work for gardens. They receive no pay and when they complete their task, they give the Scout salute with a smile.

Miss Margaret Allene Long Becomes the Bride of Mr. William Ernest Thompson.

Oak Lawn, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Long, a little more than a mile southeast of Graham, was the scene of a brilliant wedding at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, Nov. 28th, 1917. The contracting parties were Mr. William Ernest Thompson and Miss Margaret Allene Long, the only child of her parents, and a grand-daughter of Rev. W. S. Long, D. D., LL. D., of Chapel Hill, who performed the impressive ceremony. The bride was in a white chrysanthemum, and at an early hour buggies, carriages and autos rolled in with relatives and friends to witness the beautiful scene. Flowers, Mrs. Mel. Thompson of Mebane and C. P. Robbins of High Point, welcomed the guests. The gift room, where many costly, useful and beautiful presents were shown, was presided over by Miss Willie Ames of Chapel Hill. The house was decorated with potted plants and smiling flowers. Little Misses Elise Thompson, niece of the groom, and Catharine Franklin, Carrie Bell Kernode and Lizzie Pullen Belvin, cousins of the bride, wore white lingerie dresses with yellow ribbons. Little Annie Robbins, ring bearer, wore white over yellow taffeta and carried the ring in a white chrysanthemum. The maid of honor was Miss Lila Melvin Bell, cousin of the bride, and Dr. J. Mel. Thompson, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride is one of Alamance county's best known and most highly esteemed young women. Always charming, to-day, radiantly beautiful, gowned in white with accessories to match and wearing the lavalier worn by her mother at her marriage. The groom wore the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom motored to Greensboro to take the train for an extended bridal trip, followed by showers of rice, a few white willow branches, sweetly and charmingly. Supreme happiness beamed from the countenance of the groom when the bride's father gave her away. The bride is one of Alamance county's best known and most highly esteemed young women.
