and the states THE ALAMANCE GLEANER.

VOL. XLIV

Get Rid of Tan, Sunburn and Freckles by using HAGAN'S

Magnolia Balm. Acts instantly. Stops the burning.

lears your complexion of Tan and lemishes. You cannot know how ord it is until you try it. Thous-ands of women say it is best of all beautifiers and heals Sunburn quickest. Don't be without it a day longer. Get a bottle now. At your Druggist or by mail direct. 75 cents for either color, White. Pink, Rose-Red.

SAMPLE FREE.

LYON MFG. CO., 40 So. 5th St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

EUREKA Spring Water FROM EUREKA SPRING, Graham, N. C.

A valuable mineral spring has been discovered by W. H. Austey on his place in Graham. It was noticed that it brought health to the users of the water, and upon being analyzed it was found to be a water strong in mineral properties and good for stomach and blood troubles. Physicians who have seen the analysis and what it does, recommend its use. Analysis and testimonials will be furnished upon request. Why buy expensive mineral waters from a distance, when there is a good water recommended by physicians right at home? For further information and or the water, if you desire if apply to the undersigned.

W. H. AUSLEY. **************

BLANK BOOKS

Journals, Ledgers,

Day Books,

Time Books,

Counter Books.

Tally Books, Order Books,

Large Books,

Small Books.

Pocket Memo., Vest Pocket Memo., &c., &c.

For Sale At The Gleaner Printing Office Graham, N. C.

love with him." The Irish colleen's eyes grew reflec-tive. "Not if you had seen Peter first, tive. DI. There's nothing reasonable about CHAPTER II-Elliot and Macdonald become in a mensure friendly, though the letter does not know that Elliot is on a mission which threatens to spoil plans of Macdonald to acquire'millions of dollars through the unlawful exploitation of im-mensely valuable coal fields. Elliot also "gets a line" on the position occupied by Velly Selfrige, Macdonald's right-thand Welly Selfrige, Macdonald's right-thand "The Sintes," where he had gone in an effort to convince the authorities that there was nothing wrong in Macdonald's' methods. a girl, I do believe. She loves-or else just doesn't." Diane fired a question at her point-blank. "Have you met your Peter? Is that why you hang back?" The color flamed into Sheba's face. "Of course not. You do say the most outrageous things, Di.'

They had driven to Willow Creek over the river road. They returned by way of the hills. Macdonald drew up in front of a cabin to fill the radietor. He stood listening beside the car,

CHAPTER III-Elliot secures an intro-duction to Miss O'Neill and while the boat is taking on reight the pair set out to elimb a locally famous mountain. They venture too high and reach a position from which it is impossible for Miss O'Neill tog forward or turn back. the water bucket in his hand. Some thing unusual was going on inside the CHAPTER IV-Elliot leaves Sheba and at imminent peril of his life goes for as-There came the sound of a ce. He meets Macdonald, who had e alarmed for their safety, and they and rescue Sheba. thud, of a groan, and then the crash of breaking glass. The whole window thud, of a frame seemed to leap from the side

CHAPTER V-Landing at Kuslak El-lot finds that ofd friends of big, Mr. and Mrs. Paget, are the people whom Sheba has come to visit. Mrs. Paget is Sheba's ousin. At dinner Elliot raveals to Mac-lonald the object of his coming to Alas-ca. The two men, naturally antagonistic, now hiso become rivals for the hand of Sheba. of the house. The head and shoulders of a man projected through the broker glass. His hostess looked up at him with a mocking little smile. "Rumor says that she has run away, my lord. Is it true?" "Yes. Slipped away on the stage

CHAPTER VI-Macdonald, foresceing failure of his financial plans if Elliot earns the facts, sends Selfridge to Ka-matlah to arrange matters so that Elliot will be deceived as to the true situation. this morning." "That's a good sign. She was afraid

CHAPTER-VII-Elliot, on his way to Kamatiah, wanders from the trail. He loses his horse in a marsh and is com-pelled to throw away rifle and provisions and all unnecessary clothing. After long struggles he realizes that he will never reach Kamatiah, and reasigns himself to It was a part of the fiction between them that Mrs. Mallory was to give him the benefit of her advice in his wooing of her rival. She seemed to take it for granted that he would at last marry Sheba after wearing away

