WILSON'S WORDS CLEAR UP DOUBT

CALIFORNIA THROWS OVER ITS LEADER, JOHNSON, AND RALLIES TO LEAGUE.

WEST GIVES HIM OVATION

All Doubtful Features of Pact Are Explained Away By President, and Former Doubters Hasten to Give Him Their Support.

By Independent News Bureau, formerly Mt. Clemens News Bureau.

Aboard President Wilson's Special Train—a continuous ovation along the Pacific coast and then on his eastward way back toward the capital was given to President Wilson as he came toward the end of his month daylong speaking tour in behalf of the League of Nations. California, particularly the delightful city of Los Angeles, went wild in its enthusiasm for him and his advocacy of the League, and it was in that state, perhaps, that he did his most successful missionary work. Hiram Johnson, California's former governor, now her United States senator, and considered by her as the most likely Republican candidate for the presidency in 1920, had before the arrival of President Wilson, convinced a great number of citizens that the League as at present formulated was not a good thing. He had told them that the United States, because of it, would be drawn into every petty European quarrel; he argued that we would lose our sovereignty by joining with the European nations. He had blamed the president for assenting to the possession by Japan of the Peninsula of Shan Tung in China.

BUREAU CHANGES NAME

The Mount Clemens News Bureau, which has been furnishing reports on President Wilson's tour in behalf of the League of Nations to 5,500 papers, has adopted a new name and will hereafter be known as "The Independent News Bureau."

But Mr. Wilson, with clear logic and with compelling eloquence, answered to the entire satisfaction of California's people every objection which Senator Johnson had made to the League. And thousands of the state's citizens deserted the Johnson standard immediately and rallied to the support of the president. More than that, they came forward and said, "We were against you, Mr. President, but you have cleared everything up and now we are with you heart and soul." Still more than that, they let Senator Johnson know that they were no longer with him and that they disapproved of the speaking tour which he himself was making in opposition to the League and so powerful was the volume of public opinion which reached him, that the senator almost immediately abandoned his tour. The Shan Tung question, because of the anti-Japanese feeling which undoubtedly exists along the Pacific coast was the most serious which the president had to answer. He explained to the people that he had been powerless to prevent the rich peninsula from being given to Japan. England and France through a secret treaty, had promised it to Japan for entering the war and carrying it. Anyway it was not China that was losing Shan Tung, but Germany, which had seized the territory from China in 1919 and held it over since. Japan had promised, the president explained, to return Shan Tung as soon as the peace treaty was ratified and it was only through the ratification of the treaty with the League of Nations inclusion, that China could ever expect to get her former property back. And she surely would get it back, he declared, through the ratification of the League. Therefore, through the same instrumentality no other nation could gain prey upon the "Great, patient, diligent, but help less kingdom." As to our being drawn into any European conflict. The president pointed out that no direct action such as the sending of troops to any part of the world to maintain or restore order could be taken by the Council of the League without a unanimous vote of the council members, therefore our vote could do no negative any such proposition as sending our soldiers where we did not want them sent. Besides, Mr. Wilson argued, "If you have to quench a fire in California you don't send the fire department of Utah." But he argued, there probably never will be another war, if the League is established, for the members promise either to arbitrate their differences and accept the decision of the arbitrator, or the differences for discussion and publication before the Council of the League for a period of six months, and then, if possible, accept the council's advice. That falling, they agree to refrain from war for a further period of three months and nine months of "cooling off," the president contended, would prevent any armed conflict. These clear explanations satisfied every reasonable hearer and destroyed the "bugaboos" which Senator Johnson and others had raised against the League. Through rugged Nevada into Utah, the land of Mormons, the president sought to find that these "big people" were heartily with him for the League and a permanency of peace.

Government Will Receive Older Issues in Exchange for Newer Securities Yielding Higher Rate of Income.

