

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., Sept. 11, 1919.

Postoffice Hours.

Office open 7:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m.
Sunday 9:00 to 11:00 a. m. and 4:00 to 6:00 p. m.
R. N. COOK, Postmaster.

LOCAL NEWS.

It is hot and dry and dusty again. Rain is much needed.

The attendance on court this week is small—few than those required being present.

Graham Tire Co. has opened business next door north of W. H. Albright's market, and you will note change in their ad. this week.

Mr. John E. Wicker of Fayetteville has purchased Mr. R. L. Holmes' residence on Albright Avenue and will soon move his family here and they will make Graham their home.

There will be no preaching at the Baptist church Sunday, the pastor, Rev. L. U. Weston, having left Monday for Clinton to assist his brother, Rev. E. L. Weston, in a series of meetings.

Mr. Edwin D. Scott has the plans for a new home to be built between the residences of his father, Mr. H. W. Scott, and Dr. W. R. Goley. Mr. Sam T. Johnston is the contractor and will begin work inside the next few weeks.

Mr. Robt. L. Holmes, having sold his home on Albright Ave., is preparing to move to the former home of Mrs. C. S. Hunter where he and family will live temporarily. Mr. Holmes expects soon to begin the building of a handsome new home on his lot on N. Main St. opposite the M. E. Church.

Col. Garrett Speaks.

As announced last week Lieut. Col. Ruby D. Garrett of Kansas City, Mo., spoke Tuesday night to a good audience in the court house. He was in the overseas service and on the firing line. He is a fluent speaker and moved from one scene to another in "rapid fire" order. He is a lawyer by profession and an orator. He has made good and his Alamance kin and their friends were glad of the privilege of hearing him.

Estlow-Hill.

The following announcement has been received by friends here:

Mrs. Wilmoth Ann Hill announces the marriage of her daughter Jessie Catherine

Mr. Elmer Austin Estlow on Tuesday, August the nineteenth one thousand nine hundred and nineteen Laurel, Maryland.

Miss Hill is of Washington, D. C. Mr. Estlow is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Estlow of this place. They will make their home in Washington, where Mr. Estlow holds a position in the Naval office.

Marriage Announcement.

The friends of the bride and groom have received the following announcement:

Mr. and Mrs. William Christopher Cooke announce the marriage of their daughter Dora to Mr. Robert Nicholas Cook on Saturday, August the twenty third nineteen hundred and nineteen Tallahassee, Florida.

At home after September the first Graham, North Carolina.

Graded School Opens With Record Attendance.

Graham Graded School opened Monday. The enrollment was 485 on the first day, fifteen more than the total enrollment last year.

The following out-of-town teachers arrived the last of last week, viz: Misses Josephine Thomas of Lenoir, Mary Weeks of Scotland Neck, Estelle Brown of Hillsboro, Adelaide Morrow, near Oaks, Annie Moore, near Saxapahaw, Mabel Polger of Dobson. All of them except Miss Polger were here last year.

A dentist and a nurse in the employment of the State are at the school this week examining the teeth and throats of the younger children.

Fair Price Committee Appointed.

The County Food Administrator, Lynn B. Williamson, has appointed the following Fair Price Committee for this county:

Col. Don W. Scott, Chairman, Graham.

Mrs. Lawrence S. Holt, Jr., Burlington.

Mr. D. E. Sellers, Burlington.

Dr. W. A. Harper, Elton College.

Mr. W. S. Crawford, Mebane.

This committee will receive full instructions direct from the U. S. Treasury Department, and anyone desiring information or desiring to report profiteering, will please take the matter up with the member of the committee in their locality.

Meeting Called to Discuss Sewerage System and Hotel.

Mayor Holmes has called a meeting for tonight at 8 o'clock at the court house to discuss sewerage and a new hotel for Graham.

As a means of promoting the health of any town, there is no one thing that the town can do that would do more for the healthfulness of the community. Everybody now recognizes adequate sewerage as a necessity, hence there is little need to argue that point. How to secure it is the chief factor.

As to a good up-to-date hotel, a town of the most modest pretensions now-a-days feels that such is one of the essentials of the town's life. If the citizens of Graham will pull together they can plan and build a hotel that the whole town and community will feel proud of.

PERSONAL.

Mr. R. L. Holmes went to Greensboro yesterday afternoon.

Mr. C. P. Albright is in the Eastern part of the State on business.

Mr. T. C. Hoyle of Greensboro was here Monday on legal business.

Mrs. Allen B. Tate left yesterday for hospital treatment in Greensboro.

