

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood... I looked with dread from one month to the next: I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, I decided to

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

TIME HAS PASSED FOR NEGOTIATIONS

EXTENSION OF TWO DAYS IS GIVEN GERMANY TO SIGN REVISED PEACE TREATY.

BUT FEW CHANGES ARE MADE

Covering Note by Clemenceau Severely Castigate Germans for Groundless Protests Against Treaty.

Verailles.—The reply of the allied and associated governments to Germany's counter proposals to the peace treaty and a revised copy of the peace treaty are in the hands of Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, who is on his way to Weimar, there to present to the German national assembly the final word of the victors in the war.

Few changes have been made in the revised treaty. The original contentions of the allied and associated powers have virtually been maintained intact. Five days was the allotted period originally fixed for the Germans to answer yes or no to the demands of the allies. But two days additional have been granted because of the insistence of the German delegation that not sufficient time had been allowed for proper consideration of the revised terms. This will extend the time limit to Monday, June 23. If Germany's reply is yes the treaty will be immediately signed; if Germany declines to accede to the demands, the armistice will be automatically terminated and the allied armed forces will take whatever steps they deem requisite to the occasion.

With the revised treaty, containing interchanges in red ink, where changes had been made in it, was a covering note, written by Premier Clemenceau, president of the peace conference. It had been impossible to reprint the treaty in time for its presentation.

The covering note severely castigates Germany for protesting against the treaty on the ground that the treaty conflicts with the terms of the armistice. M. Clemenceau says Germany fails to understand the position she occupies today in the estimation of the world for being responsible for a war which was "the greatest crime against humanity and the freedom of the people that any nation, calling itself civilized has ever committed."

Without ostentation Paul Dutasta, general secretary of the peace conference, placed the revised draft of the treaty and the note in the hands of German Legation Secretary Simon and Baron von Loerner, with whom M. Dutasta held a conversation lasting for several minutes, explaining the nature of the instrument and the length of time allotted for the Germans' reply. Herr Simon protested against the short time given Germany to make known her intentions.

Dromedary Came a Long Distance to Attend Methodist Centenary Celebration

THE first Methodist Centenary Celebration dromedary has arrived in Columbus, O., and has consented to an interview. In fact, so softened was his disposition by the familiar scenes which greeted him in the North Africa exhibit section at the exposition grounds that he smilingly consented to pose for a picture with the reporter perched precariously on his hump.

"I've come a long distance to attend the Centenary celebration," he stated, "and I don't regret a mile of it now that I have seen the preparations being made for it at the exposition grounds. This world's missionary exposition is going to beat anything I have ever seen, and I have seen many things in my travels."

"The dromedary is one of a number of animals who are arriving to take part in the great Centenary celebration in Columbus. They will appear in the exhibitions of foreign countries, and some absolutely safe camels and elephants will be ridden by children who come to the exposition,

The architecture of the Coliseum is such that every person will have an unobstructed view of what goes on upon the stage, and can hear every word spoken or note played or sung.

Associate Director of Music at Methodist Centenary Celebration

TO Horace Whitehouse, head of the department of music of Ohio Wesleyan University, at Delaware, and associate director of music of the Methodist Centenary Celebration, which will be held in Columbus, O., June 20 to July 13, is due the credit for the remarkable success of the Children's Crusade chorus of 500 young voices. Professor Whitehouse has been training his chorus for several weeks. They will appear as an effective feature of the Centenary celebration program.

Seafaring of the sort that flourished in the early eighteenth century when a foremast hand was virtually a slave and his brassy skipper, armed with a belaying pin, his undisciplined master, was described in federal court in New York City by John W. Campbell, a 22-year-old high school boy of Muskegon, Iowa, who answered the call of the sea and ran away from home with Skipper Adolph C. Pederson as cabin boy on the antiquated barkentine Puako. Campbell was the first witness for the government which has charged Pederson and his son, Adolph, mate of the Puako, in an old-fashioned indictment with the murder of the high seas of Axel Hansen, a seaman. They are alleged to have driven Hansen overboard by cruelty and to have left him to perish in the sea.

Twenty minutes after the robbery a runner from the main bank in New Orleans arrived and heard the teller beating on the vault doors and gave the alarm.

TREATY REVISION WAS A NECESSITY

MANY OF THE CHANGES TO BE MADE OF MINOR CHARACTER BUT OF MUCH IMPORTANCE.

WILL NOT JOIN IN BLOCKADE

British Warships Are Reported to Be Bombarding Base of Bolsheviks at Kronstadt.

Paris.—The council of four devoted both of its sessions to revision of the peace treaty, preparatory to its presentation to the German peace delegates.

The rewriting of the treaty of peace, as announced in Paris dispatches, was rendered necessary by the discovery of errors and inconsistencies in the draft as at first presented to the Germans. Many of the changes to be made are of a highly important nature, but most of them are of a minor character.

The latter is particularly true of the reparations clauses, which will be virtually unchanged in the new draft. But the financial provisions will be given discretion to allow Germany to gather a working capital for the resumption of her industries in order that she may meet the requirements of the allies.

Holland has joined Switzerland, Norway, Sweden and Denmark in refusing to take part in a blockade against Germany should the latter refuse to sign the peace treaty.

British warships are reported in a dispatch from Stockholm to be bombarding the base of the Bolsheviks at Kronstadt. The dispatch intimates that the Bolsheviks are endeavoring to evacuate the base.

CONFERENCE ONE ON ALL QUESTIONS

TERMINATION OF THREATENED DEADLOCK IS GRATIFYING TO FRENCH AND AMERICANS.

IT IS NOW "THE BIG FIVE"

Admission of Japan to Inner Circle Based on Fact That its Government Must Concur in All Matters.

Paris.—A complete accord has been reached in principle on all questions connected with the reply to the German counter proposals.

French and American peace conference circles are highly gratified at this favorable turn after the prolonged differences of the past fortnight verging on a deadlock. The accord includes the Silesian question, the proposed admission of Germany to the league of nations, and reparations, which were the chief subjects of difference among the delegates.

No time has been fixed for Germany's entrance, but it she conforms to the conditions, it is expected that she will be represented at the first meeting of the council.

The Silesian settlement is based on a plebiscite for the disputed Polish German region.

It has been decided to incorporate the reply in the treaty itself rather than present it as a supplemental document. It will contain about 25,000 words.

Baron Makino, Japanese delegate, joined President Wilson and Premiers Lloyd George, Clemenceau and Orlando, and the council, known as the "Big Five," will hereafter be styled the "Big Five."

The decision adding Baron Makino to the council is explained by the fact that his government must be given

With the dynamic personality of Theodore Roosevelt the Republican progressives are as leaderless as a blimp in a squall with the engine out of commission.

Some men call women angels—but then you can't believe a word some men say.

Americans admire Harry Hawk's courage but they do not admire his sportsmanlike effort to belittle the American's successful achievement of transatlantic flight, at which the Australian failed.

If the Republicans permit themselves to be maneuvered into making a party issue of the League of Nations, they will run the risk of making this country perfectly safe for the Democratic party.

It will never do to move the Capitol to the Middle West, as Senator Sherman suggests. The President is so far away already yet.