More than $900,000 in increased interest will be paid within the next six months to owners of bonds of the Second Liberty Loan and the First Liberty Loan Converted, if they present their holdings at once for conversion into 4 1/4 per cent bonds. This announcement, which of course applies only to those bond holders who have not converted their securities already, has just been made by the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. Government statistics show that there are outstanding in the United States about $750,000,000 of these bonds which have not been converted, a block of no small size being owned. It is believed, in this state, that the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond should have them converted before November 15, 1919. Bonds of the First Liberty Loan Converted ought to be presented for conversion before December 15, 1919. These securities will be received by local banks in exchange for either coupon or registered 4 1/4 per cent. The new rates of interest will begin on the dates given.

TEXT BOOKS WILL BE FURNISHED TEACHERS

Two Courses Are Issued by Treasury Department and Will be Sent Free Upon Request.

To further the teaching of thrift in the schools the United States Treasury Department has issued two text books, copies of which may be had by any teacher desiring them. One is designed for use in elementary schools. It gives a suggested outline, the purpose being to shape the habits and character of the school child in the formative period of his life. The second book known as "Fifteen Lessons in Thrift" is to be used in the high schools and naturally is more advanced in the treatment of the subject.

MORE THAN ONE WAY TO PRACTICE SAVING

There are ways and ways of barring the door against the wolf. But until six months ago David Broderick, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., had never learned how to slip the bolt into place. Convicted of a minor offense last January, he was placed on probation, and ordered to take $12 a week to the probation officer.

Broderick protested, saying that it was impossible for him to pay so much, but agreed to try when he realized that a jail sentence was the alternative. Each week since that time he has paid in his twelve dollars, and at the expiration of the six months term he was handed $232 20 worth of War Savings Stamps, the result of his saving.

When the justice entered his court room the next day he found on his desk a cigar wrapped in the following note signed by Broderick: "You're a friend of mine, Good luck, Judge. Broderick is now under a voluntary probation period of indefinite length, promising to bring in $10 a week to continue his savings investment."

UNIVERSITY OPENS TODAY.

Nearly 500 Freshmen in Sight—Registration Expected to Pass 1,200—Nine New Professors Added.

Cor. of The Gleason.

Chapel Hill, Sept. 30.—Under the new presidency of Dr. Harry Woodburn Chiles the 125th session of the University of North Carolina will open Oct. 2nd. Students will register Sept. 30th and Oct. 1st, and the formal opening exercises with the welcoming address by the president and the beginning of class room work will be Oct. 2nd.

Every indication points to a record breaking attendance. Dr. T. J. Wilson, Jr., the registrar, announced today that he had received 430 freshmen certificates and that he expected fifty more, and the total registration is expected to pass the 1200 mark. To meet the increase in numbers the University authorities have increased the number of students per room and the majority of dormitory rooms will have three beds. Swain Hall, the University dining hall, which accommodates 600 men, will be augmented by the opening of University Inn, where 100 more men can board. Class room space is fully occupied.

All the members of the faculty who were in government service during the war have returned, and nine new professors have been added. Dr. George Howe, head of the Latin Department, is announced as new Dean of the college of liberal arts, and Prof. Frank P. Graham, as Dean of students, will have charge of all matters of student discipline so far as they concern the faculty.

A new school has been added to the University, the school of commerce, with Dr. D. D. Carroll, Prof. of Economics, as acting dean. A four year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Commerce is offered, the last two years of which have a large amount of practical work, and a system of apprenticeship has been provided whereby students will have experience in representative business houses in the State.

For the first time in the history of the University courses in music will be offered under Paul John Weaver, lately supervisor of music in the public schools of St. Louis, and a well known organist in that city. The two year course of the law school has been increased to three years and the law building has been remodeled to give more class room space.

An increased attention to the health and physical condition of the students is manifested in the appointment of Thomas J. Browne as professor of physical education and director of physical training. Prof. Browne, recently captain in the army, was in charge of physical training and athletics at Camp Gordon and head of the Central Army school for physical training of officers.

The session will be divided this year into two terms. Instead of the first term ending before the Christmas holidays and the second at Easter, commencement will come after the middle of June.

WILSON INVADES HOUSE OF FOES

CARRIES HIS BATTLE FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS INTO HOME OF HIS ENEMIES.