CHAPTER VIII-At Kamatlah, Gideon Holt, old prospector and bitter enemy of Macdonaid, learns of Elliot's coming and letermines to let him know 'e truth. leifridge has Holt kidnaped and taken on "promotion" committee military of the second the rigid Puritanism of her resent ment. Macdonald had never liked her so well as now. Her point of view was so sane, so reasonable. It asked for no impossible virtues in a man. There he two overpower the kidnapers and Kamatlah. Holt gives Elliot the acts concerning the coal lands deal. was something restful in her genial, derisive understanding of him. She had a silent divination of his moods and ministered indolently to them. CHAPTER X-Having all the informa-"Do you think so? Ought I to, fol-

he wanted, Eillot, with Holt as guide back to Kosiak. On the way they a squaw, Metcetse, with her child is Macdonald's son. Reaching Ku Eillot becomes convinced that Diau-, Pracel) is doing her utmost to in Sheba to marry Macdonald. He de ines to win her for himself. low her?" he asked. in a low ripple of amusement. The sit-uation at least was piquant, even CHAPTER XI-Macdonald confesses to Sheba that he had wronged her father is a mining traction and makes financia restitution. Macdonald and Sheba be come engaged, and Eillot is sent down the river on official business. though it was at her expense. "No. Give the girl time. Catch her impulse on the rebound. She'll be bored to death at Katma and she will come back docide

CHAPTER XIJ-Genevieve Malory, dventuress, who has determined to win facdonaid, learns of Metetse and her hild and sends for them to confront Macdonaid. They visit Sheba and she earns the truth. Mandonaid blames El-iot for bringing the Indian woman to Xusiak. Sheba breaks the engagement. lines of the sinuous, opulent body, the eyes, challenge of the smoldering eyes, the Warmth of her laughter, all invited him to do to forget the charms of other women. The faint feminine perfume of her was wafted to his brain. He felt a besieg-

CHAPTER XIII-Convinced that Elliot ad induced Meteetse to visit Shuba Mac-onald sends Selfridge to warn him to ave Kusiak at once, threatening to neot him on sight. Elliot refuses to go, ad purchases a revolver. ng of the blood. Stepping behind the chair in which she sat, he tilted back the head of lus trous bronze, and very deliberately CHAPTER XIV-Macdonald, carrying klased her on the lips. For a moment she gave herself to his embrace, then pushed him back, large sum of money to pay employees, is assaulted and badly hurt. Ellot reacues him and carries him to Kusiak. Ellot is urrested, charged with attempt to murder Macdonald. rose, and walked across the room to a little table. With fingers that trembled CHAPTER XV-Sheba and Diane visit Elliot and assure him of their belief in his innocence. Macdonald's attitude puz-zles Diane. slightly she lit a cigarette.

GRAHAM, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1918

nuch of the natural charm of an unsually attractive personality. He had his fancy had flown in pursuit of a little Buritan with no knowledge of the

In front of the Seattle & Kuslak Effporium the Scotsman stopped. A lit-tle man who had his back to him was bargaining for a team of huskies. The man turned, and Macdonald recognized

"Hello, Gid. Aren't you off your The little miner looked him over Im-udently. "Well-well! If it ain't the pudently. big mogul himself-and wantin' to know if I've got permission to travel off the reservation." -"I reckon you travel where you want to, Gld-same as I do." "Maybeso. I shouldn't wonder if You'd find out quite soon enough what 'I'm doing here. You never can tell,' the old man retorted with a manner that concerded volumes.

Those who were present remembered the words and in the light of what took place later thought them significant. "Anyhow, it is quite a social event for Kuslak," Macdonald suggested with a smile of irony. Without more words Holt turned back to his bargaining. The big Scots-man went on his way, remembered that he wanted to see the cashier of the bank which he controlled, and promptly forgot that old Gid existed.

> The old man concluded his purchase and drove up to the hotel behind one of the best dog teams in Alaska. Gideon asked a question of the por ter. "Second floor. That's his room up there," the man answered, pointing to a window.

