Fishing Parties.

A fishing party has been at Sutphin's mill on Cane creek since the first of the week. The pond was drawn and seined and large quanti-ties of suckers and other fish were canght. The catch amounts to several hundred pounds. Suckers weighing as much as four pounds were caught. A number from Graham were in the party. On yesterday another party fished the Wilson mill pond on Haw creek in Thompson township. This party also made fine catches of suckers and other tish. Several Graham people were also in this party.

DEATHS.

The death of Dr. W. G. Stafford will be learned with regret by a large circle of friends and acquaint-ances. He passed away at his home in Orange county, near Oaks, on Thursday, 8th inst. He was past years of age. He was a son of late William Stafford, was born and reared in this county and spent almost all his life in mance. He was a physician of high professional standing and for many years enjoyed a fine practice. Severa his health became very much impaired and he went Florida and spent a year or two; but he never became strong enough to resume active practice. Up to two or three years ago he lived in Bur-lington where he had made his home for many years. Then he bought a farm near Oaks and gave it such at tention as his health would permit. Aside from being a learned phy sician, Dr. Stafford was well verse d phy

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. THRIFT AND DEMOCRACY. After the War Readin es for County Offices Na ings, Patriotism and Thrift. Again

The Republicans held a well at-tended county convention last Sat-urday to name candidates for the county offices. I The convention was presided over by Mr. Junius H. Harden and Mr. S. F. White, editor of The Falcon, act-ed as secretary. S. W. Straus, President of the American Society of Thrift, recently made a speech in Pittsburg, and among other things he gave expression to the following oughts worthy of most serio onsideration : . "The time is rapidly coming in America when every employer must see not only that his employees practice thrift but their condition of employment are such that they can practice it

"The dollar sign is passing a the insignia of ruthless power,' said, "and the day is dawning when it shall stand also as the syn was made by acclamation. Phil S. Commissioners. After this committee retired the convention took up other business, among which was the election of a secretary to the county execu-tive committee, a position held for several years by Mr. Heenan Hughes, Mr. W. I. Ward took the floor in opposition to Mr. Hughes, accusing him of pursain; a "rule or ruin" policy-absolute bossism-kaiserism-making and destroying whom he would at will. The con-vention here assumed a breezy as-pect. In the meantime Mr. Hughes handed in his resignation and walked out. Several short speeches were made and the-election of a secretary to fill the vacancy came up. Mr. Hughes was again put in nomination and he was elected by a rising vote-only one stood up in opposition. The storm ended-here. The committee on County-Comalone. The business man must stand on the broad ground of great brotherhood. The attitude between employer an'i employe wil be that of man to man, and not master and slave. "Every man must practice thrift

No, we are fighting this war ion a democracy that shall reach down and take root in the heart of every citizen in every country.

"There is no such thing as a democracy that is not universal any more than there is an autocracy tha "These things are to be the fruits
