LOCAL NEWS.

It is showery—regular April weather. There was frost and a little ice Monday and Tuesday mornings. Peach trees are in full bloom. The mild weather has brought them out. Garden making still goes on. It means a home supply of vegetables for the family table. This fine weather the farmers are as busy as can be preparing land for spring and summer crops. On Sunday at the home of Mrs. Nannie Poythress, Mr. D. B. Bass and Miss Nora Ridd, both of Burlington, were united in marriage, "Squire" T. P. Bradshaw, J. P., officiating. An oyster supper and Brunswick stew will be given here by the Republicans tomorrow (Friday) night. Well—yes, there is going to be a town election about six weeks hence. The Ladies' Aid Society and Missionary Study Class of Graham Christian church will meet at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 2nd, with Mrs. Walter R. Harden. The recent fine days have enticed a number to get together the hook and line and tie themselves away to some favorite fishing hole. Some have brought back fine "strings" of fish. Graham Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at 3:30 p. m. on Thursday, April 3rd, with Mrs. W. H. Anderson, Haw River. Ladies who go from Graham will take the street car leaving at 3 o'clock. Mr. G. Oron Rogers is now out of the hospital, where he has been about four weeks under treatment on account of an accidental wound in the foot. He is doing as well as could be expected owing to the severity of the wound. Mrs. C. S. Hunter on yesterday commenced to move to her home on N. Main St. next to the Opera House. She has had the interior of the residence completely overhauled and renovated. Many changes have been made which add to its appearance, convenience and comfort. There was a slight blaze at the home of Mr. Chas. D. Johnston Monday afternoon. A lot of trash was being burned on a near-by lot and a spark fell among the trash in a gutter at Mr. Johnston's home and set it afire. The fire alarm was sounded, but by the time the firemen could reach the place the fire was out. The damage was very slight.

Social. Misses Gladys Heifal, Lynette Fields and Irma Coble will entertain the Thursday Night Sewing Club this evening. Commissioned Major. Dr. J. J. Barefoot was agreeably surprised a few days ago on receiving his commission as a Major. He was not aware of the honor until he received the commission, which bears date three days before his discharge. It had gone round from camp to camp until it found him. Among the Sick. Mr. B. N. Turner was up town Tuesday for the first time after being confined to his home for seven weeks. Mrs. Chas. D. Johnston and Master Charles and little Miss Sarah have been quite sick, but all are reported better. Mrs. Ben B. Holt and children are sick with influenza. Oneida Store Building Sold. Green & McClure Furniture Co. has bought the large double store building, known as the Oneida store building from Mr. L. Banks Holt. They will put in a new, up-to-date front and otherwise improve the property, preparatory to moving in about the first of May. The two large double rooms down and upstairs will afford them ample space to display their large stock of furniture. As soon as the Green & McClure Furniture Co. vacates their present quarters the Graham Hardware Co. will move in. Saw 113th Artillery Parade in Raleigh. Among those who went from Graham to Raleigh Monday to see the 113th Artillery parade were the following: Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Barefoot, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Long, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henderson, Messdames J. L. Scott, Jr., and C. W. Causey, Misses Blanche Scott, Josephine Thomas, Estelle Brown and Lorena Kernodle, Messrs. Wm. I. Ward, Dewey Farrell and Frank Stockard. These and others went by automobile. A number of automobiles passed through Graham from farther west to be present on the occasion. Fair Department Store handles the Gossard Corsets.

Beginnings Series of Articles on New Features of Old Problem—New Legislation Should Have Approval of Those Who Want to Pay According to Their Worth and No More—Some Changes as to Listing This Year. By A. J. MAXWELL.

The press of the State has a large share of responsibility for the unanimity with which the recent General Assembly passed one of the most thoroughgoing revaluation acts ever adopted in any State. Its continuing co-operation is essential to the success of the work undertaken. It is my purpose to ask publication of a short article once a week for several weeks on some phase of the tax problem, in as many papers as will give space to it, as well as to continue the generous co-operation of the press, on its own initiative in keeping the matter before the public and in fairly presenting the plans and purposes of this great undertaking. Properly understood it should have the co-operation of every man who wants to pay his equal share of taxes and no more. Its success depends upon the co-operation of the public, and upon its success depends in large measure the future progress of the State.

North Carolina is more distinctly a one hundred counties, since the recent session of the General Assembly. It broke new ground in many lines, but all of its furrows lead to the realization of a more compact State. In this respect the recent session of the General Assembly was epochal. In public schools, public health, public roads and in taxation its enactments show more than a tendency in this direction—they practically establish State systems. The Legislature came to Raleigh with a full realization that a complete revision of the tax system of the State was the fundamental reform—that not alone the State agencies of helpfulness in all lines were dependent upon it, but that the counties, cities and towns had reached the limit of endurance and progress under the old system and old methods. A complete new order of things was demanded not only to relieve the unreasonable and steadily increasing tax rates, which will reach a point of $3.75 this year in one of the great cities of the State, and to give a more equitable result as between individual taxpayers by a more accurate valuation of property, but it became a necessary prerequisite to the new policy of State-wide dealing with other public questions. If equal school facilities are to be provided by the State in all the counties of the State, and if other great undertakings are to be handled in the same way, the State must of necessity see to it that there is a uniform system of taxation uniformly administered in all the counties of the State. If money is to be drawn by the State from one county to maintain public schools and build roads in another, as will be done under legislation enacted at this session, the State cannot escape responsibility for seeing that the property in each county shall be valued in the same way and up to the same standard. The Legislature also came to Raleigh with a full realization that an accurate valuation of all the property of the State was a large undertaking, requiring not only adequate organization and means, but time in which to make adequate investigations. The will to do equity, without the means, is impotent. So its first definite conclusion was that this work should not be hurriedly done—that it would not undertake to have real estate revalued at all for use in the year 1919, but that it would give all the time possible for the prosecution of this work by giving a whole year more of time than has ever before been given in this State to a revaluation of property. The machinery for this revaluation was enacted in a separate bill. Subsequent articles will treat of different sections and provisions of this act.

