LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. Alvis McCauley was carried to Alamance Hospital Monday and operated on for goiter. A rainbow appeared Tuesday evening which gave hope that there will again be fair weather. Mr. A. G. Ausley has opened a grocery store in the McCracken store building on N. Maple St. All signs fail in dry weather, it is said. How about the signs in wet weather?—fall, to, don't they? For the past three weeks, almost without interruption, the weather has been "leaking" at the bung. Miss Eva Aldridge of Union Ridge was brought to Rainey Hospital the first of the week for an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Lacey J. Whitesell, son of Mr. Jacob C. Whitesell of Boone Station township, returned last week from overseas service. He belonged to the medical corps. Mr. C. M. Vanstory of Greensboro, District Supervisor for revaluation of real estate, was here Tuesday in consultation with County Supervisor, Mr. Chas. C. Thompson. Messrs. Parker & Long have completed the remodeling and decorating of the interior of their law offices, which have been very much improved in both appearance and convenience.

Twelve Inches Rain. Since the 1st of July to this date there has been twelve inches of rain here, as shown by the government rain gauge and reported officially by Dr. W. R. Goley. This is an unusually heavy rain fall for so short a time for this locality.

Boy Scout Items. The Graham Boy Scouts are not an idle lot of boys. They do and plan things. A few days ago they went out and helped Mr. W. S. Long, Jr., break his wheat. Then the doctor carried them to a cafe and gave them a nice supper. Now they are planning to go on a camping trip to the western part of the State in a week or two. They have already provided themselves with tents for the occasion.

Buildings Notes. Col. Don E. Scott has begun the foundation and is putting material on the ground for his new residence on N. Main St. Material is being hauled to build the garage on W. Harden St. for the Alamance Motor Car Co. An addition to be used as a kitchen is being built at the rear of Hotel Graham.

Mandamus Hearing in Oxford Today. Before the County Commissioners levied the taxes for 1919, the Board of Education made up a budget of school expenses for the ensuing year to include sufficient funds to run the schools of the county for a period of six months. The Commissioners failed to make a levy sufficient to meet the requirements of the School Board according to their budget, and the latter Board has brought mandamus proceedings to compel the Commissioners to make a sufficient levy. The hearing is to be before Judge Devin at Oxford today. The School Board is represented by J. Elmer Long, Esq., and the Commissioners by J. Delph Long, Esq., both of whom went to Oxford this morning. Mr. C. P. Albright, Chairman Board of County Commissioners, and Mr. M. C. Terrell, County Superintendent of Schools, also went to hear the argument before the Judge.

Mr. Haywood H. Simpson Dies Suddenly at Haw River. The sudden death of Mr. H. H. Simpson at his home at Haw River this morning about 9:30 o'clock was a distinct shock to his family and friends. For more than a year his health had not been good, but he had been reasonably active. This morning as he was passing from one room to another he fell and expired immediately. Mr. Simpson was a highly esteemed citizen. He had lived at Haw River since he was a young man and for a number of years was engaged in merchandising. He was about 60 years of age and is survived by his widow and five children—Mrs. E. L. Henderson of Graham, Alfred H. Simpson of Burlington, Mrs. W. J. Allen, James Simpson and Miss Ada Simpson of Haw River. After the funeral service at Haw River the burial will be in Linwood Cemetery at 4 o'clock on tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Wm. L. Purse Dies Very Unexpectedly. The passing of Mr. Wm. L. Purse last Sunday morning at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Jas. P. Smith, was a shock to his friends. After midnight, about 3 o'clock, he was restless on account of slight indigestion, but was relieved by a simple remedy. He did not get up for breakfast on account of loss of sleep, but was uncomplaining. Mrs. Purse was in his room about 11 o'clock and he was cheerful and spoke of getting up. When she returned to his room she found him dead. He died about 11:15. Mr. Purse was a native of Charleston, S. C., and was united in marriage with Miss Mary I. Smith about four years ago. About four months ago Mr. and Mrs. Purse came to Graham to make their home. Deceased was about forty-two years of age. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Welch, who lives in Charleston, and by four children of a deceased brother. The funeral was conducted from Mr. Smith's residence Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. E. N. Caldwell, assisted by Rev. F. C. Lester, after which the interment was in Linwood Cemetery. Mrs. Purse and the family have the sympathy of their many friends in their sore bereavement. Mr. Purse was a pleasant gentleman and had made many friends during his short stay here. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Knight of Durham and Mr. and Mrs. Will I. Holt of Burlington, brothers-in-law and sisters of Mrs. Purse, and Mr. Klutz of Greensboro, long-time friend of deceased, were here to attend the funeral.

Dogs Versus Sheep. Kansas Industrialist. For every dog kept a loss of $36.50 must be pocketed every year. For every sheep kept a profit of $27.60 may be pocketed every year. At least that is the way the proposition was itemized on the blackboard of a mountain schoolhouse by a farm demonstration agent in Kentucky. And the figures were convincing. There was not a sheep in the district at the time the figures were placed on the blackboard. Somebody said there used to be one sheep—a wether—"down the mountain ways," but the dogs ate him. A few weeks from the time the agent placed the figures on the board 15 boys each had contrived to buy a sheep. Eleven dogs had been killed. Several other families, pestered by their small sons, but still unwilling to kill their dogs, were trying to give the brutes away. Similar movements were started at other schools. Now, in that district, there are 622 boys who are members of the sheep club. Among them they own nearly 2,665 sheep. By the tax returns, the dog population appears to have increased also, but the agent says this is not true. Formerly there was no sentiment for enforcement of the dog law, he says, but now there is a very strong sentiment that way, and while there has been a considerable decrease in the number of dogs, there is an apparent increase, because people who formerly evaded the dog tax now have to pay it. Prohibition forces took full control in the house and refused to permit a vote on a straight-out motion to repeal the wartime act, defeated overwhelmingly an amendment providing for the sale of 2 3/4 per cent beer, and stood solidly against all attacks on the general enforcement measure. Just as fast as a "liberal" amendment was offered by opponents of prohibition, it was voted down without ceremony, always by a triple vote, for the minority, fighting every inch of ground, demanded a division after the yeas and nays were called, and then asked for tellers.

Eloquent Address to Juniors. On Sunday afternoon, 13th inst., Mr. Numa K. Reid of Wentworth, State Vice-Councilor of the Junior Order, delivered an eloquent address to the Juniors of Graham and the visitors at the M. E. church. It was in the nature of a memorial address, commemorating the patriotism of members of the Order, many of whom made the supreme sacrifice, while fighting for the freedom of the world with the American army in Europe. A few weeks ago we published a speech of Mr. Reid's in full made on a similar occasion. His speech here, like that, was full of the finest sentiment eloquently expressed. Everyone who failed to hear him missed a real opportunity to hear something worth while.