GIVES COST OF GREAT WAR

INFORMS THEM OF LIVES AND TREASURE Poured Out to Save Civilization.

(By Mt. Clemens News Bureau)

Aboard President Wilson's Special train—Carrying his war against those who oppose the adoption by the United States of the peace treaty and the covenant of the League of Nations into their households, President Wilson last week invaded California.

And there, where the question on which league opponents have hammered the hardest, that of Shan Tung—of most interest, the president found the same enthusiasm among the people for peace and for insurance against future wars. The people want the long controversy ended. They want this country to be able to again turn its undivided attention to social, economic and industrial development. Their leaders may not feel this way, but judging from the expressions which met the president on every side. The leaders have overstepped the limits of the peoples patience in their stubborn determination to force a change in the great document.

Must Take This League.

"We must take this League of Nations," said the president, "for there is no way in which another can be obtained without compelling reconsideration by the powers. And it would sit very ill upon my stomach to take it back to Germany for consideration."

"All over the world people are looking to us with confidence—our rivals along with the weaker nations. I pray God that the gentlemen who are delaying this thing may presently see it in a different light."

Germany, the president declared, is taking new courage from our delay in ratifying the treaty and her newspapers and public men were again becoming arrogantly outspoken.

"I am sure you were the figures of the cost of the late war, in lives and dollars. It was the first time that the official statistics have been made public and the tremendous totals shocked the president's auditors."

Shows Cost of World War.

"The cost," said President Wilson, "of that great war, and her losses were $38,000,000,000; France $26,000,000,000; the United States $22,000,000,000; Russia $18,000,000,000; Italy $13,000,000,000 and a total, including the expenditures of Japan, Belgium and other small countries, of $123,000,000,000."

"It cost the Central Powers as follows: Germany $39,000,000,000; Austria-Hungary $21,000,000,000; Turkey and Bulgaria $3,000,000,000."

"The United States," the president said, "spent one million dollars an hour night and day for two years in its struggle to save civilization. All this, however, fades into insignificance when the deaths by battle are considered, declared the president. Russia gave 1,700,000 men; Germany 1,800,000; France 1,380,000; Great Britain 900,000; Italy 864,000; the United States 60,300. In all, almost 7,500,000 men perished in the great struggle, or 1,500,000 more men than died in all of the wars of the previous 100 years."

Should Remember Recent Horrors.

"These are terrible facts, and we ought never to forget them. We went into this war to do a thing that was fundamental for the world and what I have come out on this journey for is to determine whether the country has forgotten or not. I have found out. The country has not forgotten and it will never permit any who stand in the way of the fulfillment of our great pledges, ever to forget the sorrowful day, made the attempt."

Arbitration and discussion, the president pointed out, must replace force of arms in the settlement of world controversies. Constantly he dwells upon the fact that all the nations in the League agree to do one of two things, first to submit their differences to arbitration, in which case they agree to abide by the decision rendered, or, if unwilling to arbitrate, to have their case discussed by the Council of the League, in which case six months is granted for discussion. Three months must elapse following the result of this last step in arbitration before the nation concerned can declare war.

Holds Out Hope For Ireland.

The president took advantage of questions propounded by the San Francisco Labor Council to give the inference that he believes Ireland can bring her case before the League of Nations for settlement when the League is actually in existence.

Shan Tung, he declared, will be returned to China. Japan, he said, had given her solemn pledge to that effect. And with the League of Nations in force, said the president, we can, if occasion should arise, insist on it.

A. T. Webster, Poplar St., Graham gave the following statement in December, 1917: "I suffered severely from pains across the small of my back and there was a soreness through my kidneys. The kidney secretions were unnatural. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and soon found it better in every way. I have had but little pain in my back since and the kidney secretions have cleared up."

On July 12, 1918, Mr. Webster added, "I would not be without Doan's Kidney Pills for anything as I think they are the best kidney medicine on the market. They put me on my feet when I had kidney complaint and I advise anyone who has this trouble to take them."