THE USUAL FORM OF MACHINERY act was re-enacted with some important amendments for the registration of personal property this year. The Boards of County Commissioners in the several counties as well as appoint, at their regular meeting in April, township list-takers for taking the lists of personal property in the usual way in the months of May and June, and will bring forward the old valuation of real property. No More Listing Bank Stock. One important change, applicable to listing this year, does away with the listing of shares of

WILL HAVE RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS. Summer School Opens June 24—Law School Opens June 9—First Game Baseball March 28. BY ROBERT W. MADRY. Chapel Hill, March 25.—A unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps will be established at the University of North Carolina within the next two or three weeks, according to present plans. Major M. Crawford has received applications from 110 men desiring to take the course—14 more than the necessary quota of 100, and has made formal application to the War Department for a unit to be established here. The course will require only three hours per week, will be voluntary, and will not conflict with other college duties. The State University Summer School will open later this year than usual due to the fact that Commencement has been postponed. Commencement day will come on June 18th and the Summer School will open one week later, on June 24th and will continue through August 8th. Director N. W. Walker is daily receiving many inquiries pertaining to courses offered, rooms, and so on, and according to present indications, he sees no reason why the forthcoming session should not be the most successful in the history of the institution. Many noted out-of-State teachers, speakers, and lecturers have already been secured. The Summer Law School will open on Monday, June 9th, which is earlier than usual, and close on Friday, August 15th, extending through 10 weeks, ending just before the bar examinations held by the Supreme Court in Raleigh on August 18th. Opening as it does on the 9th of June, before the last quarter of the University ends on June 18th, the summer term will not conflict with the work of the regular term. The main purpose of the summer course is to offer a review, as complete as the limited time will permit, of the course required by the Supreme Court for the bar examination. That members of University faculty made large and notable contributions to the educational and literary life of the State and nation during the past year is clearly shown in the recent report of the chairman of the faculty. A total of 275 lectures and addresses were delivered before audiences outside of Chapel Hill by University professors. Sixty-four literary contributions in the form of special articles, bulletins, leaflets, reports, and pamphlets appeared in the leading journals of the State and nation and in University publications. Fifty-five distinct contributions were made to leading technical journals. Twenty-five addresses were made before learned societies. Many books and publications were edited by faculty members. With the opening game of the baseball season for the University only one week distant, the Carolina squad is being rapidly whipped into shape. The first game is scheduled for March 28, probably with Oak Ridge. The team as a whole is showing up well and may be expected to be a winner. However, the hitting percentage is not very high at present and the outfielders show need of improvement. The showing thus far made by battery candidates is especially pleasing. Captain Jack Powell and Joyner, members of last year's pitching staff, are better than ever, while others are fast rounding into varsity material.

MENTAL QUESTION—TAXATION

stock in banks by the ers. The tax in each case will hereafter be charged against the bank instead of the shareholder, and paid by the bank. This has been the rule as to all incorporated companies other than banks. Banks are permitted, as heretofore, to deduct State bonds issued since 1910 from surplus, and are now permitted to deduct Federal and State bonds to the extent of 25 per cent of capital and surplus if held three months prior to date of listing—May first—and can deduct Federal bonds of the new issue of Victory Bonds to be issued in April, if paid for by April 30th.

Unless he gets busy before July 1, Von Tirpitz, said to be broke, cannot follow the usual course and start a corner saloon in some live American city.

Don't Forget to List Your Dog. The tax-lister in every township in the State this year will want to know if you own a dog, or if any member of your family owns a dog, and if you admit the insinuation the tax will be $1.00 for males and $2.00 for female dogs, which will go to the school fund of the county. These are the only material changes respecting your tax list for this year. The next article will deal with some features of the revaluation act.

Country Life. Let me live the years of my stay upon earth, 'way out in the country, close to nature and to nature's God. I want to feel the touch of the seasons as they come and go, making up the years. I want to feel the chill of Winter in my frame, not too severe, but enough to make the blood tingle. I want to feel the gentle warmth of Spring, as with her touch of magic, she awakens new life in things dead. I want to feel the heat of Summer, as the golden sunshine ripens the harvest and matures the fruit and flowers. Lastly, I want to catch the cool breath of Autumn coming to fan away the heat and lethargy of summer. I want to hear the cry of the whippoorwill as the twilight settles o'er the hill and hollow. I want to be near where Bob White is calling to his mate, when the fields of ripening wheat wave gently to the passing breeze. Then when old Jack Frost passes by, with his touch of white, I want to wander down the old rail fence and on to where the muscadines hang in rich profusion; and there for a time feast and forget. Yes, let me live out the years of my stay upon the earth in the fullness of the country, and then, dying, let me rest in the quiet church-yard near where father and mother sleep—where the sunbeams play in the summer, and the snow drifts high in winter.
