

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Boysie City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl... my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me... but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable... I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot... I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial.

LANSING ABRUPTLY LEAVES HIS POST

RESIGNED BECAUSE OF BEING CHARGED BY WILSON WITH USURPING POWERS.

RELIEVED OF EMBARRASSMENT

Secretary is Glad to Give Up Place to One Whose Mind is More Nearly Attuned to That of President.

Washington.—Robert Lansing ended his career as secretary of state after President Wilson had accused him of usurping the powers of President by calling meetings of the cabinet during Mr. Wilson's illness.

Mr. Lansing answered two days later—saying he had called the cabinet conferences because he and others of the President's official family "felt that, in view of the fact that we were denied communication with you, it was wise for us to confer informally together on matters as to which action could not be postponed until your medical adviser permitted you to pass upon them."

The secretary concluded by saying that if the President believed he had called in his "loyalty" to him and if Mr. Wilson no longer had confidence in him he was ready to "relieve you of any embarrassment by placing my resignation in your hands."

The President replied that he was "much disappointed" by Mr. Lansing's letter regarding "the so-called cabinet meetings," and added that he "must frankly take advantage of your kind suggestion" to resign.

"I must say," continued the President, "that it would relieve me of embarrassment, Mr. Secretary, the embarrassment of feeling your reluctance and divergence of judgment, if you would give up your present office and afford me an opportunity to select someone else whose mind would more willingly go along with mine."

ALL MINISTERS OF STATE CALLED TO CONFERENCE

Interchurch World Movement Holds Great Gathering in Atlanta The First Part Of March.

All evangelical ministers of this country have been invited to join pastors of all the Protestant churches of South Carolina in a monster conference which is to be held in Columbia March 2-5. This is the first time in the history of the Christian churches of the South that such a gathering has been held, and great good to the churches is expected to result from the meeting together of denominational leaders from all the various churches.

The conference will be in session for three days, during this time every available moment being taken up with intensive consideration of church problems, both as they affect Georgia and the entire Christian field throughout the world. It will meet at 2 o'clock of the first day, and remain in session with conferences morning, afternoon and evening, until the late afternoon of the third day.

One of the most vital matters which will be brought up for consideration will be the results of the religious survey of the state, which will be presented through the medium of graphic charts, maps and picture slides. Although the survey will not be completed at that time, there will be a large number of the counties of the state ready for exhibition, and these will form the basis of consideration.

The results of the surveys are said to be very startling in their revelation of church weakness throughout rural districts, and they will show many opportunities for concentrated action on the part of the churches in this state. The Interchurch World Movement, in making its surveys, simply discovers the facts which exist, and then refers the findings to the churches of each county and state for whatever action is deemed necessary by the churches.

Present at the meeting will be some of the great Christian leaders of the South and of the nation. Some of the strongest men in the southern churches will be in attendance as speakers. There will also be one or more of the directing heads of the Interchurch World Movement among the speakers to speak with authority on whatever features of the movement

The conference will open with a fifteen-minute devotional exercise at 8 o'clock of the first day. This will be followed by an address by the ministers present, followed by an address on the purposes and scope of the Interchurch World Movement. The remainder of the afternoon will then be devoted to the foreign survey, during which the actual facts as they now exist in the missionary fields of the world will be placed before the delegates. The evening session will be devoted to the home survey, both in this state and in the rest of America.

The second day's session will open at 9 o'clock in the morning with a devotional exercise. The proceedings of the day will be divided into intervals of fifteen and forty-five minutes for the consideration of many important subjects. First will come discussions of religious education, then hospitals and homes and industrial relations. The final day will be given to the literature of the movement and also a financial exhibit of the movement's affairs. American education will be allotted a prominent place.

In the afternoon, the subjects will include evangelism, the field program, financial organization and the educational group. The evening will be devoted to a general discussion of the need for such a co-operative movement as the Interchurch among the Protestant forces of America, especially in their relation to home affairs and world conditions.

The final day will deal with organization and the findings of the various committees which will have been appointed for investigation during the course of the conference.