"Oh, you, seven-eighteen-ninety-

"On, you, seven—eigneen—maty-nhe," the little miner shouted up. Elliott appeared at the window. "Well, I'll be hanged! What are you doing here, Old-Timer?" "Onct I knew a man lived to be a grandpa minding his own business," grinned the little man. "Come down grinned the little man. "Come down and I'll tell you all about it, boy." . In haif a minute Gordon was beside him. After the first greetings the young man nodded toward the dog

"How did you persuade Tim Ryan to lend you his huskies?"

iend you his nuskies?" "Why don't you take a paper and keep up with tha news, son? These huskies don't belong to Tim." "Meaning that Mr. Gideon Holt is the coment?"

the owner?" "You've done guessed it." admitted he miner complacently. He had a right to be proud of the team. It was a famous one even in the North. It had run second for two years in the Alaska sweepstakes to ald's great Siberian wolf The leader, Butch, was the Macde hounds. hero of a dozen races and a hundred savage fights.

"What in Halifax do you want with the team?" asked Elliot, surprised. "The whole outfit must have cost a small fortune.

"Some dust," admitted Gideon proud She showed a row of perfect teeth a low rinche of amusement. The site don. "I got a use for this team, if "Haven't taken the government mail contract, have you?"

"Not so you could notice it. I'll tell bored to death at Katma and she will ome back docle." Vous what I want with this team, as the old sayin' is." Holt lowered his voice and narrowed slyly his little beadlike eyes. "I'm going to put a crimp in Colby Macdonald. That's what I aim o do with it." "How?"

The miner beckoned Elliot closed and whispered in his ear.

CHAPTER XIX.

In the Dead of Night.

While Kusiak slept that night the vind shifted. It came roaring across the range and drove before it great scudding clouds heavily laden with steety snow. From dark till dawn the roar of the wind filled the night. Be-fore morning heavy drifts had wiped Sheathed out the roads and sheeted the town in virgin white unbroken by trails or fur

> "What else could one say?" With the coming of daylight the With the transmit of upper upper balance decision of the solution of mpest abated. Kusiak got into dts

But though his knees trembled bethe steel grill cutting off the alcove trid was open and that the door had been he neath him and the sickness of fear was gripping his heart, Robert Milton had in him the dynamic spark that blown from the safe.

makes a man. He tiptoed to his desk and with shaking fingers gripped the revolver that lay in a drawer. The cashier braced himself for the plunge, then slowly trod across the room to the inner, locked door. The palsied fingers of his left hand could scarce turn the key. It seemed to him that the night was alive with the noise he made in turning the lock and opening the door. The hinges grated and the floor squeaked beneath the fall of his foot as he stood at the threshold.

Two men were in front of the wire grating which protected the big that filled the alcove to the right. held a file and the other a candle. Their blank, masked faces were turned toward Milton, and each of them covered him with a weapon. "W-what are you doing quavered the cashier. "Drop that gun," came the low. sharp command from one of them. Some old ancestral instinct in the bank cashier rose out of his panic to destroy him. He wanted to lie down quietly in a faint. But his mind as serted its mastery over the weakling

"Drop That Gun," Came Sharp Command.

ody.

ment. The bank notes had escaped the hurried search of the robbers, but the gold was practically all gone. One sack had been torn by the explosion and single pieces of gold could be found all over the safe. Macdonald glanced over the papers rapidly. The officer picked up one of zens scattered over the floor. It was In spite of his terror, of h a mortgage note made out to the hank by a miner. He collected the others. Evidently the bandits had torn off the flaccid will, he had to keep the faith He was guardian of the bank funds At all costs he must protect them. rubber, glanced over one or two to see if they had any cash value, and tossed the package into the air as a disgusted gumbler does a pack of His forearm came up with a jerk His forearm came up who at the term Two shots rang out almost together. The cashier sagged back against the wall and slowly slid to the floor.

cards. The bank president stepped to the door and threw it open. He explained the situation in three sentences. The guests of Mrs. Selfridge danced well into the small hours. The Call-fornia champagne stimulated a gayety that was balm to her soul. She want-"I can't let you in now, boys, until the coroner has been here," he went on ed her dinner-dance to be smart, to to tell the crowd. "But there is one way you can all help. Keep your eyes open. If you have seen any suspicious have the atmosphere she had found in the New York cabarets. If everybody talked at once, she felt they were hav-ing a good time. If nobody listened if anyone has left town in a hurrycharacters around, let me know. Or to anybody else, it proved that the at-fair was a screaming success. More Weather and the state of the state for mas a screening success. Mrs. Wally was satisfied as she bage her guests good-by and saw them pass

A man named Fred Tague pushed to the front. He kept a feed corral near the edge of town. "I can tell you one man who mushed out before five o'clock into the heavy snow that was again falling. They all assured her that there had not been so hilarlous a party in Kusiak. One old-timer, a trifle lit up by reathis morning-and that's Gid Holt." The eyes of Macdonald, cold and hard as jade, fastened to the man. son of too much hospitality, phrased his enjoyment a little awkwardly.