Mrs. M. B. Wyatt went to Durham Friday evening and returned Sunday.

Mr. Marshall Wyatt of Durham was here a short while Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Jas. Turner will leave tomorrow for Greensboro to spend a week with friends.

Misses Blanche Scott and Helen Simmons went to Raleigh yesterday and will return today.

Mr. John Norcross of Atlanta, Ga., is spending a few days here at Mr. L. Banks Holt's.

Miss Fannie Poust returned to Barium Springs Saturday where she will teach the coming year.

Miss Swanna Buckner left Friday for Suffolk, Va., on a visit to her brother, Mr. C. A. Buckner.

Miss Thelma Westmoreland of Thomasville, N. C., spent the week-end here visiting Miss Mary Estlow.

Mrs. B. O. Parker and daughter, Miss Josephine, of Raleigh spent the week-end here visiting Mrs. E. S. Parker.

Rev. Hal F. Schenck of Chatham, Va., spent several days here this week with his sister, Mrs. Grant Estlow.

Mr. Charles Menefee, now making his home in Wilmington, spent the first of the week here at the home of his parents.

Mrs. Roy Long and little daughter, Ora Holt of Hickory are here visiting Mrs. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lacy Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Schenck of Vineland, N. J., are spending several weeks here with the former's sister, Mrs. Grant Estlow.

Mrs. Geo. T. Williamson and daughters, Misses Ethel and Bonna, of Greensboro spent the week-end with Mrs. J. Harvey White.

Mrs. Allen B. Thompson is spending a few days in Greensboro with her sister who underwent an operation at a hospital in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Poezolt of Greensboro spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Seymour S. Holt. Mrs. Poezolt is a sister of Mrs. Holt.

Misses Lucile Holmes and Margaret Hunter left for Raleigh yesterday, the former to attend Meredith College and the latter Peace Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Harden and little daughters, Elizabeth and Annie Ruth, and little Miss Elizabeth Long spent the latter part of last week in Raleigh.

Mrs. Rudolph R. Carlyle of Lumberton, N. C., and Miss Ida Wipprecht of Bryan, Texas, who were guests of Mrs. J. J. Henderson, left for their homes Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. H. Graham and Master Sandy of Hillsboro spent the week-end here at the home of Mrs. Graham's parents Col. and Mrs. Jacob A. Long.

Little Miss R. Elizabeth Grubb has returned to her home in Spencer after spending several weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Whittemore, east of Graham.

Mrs. J. D. Kernodle and son, Mid'n M. H. Kernodle of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., left for Lumberton last Saturday to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Jas. D. Proctor. They expect to return tomorrow.

Two Autos Driven from Ohio.

The Piedmont Motor Sales Co., being unable to get cars shipped by rail as needed, sent W. D. Reaves and Robt. Tate to Cleveland, Ohio, to get two handsome Chandeliers. They left here Monday night, last week, and got back Saturday night. The only thing in the way of a mishap was one puncture.

Handkerchief Shower Given Bride-Elect.

Friday afternoon from 4:30 till 6 o'clock Mrs. John J. Henderson entertained in honor of Miss Helen K. Simmons of Durham, a former resident of Graham and a bride-to-be. Miss Simmons will be wedded early in October to Mr. Junius Powell of Washington, D. C.

The guests were received by Mrs. Henderson, assisted by Miss Simmons, Mrs. J. D. Kernodle, Miss Ida Welch Wipprecht of Bryan, Texas, and Mrs. J. C. Simmons of Durham. The entertainment was in the form of a handkerchief shower, and a basket of these dainty accessories was presented the guest-of-honor by little Miss Cora Emmaline Henderson. Dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and mince were served by the hostess and Mrs. H. W. Scott. Other out-of-town guests were: Mrs. R. R. Carlyle of Lumberton, Misses Lula Stockard and Josephine Parker of Raleigh, Mrs. M. B. Wyatt of Greensboro, and Mrs. H. C. Folland of Elton.

Wholesale Theft of Clothes.

The pressing room of Wm. E. Walker, colored, at the rear of P. S. Dixon's tailor shop was broken into Monday night about one o'clock. Entry was made by smashing a large pane of glass. The noise was heard but no one paid any further attention. Six suits and two dresses which Walker had cleaned were taken, also four or five suits which he had pressed for Mr. Dixon were taken. The thieves took only clothes which had been cleaned and pressed. No trace has as yet been found of the clothes.

Rev. L. I. Cox of Elton College Dead.

