LOCAL NEWS.

With the continued mild weather outdoor work continues and some farmers are still sowing wheat. That there is a prospect of the completion of the concrete road between Graham and Burlington during this month, the weather permitting, will be glad news to a host of people who use motor cars and vehicles.

The influenza situation in Graham is better now than at any time since its first appearance. For a day or so no new cases have been reported and the sick are improving. In Burlington and Mebane and in the northern section of the county a few new cases are reported.

Deputies H. J. Stockard and Ed. A. Hensley captured a still in Pleasant Grove township last Friday. They had got "wind" of it being a tobacco barn at Paul Fuller's. At first the possession of the still was denied, but the officers had a line on its location and Fuller conducted them to the spot. Fuller has given bond for appearance at court.

Presbyterian Church. Sunday school will reopen at 9:45 Sunday morning, Nov. 15th. Dr. Vardell will preach at eleven o'clock in the morning and at seven o'clock in the evening. Everybody invited. H. W. Scott, Supt. ARMSTRONG HqLT, Sec'y.

Marriage Licenses. Register of Deeds B. M. Rogers issued 325 marriage licenses for the year ending Nov. 30th. For the year ending Nov. 30, 1917, he issued 327—the high water mark for marriage licenses in Alamance county. For the year ending Nov. 30, 1918, the year before Mr. Rogers became Register of Deeds there were 280 marriage licenses issued.

Auction Sales. An opportunity to buy very desirable property will be given those who attend the auction sales advertised on the fourth page of this paper this week. The Mrs. Corinna Hunter lot in Graham is the most desirable for business purposes that could be offered, and the Thompson property at Haw River is among the most desirable there.

Mrs. J. N. H. Clendenin Dies. After several weeks' illness, Mrs. Elizabeth Catharine Clendenin, wife of Mr. J. N. H. Clendenin, died at her home here yesterday, Dec. 11th, 1918, at 20 minutes to 12 o'clock in the 82nd year of her age. She was the only daughter of Jacob Long and his wife and was born and reared at the old Long homestead two miles east of Graham. During the Civil War she was united in marriage with Mr. J. N. H. Clendenin, then a Confederate soldier, by their uncle, the late Capt. John K. Stockard, Justice of the Peace. To this union were born five daughters and two sons. Two of the daughters are dead. The surviving children are Mrs. J. F. Peterson of Hickory, Mrs. N. G. Newman of Elon College and Mrs. C. C. Thompson, Graham, R. F. D. No. 1, Frank Clendenin of Graham and Geo. L. Clendenin in the western part of the State. Besides the children named and her husband, she is survived by the following brothers: Rev. Dr. W. S. Long of Chapel Hill, Rev. Dr. A. Long of Burlington, Col. Jacob A. Long of Graham and Judge B. F. Long of Statesville.

Mrs. Clendenin was a devout Christian, a faithful and devoted wife and mother and one of the kindest of neighbors. As a woman in all the relations of life she was one of the best—none better. Her life was one of devotion to her Creator, her family and her friends. The many acquaintances, wherever they may be, of the days gone by will learn of her death with sincerest regrets. The funeral services will be conducted from Graham Christian church at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon by Revs. Drs. W. W. Staley of Suffolk, Va., and J. U. Newman of Elon College, an arrangement which she had made when in the enjoyment of health. After the funeral services the burial will be in Linwood Cemetery.

Strong Men. The Nation needs strong men and the right time to begin to build up strong manhood is during the growing period of childhood. Many mothers remember, with keen satisfaction, the days when SCOTT'S EMULSION was one of the determining factors in building up the strength of their children. Scott's is a source of nourishment and strength that ought never be overlooked by the mother of today who is anxious about her fast-growing boy or girl.

EXPRESS APPRECIATION OF DONATIONS AND SERVICES.

The Graham Red Cross Chapter is grateful for the loyal service of its members and the public generally, in its work for human welfare. In its War Service, through the American Red Cross, it has met every call. It is doubly grateful that it could, through the same source of service, render aid in the suffering caused by the epidemic of influenza among its own people.

Therefore, The Graham Chapter, in Executive Session, wishes to express officially its appreciation of all services rendered by its members and the public generally through it since its organization.

It wishes further to especially express its appreciation, and the appreciation of those to whom aid was rendered, for the organization, equipment and service of the Emergency Hospital for the treatment of influenza patients, and to thank: The Presbyterian church for the use of its manse and Sunday school rooms, and all persons who furnished equipment for the hospital.

Dr. Rankin, of the State Board of Health, who aided in securing registered nurses; And the nurses who came and did such noble work; And our own doctors, for their hearty co-operation; And our own nurses, for their faithful work;

And Mr. E. S. Parker, Jr., and Misses Irma Coble and Marce Goley, who devoted all their time for the four weeks the hospital was open, as Superintendent, head of the cooking department, and director of the lay nurses respectively;

And to all who rendered service, and gave of their means in the organization, equipment, and service of the hospital.

Of those who rendered service during the existence of the Emergency Hospital, The Gleaner has obtained the names of the following in addition to those named above:

Volunteer nurses: Misses Mary Walker, Adelaide Morrow, Edna Longest, Mattie Longest, Callie Foust, Fannie Ray, Martha Gates, Mary Hunter, Lorena Kernodle, Emma Harden, Versie Geanes, Fern Henderson, Dallis Henderson, Lizzie Bradshaw, Minnie Bradshaw, Laird Wilson, Mrs. Hughes, Mesdames Caroline Fowler, Jas. E. Black, Jim Thompson, O. D. Mebane and Tom Coble.

Help in diet kitchen: Mesdames Coble, Mrs. E. S. Parker, Jr., and Misses Mamie Parker, Jessie Phillips, Minnie Long, Mabel Moore, Dora Cooke and Lola Cooper.

Help in serving kitchen: Mesdames Marce Goley, Mrs. W. Ernest Thompson and Miss Doris Holt.

The Boy Scouts helped in any capacity called upon. The following colored people rendered indispensable service: Bob Faller, Caesar Jeffress, Ed. Newlin, Harrison Allen and Tom Long.

The community, sick and well, appreciate every service and attention.

YOUR BOY.

By Henry van Dyke.

Your boy has fallen on the field of honor, a brave defender of righteousness, humanity and freedom. May a stranger, who is also a friend, venture into the sacred quiet of your sorrow to say a word of sympathy and comfort? He was your baby, your own flesh of your flesh, bone of your bone—a long time you carried him under your heart. But all the while you wanted him to be a man, true and fearless. He was. He heard his country's call. He counted not his own life dear, but offered it gladly to defend the world from the menace of Prussian paganism.

Weep for him, yes, but do not forget to be proud of him, and to rejoice in him. No possible ending of his earthly life could have been more glorious, more rewarding for all that you have done for him, than this. He went forth, an American boy—your boy—to fight for the liberty and the peace of the world. You made him and you sent him. It is your right and duty to be proud of him.

Do not be anxious about his lot in the unseen world. Leave that to the Righteous God who is the Father of us all, and to Christ who said: "He that loseth his life for my sake shall find it." Self-sacrifice is the key to heaven. You will never forget your boy. Do not think of him as dead, but as living—living! Be sure that he will look down from fields of eternal peace upon that victory over the German war lords which is surely coming, and which he helped to win. Be sure that you will see him again in a better world.

"Where loyal hearts and true Stand ever in the light," All rapture through and through, In God's most holy sight."