"How do you know?" "It's been great, Mrs. Selfridge Nothing like it since the days of th Selfridge "That dog team he bought from Tim Ryan— Well, he's been keeping it in my corral. When I got there this Mrs. Mallory hastily suppressed an internal smile and stepped into the breach. "How do you do it?" she breach. "How do you do asked her hostess enviously.

morning it was gone. The snow hadn't wiped out the tracks of the runners yet, so he couldn't have left more than fifteen minutes before." "My dear, if you say it was a suc "You don't know that Holt took the team himself?

"Come to that, I don't. But he had Genevieve Mallory always preferred a key to the bars where the side was match. In the flare of it he saw that in. In the waste-paper basket the ais ct attorney found something w held up in a significant sil Macdonald stepped forward and took Graham Baptist Church--Rev. L. V. Weston, Pastor. blown from the safe. The marshal clutched at the arm of the bank," "Did you see—that?" he whispere'. Preaching every first and third undays at 11.00 a. m. und 7.00 p. Sunday School every Sunday at 9.45 a. m. W. I. Ward, Supt.

the faint gray light of coming day "He left the hotel with Holt about Macdonald could see a huddled mass five this moring, the porter says." on the floor. This was the contribution of the land. "There has been murder done. 1'll lord.

get a light. Don't move from here. The room of Gordon Elliot was in get a light. Joint move from here, The found of Gordon Eilliof was in Jones. I want to look at things before great disorder. Garments had been we disturb them. There's no danger, tossed on the bed and on every chair The robbers have been gone for hours." and had been left to lie wherever they By the light of another match the had chanced to fail. Plainly their mine-owner crossed the room into the owner had been in great haste. sitting room of the cashier. Presently Macdonald looked through the close In the returned with a lamp and let its where clothes hung. "His new fur light fall upon the figure lying slumped coat is not here—nor his trail boots, against the wall. A revolver lay close Looks to me as though Mr. Gordon had to the inert fingers. The head hung hit the trail with his friend Holt.

forward grotesquely upon the breast. All doubt of this was removed when The dead man was Milton. His em. a prospector reached town with the ployer saw nothing ridiculous in the news that he had met Holt and Ellion twisted neck and sprawling limbs. The traveling toward the divide as fast as cashier had died to save the money they could drive the dogs. The big Scotsman ordered his team entrusted to his care.

The big Scotsman ordered his team Macdonald handed the lamp to the of Siberian wolf-hounds made ready marshal and picked up the revolver. for the trail. As he donned his heavy Every chamber was loaded. "They beat him to it. They were deep satisfaction. He had Eiliot on probably here, when he reached home.

by guess is he heard them right away, got his gun, and came in. He's still wearing his dress suit. That gives us the time, for he left the club about Just as he closed the door of his midnight. Soon as they saw him they storm. If he had answered the call dropped him. I wouldn't have had this happen for all the money in the safe." "How much was there in it?" he would have learned from Diane appen for all the money in the safe." who was at the other end of the line, "How much was there in it?" that the stage upon which Sheba had "I don't know exactly. The books will show. I'll send Wally down to look them over." rondhouse at Smith's Crossing. Five minutes later the win Five minutes later the winners of the great Alaska sweepstakes "Shot right spang through the heart, looks like," commented Jones, following with his eye the course of the "Wish I'd been here instead of him," Macdonald said grimly. His eyes soft ened as he continued to look down at the employee who had paid with his life for his faithfulness. "It wasn't an even break. Poor old fellow! You weren't built for a job like this, Robert Milton, but you played your hand out to a finish. That's all any man can He turned abruptly away and began examining the safe. The silver still stood sacked in one large compart-