Last Friday morning about 8 o'clock at his home at Elton College Rev. L. I. Cox died almost suddenly. The news of his departure was received with sincere regrets by all who knew him. He was a forceful preacher of the Word and a man of sterling worth and character. He had a large circle of friends and acquaintances and it was a privilege to have known and come in contact with him. His life was work-work for the uplift and betterment of his fellows. In his church he was trusted and honored. He was born in Randolph county Nov. 20, 1868. His widow, six sons and five daughters survive him. A great concourse of people attended the funeral in the college chapel at Elton Sunday at 11 o'clock. The body was laid to rest in Elton cemetery.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make this beauty lotion for a few cents and see for yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way: Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a white quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons. adv

Superior Court.

Alamance Superior Court convened Monday for the trial of civil cases, Judge W. P. Stacy presiding.

The calendar was headed with more than a dozen divorce cases. Of these four were tried in which the plaintiffs were granted divorces. Nonsuits were taken in some and others were continued.

Several other cases were tried, but the greater part of the cases set for trial were continued.

At this writing the prospects are that the court will end with today.

TRUSTWORTHY

Taken in moderate doses, right through the warmer months, after meals, furnishes nourishment of particular value to the anemic or those underweight. Keep up your strength. Trust Scott's Emulsion to help you do it.

Scott's Emulsion

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Little grains of dandruff mean good-by to Hair

Dandruff literally smother the life out of the hair roots and eventually brings baldness.

Wildroot cleans, softens and loosens the scalp and stimulates the hair to normal, healthy growth.

Wildroot Liquid Shampoo Wildroot Shampoo Soap, Wildroot Hair Tonic, will restore the hair to normal, healthy growth.

For sale here under a money-back guarantee.

Graham Drug Co. Hayes Drug Co.

Break your Cold or LaGrippe with few doses of 666.

Looks Years Younger—No Gray Hair.

It seems so unwise to have gray, faded or lifeless hair these days, now that Q-ban Hair Color Restorer will bring a natural, even, dark shade, without detection to gray or lifeless hair.

Have handsome, soft lustrous hair in abundance without a trace of gray. Apply Q-ban—guaranteed harmless—on a large bottle—money back if not satisfied. Sold by the Hayes Drug Co. and all good drug stores. Try Q-ban Hair Tonic, Liquid Shampoo and Soap.

Try Q-ban

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Rev. Joseph G. Walker Becomes Pastor 3rd Presbyterian Church, Greenville, S. C.

A late issue of the Greenville (S. C.) News has the following to say of Rev. Joseph G. Walker, who began his work last Sunday as pastor of the 3rd Presbyterian church of that city. Mr. Walker is a son of Mrs. Ida Walker of Graham. He made his home here a number of years and is held in highest esteem. He left here last week for his charge. The News says:

The Rev. Mr. J. G. Walker of Greensboro, N. C., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Third Presbyterian church of this city, it was announced today following a message from him Friday afternoon. Mr. Walker will occupy the pulpit of this church Sunday for the first time, filling the vacancy caused by the death last October of the Rev. G. O. Griffin.

It was announced also that the building committee of the church yesterday authorized the completion of the auditorium of the church at the corner of Buncombe and Echolls streets. This building was not completed last fall, although the Sunday school rooms were occupied. The new building will now be completed as soon as possible in order that the auditorium may be used.

Mr. Walker, who begins Sunday his work as pastor of the Third Presbyterian church, is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from that institution he was associated with Dr. C. F. Myers as pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro for a year. Then he became pastor of Bessemer avenue and Glenwood churches of that city, serving there in that capacity for a couple of years. He has thus had about three years experience in the practical work of the ministry. He is a young man of fine ability and has enjoyed exceptional advantages for mental and spiritual development. He was reared in a home of conspicuous piety, has been leader of the young people's activities in one of the most progressive churches of the South, and is familiar with the modern methods of Sabbath school and church work.

Some of the material is already on the ground and it is hoped that the building will be ready before Christmas. School will be opened in the old building.

This generous act on the part of Mr. Gant is deeply appreciated by the County Board of Education and the patrons of the school.

It was proposed that this new building be called the "Gant School," but Mr. Gant modestly declined to have either the school or the district known by his name. But an appreciative people will not readily forget, and in the hearts of the patrons and in the hearts of the boys and girls who attend this school it will be known as the "Gant School," although officially entered in the records as the Glen Raven School.

Mr. Gant is a native of North Carolina and an alumnus of the University of that State.

After his graduation there he was principal of the high school of Burlington, N. C., for two years before going to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. After his graduation from