VICE-PRESIDENT MARSHALL SPEAKS

AGREES ON QUESTION OF A LEAGUE OF NATIONS TO PRESERVE PEACE.

MANY HALF-BACKED OPINIONS

Thus Far, Dream of Universal Peace Has in Every Instance Proved Purely Utopian.

Carlisle, Pa.—Vice President Marshall, in an address before the Carlisle chamber of commerce, gave his views on some questions now under discussion in connection with the peace conferences.

On the question of a world league or understanding to prevent war which, he said, all right-thinking men agree is desirable.

"It is farthest from my thought upon this occasion to utter a single word which might in any manner be construed as endeavoring to affect the negotiations of the President in Europe," said the Vice President.

"That some league or understanding among civilized peoples for the prevention of certain future wars (as I prefer to put it rather than for the enforcement of peace) is desirable all right-thinking men agree.

TALES OF DESTRUCTION BY GERMAN IN CITY OF RHEIMS

Paris, via London.—In debate on the bill for war damages, Louis Du Bois, deputy from the Seine, gave details of German destruction and robbery in the northern district of France.

According to a report by the budget commission, the damages are twenty-six hundred million pounds sterling, divided into eight hundred million for houses, two hundred million for furniture, four hundred million for damages to fields and loss in livestock and destruction of crops.

REASONABLE SOLUTION WILL BE FOUND FOR PROBLEMS

Washington.—Colonel Charles E. Lydecker, president of the National Security League, told the house committee investigating the organization's activities in the last congressional campaign that the league's expense from December 14, 1914, when it was formed, until last September 30, was $21,678.

SENATOR OVERMAN FIGHTS CHILD LABOR AMENDMENTS

Washington.—Senator Overman attacked the child labor amendment to the revenue bill in the senate. He emphasized the argument that the amendment is not to raise revenue, but to use the taxing power to nullify an opinion of the supreme court in which it states that the act (the Child Labor law) was unconstitutional.

HUNGER DRAWS THE MAP

A food map of Europe today shows not a single country in which the future does not hold threat of serious difficulties and only a small part which is not rapidly approaching the famine point.

Germany, on the other hand, need not figure in such a map for America because there is no present indication that we shall be called on at all to take thought for the food needs of Germany.

England, France, the Netherlands and Portugal, all of which have been maintained from American supplies, have sufficient food to meet immediate needs, but their future presents serious difficulties.

Most of Russia is already in the throes of famine, and 40,000,000 people there are beyond the possibility of help. Before another spring thousands of them inevitably must die.