The Winners of the Great Alaska flying down the street in the teeth of the storm. Armed with a rifle and a revolver, their owner was hushing into the hills to bring back the men who had robbed his bank and killed the cashier. He traveled alone because he could go faster without a companion ot a match for any two men he mig

To be continued

THANKS RECEIVED

FROM THE FRON

WILD EXCITEMENT OVER

RECEIPT OF SURGICAL

DRESSINGS

Director Of Woman's Work For Red

Cross Receives Letter

From Paris

occurred to him that he was eepstakes Were Flying Down the

"His n

Graham Christian Church-N. Main Street-Rev. F. C. Lester. Preaching services overy and and Fourth Sundays, at

a. m. Sunday School every Sunday at 10.00 a. M.-W. R. Harden, Super-intendent. New Providence Christian Church -North Main Street, near Depot-Rev. F. C. Lester, Pastor. Preaching every Second and Four day nights at 8.00 o'clock.

Sunday School every Sunday at 8.46 a. m.-J. A. Bayliff, Superin-tendent.

Christian Endeavor Prayer Meeting every Thursday night at 7.45, o'clock.

Friends-North of Graham Pub-ic School, Rev. John M. Permar,

Pastor. Preaching 1st, 2nd and 3rd Sun-lays at 11.00 a. m. and 7.00 p. m.

Sunday School every Sunday at 145 a. m.-Belle Zachary, Superin-

Prayer meeting every Thursday vening at 7.30 o'clock.

Methodist Episcopal, South-cor, fain and Maple Streets, Rev. D. E. Ernhart, Pastor.

Preaching every Sunday at 11.00 . m. and at 7.30 p. m.

Sunday School every Sunday at 1.45 a. m.-W. B. Green, Supt.

M. P. Church-N. Main Street, Rev. R. S. Troxler, Pastor, Preaching first and third San-days at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Sunday School every Sunday at 0.45 a. m.-J. L. Amick, Supt.

Presbyterian-Wst Elm Street-Rev. T. M. McConnell, pastor.

Sunday School every Sunday at 9.45 a. m.-Lynn B. Williamson, Su-

Presbyterian (Travora Chapel)-

..., chegg, pastor. Preaching every Second and Fourth Sundays at 7.30 p. m. • Sunday School every Sunday at 2.30 p. m.-J. Harvey White, Su-perintendent.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

E. C. DERBY

Civil Engineer.

JOHN J. HENDERSON

Attorney-at-Law GRAHAM, N. C. Ver National Bank of

J. S. COOK

GRAHAM, - N. C.

Office Patterson Fuilding

DR. WILL S. LOAG, JR.

Braham, - - - - North Carolin

OFFICE IN SIMMONS EUILDING

ACOP A. LONG J. FIMER LONG

LONG & LONG,

ttomeys and Counselors at 1 aw

GRAHAM. N. C.

JOHN H. VERNON

Attorney and Counselor-at-Law PONES-Office 653 --- Residence 331

. . . DENTIST . .

nal Bank of Alamance B'l'd'g

GRAHAM, N. C.,

BURLINGTON, N. C.,

Room 16. 1st National Bas 'Phone 470 perintendent.

NO. 8

nd Fourth Sun

GRAHAM CHURCH DIRECTORY

English Spavin Linimnet, re moves Hard, Soft and Calloused Lumps and Riemishes from horses: also Blood Spavins, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ring Bone, Stiff Sprains, Swollen Throats, Cough Ring Bone, Stiff s, etc. Save $50 by use of one bot. wonderful Blemish Cure. Sold by Graham Drug Company adv

German arms make no heidway where the seeds of German corrup-tion do not take root.

Kerensky is giving a clever im ation of the man who pulled th ole in after him.

Save your temper for the enemy and thus make it help win the war

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative bronc Quinne fablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25 cepts. adv.

The more Russia gives up the more Germany gobbles up. Congress stops the "draft" by the use of hot air. American aviators are to be the super-sea-men.

Reliefin Six Hours

Distressing Kidney and Bladder Discase relieved in six hours by the "NEW GREAT SOUTH AMER-ICAN KIDNEY CURE." It is a score RIDNEY CURE." "It is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in bladder, kuaneys and back, in male or female. Relieves reten-tion of water almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is the remedy. Sold by Gra-ham Drug Co. adv.

