PERSONAL.

Death of Capt. James A. Turrentine.

News of the death of Capt. James Alexander Turrentine, which occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Stokes, in Burlington, at 12:15 o'clock Monday night, will be learned with sincere regret by his large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Capt. Turrentine was born in Alamance, then Orange county, on the 19th of November, 1835, and spent most of his life in the county. He lacked but a few days of being 84 years old at the time of his death.

Few men have enjoyed the respect and esteem of their acquaintances to the extent that Capt. Turrentine did. He was much before the public but he made friends and not enemies.

He held many positions of trust and honor. For many years after the Civil War he was railroad agent at Burlington and Graham. Three times he represented Alamance county in the State Legislature, served the county as County Commissioner, was Mayor of Burlington, and at the time of his death he was a member of the County Board of Pensions and Board of Charities. He was also a leader in the Christian church of which he was a life-long member.

For many years he was the Conference Treasurer of the church. At the outbreak of the Civil War he was at Suffolk, Va., and was a member of a Virginia cavalry company and served throughout the war. He was a brave and fearless soldier, and ever showed the keenest interest in the welfare of the Confederate soldiers. At his death he was Commander of Camp No. 10 of Confederate Veterans at Burlington.

The funeral was conducted from the Christian church in Burlington at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. Dr. P. H. Fleming, assisted by Dr. J. W. Harrell. Dr. W. W. Staley, who came from Suffolk, Va., to pay a last tribute of respect to his departed friend, took part in the funeral services. The remains were laid to rest in Pine Hill cemetery and his grave was covered with sweet flowers borne by loving hands.

Graham Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy attended the funeral in a body, and through Mr. W. A. Hall, a brave Confederate veteran, Burlington Chapter placed a Southern Cross of Honor at his grave. Dr. D. A. Long, also a Confederate veteran, delivered a beautiful eulogy when the Cross was placed.

Capt. Turrentine conducted a small farm for the past few years and last Friday in getting on his wagon he fell and hurt himself, and from that he declined rapidly to the end.

Capt. Turrentine was twice married. His first wife was Miss Martitia Scott who died about a year after her marriage. His second wife was Miss Lou Kilby of Suffolk, Va., and of their children the following are living: Mrs. Jas. D. Montgomery, Mrs. W. T. Stokes and Miss Mary Turrentine of Burlington, Mr. Lee Turrentine of Kinston, and Mr. Richard Turrentine of Norfolk, Va.

A good man has passed to his reward and the large concourse of relatives and friends at his funeral and burial attest the high esteem in which he was held.

Two Community Fairs This Week.

On Tuesday the Community Fair at Spring was held and was largely attended. There was a most creditable array of exhibits which reflected honor on the people of Spring community.

Today Stony Creek Community Fair is being held and it is expected to be first-class in every way.

Cor. of The Gleaner.

Dr. J. D. Gregg of Liberty gave an interesting discourse at Mt. Zion Baptist church on the first Sunday. His subject was supposed to be the 75-million drive. He touched on different subjects as well. One thing was selfish motives in different organizations and, also, the duties of churches from the time of Moses and the Law to the present. He brought out many interesting facts in church and government management as he comes on down through the ages, making plain what is lacking. Then he summed it all up in a few words and those few words were, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." He told the people to read carefully and prayerfully and find out their duty and leave off selfish popularity and be sure they are right before they start in any undertaking, and most assuredly if they do that our church and government affairs will not be so hard to handle, and strikes and disputes will be a thing of the past.

Farmers are taking advantage of the nice fall weather and pushing their work ahead.

Possum hunting season is on and numbers are being caught every night.

G. M. has a new Ford, and the Kimeville girls are using it to their hearts' delight.

N. C. Christian Conference Nov. 11-14 in Burlington.

The 94th annual session of the North Carolina Christian Conference will convene with the First Christian church in Burlington on next Tuesday and remain in session four days.

The sessions will be held in the splendid new sixty-thousand-dollar edifice just completed by the church in that city. A program of four full days, each full of interest, will be carried out. Aside from the business part of the session, there will be interesting addresses and devotional exercises by speakers of State-wide reputation.
