IN THE WAR.

As the days pass the casualty list of American soldiers grows larger.

The brilliant part our soldiers are performing is heartening.

Never before in this country have laboring people been paid as high wages as at this time.

Neither the Federal nor the State Government look upon the "stacker" with favor.

The submarine menace on the Atlantic coast has been little in evidence the past week.

Governor Bickett wants the Council of Defense in every community to furnish the name of every drone.

Deserter Killed in Pitt County.

W. M. Corbett, a deserter from Camp Sevier, was killed Saturday night at the home of H. Corbett.

Orville C. Knifield, Socialist candidate for Congress against James V. McClintic, seventh congressional district, Oklahoma, was found guilty by Federal Court.

SUITS FOR PERSONAL INJURIES SETTLED BY GOVERNMENT ON MERITS.

Director General McAdoo lets it be known that railroads will not pay exorbitant tolls for personal injuries and that the injured person will receive the benefit of the amount paid.

The Federal Control Act contemplates that suits for personal injuries may be brought as heretofore but provides that executions may not be levied on the property of the carrier while in the possession of the Government.

It will be the policy of the Government to discourage litigation, and to deal directly with the injured person, to the end that the injured person may receive the benefit of any amount which the Government pays without the expense of litigation.

Gets 18 Months—Talked Too Much. At the Federal court in Greensboro, August Dressler, a native German, was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment at Atlanta, for making treasonable remarks.

Southwest Alumnance. Mrs. Sallie Sullivan of the Mt. Zion section died in Greensboro at the home of her daughter on the 8th and was buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery on the 9th.

People in our community are very busy with their farm work. They are more interested than ever before.

Major Geo. A. Gregg of Liberty has been visiting his uncle, J. R. Foster, for a few days and having a grand time swimming and fishing.

To drive in 12,209 seven-eighth-inch rivets in nine hours into a standard ship was the feat accomplished at the yards of Workman & Clark at Belfast, Ireland, by John Omir, who last week beat the hour record for the United Kingdom.

Try It! Substitute For Nasty Calomel Starts your liver without making you sick and cannot salivate.

Every druggist in Town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel.

THE LOOMS OF NEWS.

By Julius Muller.

We swing the heading Looms that weave The tales of human earth.

We watch the steady-turning globe Upon its spindle hung; Men's lives are as a twisted flax Whose thread to us is flung.

We weave! We weave! The sky may rock, Lands pass like smoke away; We gather in the warps and weave The garment of the Day.

We braid their bliss, we wail their pain, We braid men's hopes and fears, We knit their silks of joy and make A pattern of their tears.

Lo, we are old that once were young! But never, cast nor west, Has one of all the circling suns Beheld our Looms at rest.

The world was vast, the world was dim, When first that we were young; And in the half-light of his time Man walked dim tears among.

He walked dim fears among, and dim, Lurk as half-levels tilt we broke His terrors with our Looms.

We snatched the tattered threads and weaved them to a face; We tied the sundere lands that once Stared blind across blind space.

We knot men's hates, we knit men's loves, We make the pattern whole; Of loves and hates, Behold! 'tis one!—Humankind's great soul.

Throw us your spoils, O Turkistan! Ye trophies! Send your glows, O rained terrors! Our pattern needs Your somber thread of woes.

Strike, raving armies! Flame! O fleets! Rise nations! Rise an spring! High, high, above your clamors—hark! Our Looms are thundering.

GROW YOUR OWN VEGETABLES.

How To Plant and Cultivate Your Home Garden to Get the Greatest Returns and the Surest Results.

By F. F. ROCKWELL, Author of "Around the Year in the Garden," "Home Vegetable Gardening," "Gardener's Pocket Guide," Etc., Etc.

FOOD WILL WIN THE WAR—PRODUCE IT!

Article No. 11.—Getting the Best of the Garden Bugs. Order Your Seeds Now for the Fall and Winter Garden.

The gardener who has carefully followed the various steps of preparing his soil, making it suitably rich, planting his seed, getting the best of the first crop of weeds, and thinning out the surplus plants, may feel that he has earned "all that is coming him," with no more difficulty to overcome before the long desired goal is reached.

The first thing to learn in fighting insects in the garden, is that you cannot fight them all in the same way. The gardener who waits until some insect enemy appears and then goes into the nearest store and asks for "something to kill bugs," is fore-doomed to failure.

There are three distinct classes: The eating insects, the sucking insects, and the borers and maggots, which work inside of the stem or in the root.

The sucking insects work more stealthily and are much harder to detect because they do not destroy any portion of the plant, but suck the plant juices in just the same way as the mosquito sucks blood.

The eating insects bite off and swallow portions of the foliage or fruit of the plant attacked, and their presence can, therefore, be very easily detected.

The sucking insects work more stealthily and are much harder to detect because they do not destroy any portion of the plant, but suck the plant juices in just the same way as the mosquito sucks blood.

The sucking insects work more stealthily and are much harder to detect because they do not destroy any portion of the plant, but suck the plant juices in just the same way as the mosquito sucks blood.

Unless that you are certain your spring order included all the seed you will need for fall and winter crop, order again now.

Order Your Seeds For Late Planting In Time. In France fifty per cent of the total energy of the people is said to go into military effort.

Winston-Salem Lady Tells of Good Results She Obtained From New Herbal Medicine Gains Five Pounds.

"Dreco has done more for me than any other medicine I ever took in all my 65 years of life," declares Mrs. Sallie King, the well known and highly esteemed resident of 1112 East 11th Street, Winston-Salem, in a signed statement for publication.

"Life was a constant misery to me an account of stomach trouble, rheumatism, headaches, constipation and a constant biliousness. I had terrible dizzy spells which made me helpless for the time being and altogether I was in a terrible condition.

Dreco acted like magic in stomach trouble, gas fermentation, dizziness, bloating, rheumatism and liver disorders. It attacks and destroys poisons in the blood, corrects diseased conditions of the organs and restores them to normal health and strength.

Dreco is dispensed by best drug stores everywhere and is particularly recommended in Graham by Graham Drug Co.

St. John's Day, 25th. The celebration of St. John's Day, which is held each year at the Oxford Orphanage is an event of State-wide interest, especially to the Masonic Fraternity, and the occasion carries to Oxford a large crowd of visitors annually.

A great many friends of this Institution even in the Fraternity have never visited the Orphanage except on this occasion but have made it a point to go at this time and get a glimpse of the work and participate in this annual home-coming.