A Fin-lander these days must feel ke a fish out of water Ourb oys in France are busy writ-ing a glorious chapter in free-dom's book.

Break your Cold or LaGrippe with few doses of 666.

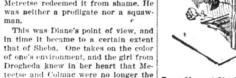

CIAPTER XVII — Macdonald gives bonds and arranges for Ellot's release. On a business trip, Ellot is compelled to seek shelter in a miners' camp. The men seeing in him an enemy of their interests, attempt to kill him. He escapes.

attempt to kill him. He encapes. CHAPTER XVIII-Official orders from Washington supped Elliot from govern-ment service, Sheba leaves Kusiak for a visit at a comp near Katma. Gideon Holt comes to Kusiak and purchases fin-ent dog team that can be bought.

CHAPTER XVIII.

A New Way of Leaving a House.

The surge of disgust with which Sheba had broken her engagement to marry Macdonald ebbed away as the weeks passed. It was impossible for her to waft upon him in his illness and hold any repugnance toward this big, elemental man. The thing he had done might be wrong, but the very openness and frankness of his relation to Meteetse redeemed it from shame. He was neither a profligate nor a squaw

Prances

 of bigness tum and more her thoughts
 no explanation.

 did not now do such complete nonnext
 no explanation.

 contrasted him with another man.
 Presently she turned and looked at that he had lost ground, but with the eyes betrayed any excitement.
 Quixote two.

 him. Only the deeper color beneath that he had lost ground, but with the eyes betrayed any excitement.
 Arrived at the bank, he let himself into his rooms and looked the door. He stooped to open the draft of the stove when a sound stopped him halfway.

 "The each colby."
 his indis

fore to be won. The habit of victory was so strong in him that he could see no alternative. The motor-car plenic to the Willow the catled him by his given name. He no alternative. The motor-car picnic to the Willow

The motor-car picnic to the Willow same time fgnored. Never before had the generative service of the service s rusty old dress suit of the vinta . of teetse and comment and the Alaskan. She had been dis-mod the Alaskan. She had been dis-filusioned, saw him more clearly; and though she still recognized the quality of bigness that set him apart, her spirit. He made no apologies, and mow do such complete homage the not now do such complete homage the strong carnal appent to him, but there of the spirit. He made no apologies, are erolanation. In the strong carnal appent of the spirit. He made no apologies, are erolanation. The grizzled cashler-his name was open dance hall."

had been cashier the bank had failed to open on the dot. Macdonald was no sluggard. It was his habit not to let the pleasure of the night before interfere with the busi-ness of the morning after. But in the darkness he overslept and let the town waken before him. He was roused by the sound of knocking on his door. "Who is it?" he asked. We are whilly eached a function to we are while before interfere with the busi-the sound of knocking on his door. "Who is it?" he asked. Now d the probabilities logically, but at this point it made a jump. There were at least two robbers. He was a one-man job. Now, if Hoit had with him a companion, who of all those in Kusiak was the most likely man? "Who is it?" he asked. We are whilly eached and the arrival of the first Standard Dressings. They are not yet in our stores, but we know the sound of knocking on his door. "Who is it?" he asked.

The shound of knocking on his door. "Who is it?" he saked. "It's me—Jones—Gopher Jones, Say, Mac, the bank ain't open and we can't rouse Milton. Thought I'd come to shehng." In three minutes Macdonald joined the marshal and walked down with him to the bank. He unlocked the front door and turned to the little crowd that had gathered. "Better wait here, boys, Gopher and I will go in. I expect everything is all right, but we'll let you know about The bank areadage dout." The had back the concer, a second Wally Selfridge, another the United States district attorney. He divided the roads leading The back acceled the door." The back acceled the door.

mail 20c extra. Orders may be sent to

P. J. KERNODLE. 1012 E. Marshall St. Richmond, Va. Orders may be leftat this office.

Call and Get Your Vest Pocket

Goldmine Book. We are pleased to advise our adult readers that they can call at this office and secure free of charge, a useful Vest Pocket Memorandum Book, full of valuable information. Call quick before they run out.

$100-Dr. E. Detchon's Anti-Diu-retic may be worth more to you -more to you than $100 if you have a child who soils the bed-ding from incontinence of water during sieep. Cures old and young alike. It arrests the trouble at once. $1.00, Sold by Graham Drug Company.