One of the most important proceedings of the meeting will be the smaller conferences of ministers from each denomination during the course of the main conference. There will be time provided for such meetings in order that the denominations may determine upon denominational policies and uniform campaigns covering the entire state, and may take such action regarding co-operating with other denominational bodies as may seem advisable.

Little Maids in the "Moon Door" Symbol of the Hope of New China

Ginling College, at Nanking, is Girls' School in Five Provinces With Population of 111,000,000—Interchurch World Movement to Aid Institution.

The way to all things at Ginling lies through the moon door. And through the moon door on the way to wisdom pass and re-pass, every day, the 70 Chinese maidens of the "gung-gwan."

The moon door at Ginling is round as the full moon, whence it has its name. And the Chinese maiden, as she steps over its high sill, may spread wide her arms and still not touch its rim with the tips of her fingers.

Sometimes across the court yard is another moon door, and beyond it, like a smaller concentric circle, still another, leading on through that Chinese puzzle of a house, the "gung-gwan" or official residence at Nanking, China, which is now the home of Ginling College for Chinese girls—one of the three women's colleges in all China.

The moon door is but a single feature of the old place. Once inside the high stone walls that enclose it one is lost in a maze of courts and galleries and covered passages and isolated rooms.

The whole is China, old China and new. The moon doors and the architecture as a whole lend the dignity and the greatness of old China. But the laboratories and dormitories, libraries and studies made from the old rooms of state and ceremony are modern; just as the force of America is behind it all, represented by the five American missionary organizations and the American Smith College which maintain Ginling, is modern.

One pushes ajar the halves of a moon door, latticed over paper in plum blossom and honeycomb design, and enters a chemical laboratory set up in a room with 20 windows, each framed in dragon tracery. And from the flagstones of the laboratory floor often is scraped fungi and mould for use under the microscope.

These are typical contrasts of Ginling College, revealed through the survey of the Chinese field now being made by the Interchurch World Movement, which seeks to promote the closer co-operation of Protestant Churches of America in attaining their world aims.

Ginling College, the survey shows is at the heart of five Chinese provinces, with a total population of 110,000,000—and is the only woman's college in that great area.

Ginling owns 27 acres of land on the hills beside the Yangtze river. It is the Interchurch World Movement survey of China, there is a budget item of $500,000. It is there to show the churches of America how they can place upon that land on the hill the library, administration building, recreation buildings, chapel—all that are needed for a modern college.

Strong Pisa. The local scout executive had visited the school for the purpose of organizing a troop. He talked to the boys for a time and then taught them several yells, some for their school and some for the principal, all of which made a decided hit with them. A few days later they asked their teacher to invite him back, but she refused, pleading that their time was needed for their regular school work. Another few days and their request was repeated, only to meet with the same refusal and the same excuse.

It was almost a week before the subject was again mentioned, and then the genius of the class did it.

"Say, Miss W—," he began, "don't you feel like you would like to be yelled for again?"

Survey of the Insane. A thorough survey of the number of mentally defective people in North Carolina, and of the means and methods for their care has been undertaken under the auspices of the National Committee for Mental Hygiene, in co-operation with the State Board of Charities and Welfare and Dr. Albert Anderson, superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane. The announcement was made by Mr. R. F. Beasley, welfare commissioner. The survey will be made by Dr. William McDonald.

Rocky Mount.—Citizens of this city and surrounding section will be delighted to learn that the state highway commission has awarded the contract for the construction of 8.8 miles of hard surface between Rocky Mount and Nashville.

Mount Airy.—Garrett and Co., manufacturers of jams and preserves of Brooklyn, N. Y., have completed all arrangements for the opening of their canning plant here in July for the purpose of preserving the blackberry crop of this section.

Raleigh.—Influenza has broken out at State college and is spreading there.

The Y. M. C. A. has been turned into an emergency hospital. So far none of the students are seriously ill.

Kinston.—Rather than spend $200,000 to $250,000 on improvements to the municipal electric plant, some members of the local city council have been considering the idea of inviting a big upstate corporation to enter the city and furnish current for lighting and power.

We now believe we have found a way by which the leaders of the Protestant churches can sit around a common table and have the Christian program of the entire world laid before them. By means of the Interchurch World Movement we can see where the Methodists are, and where the Baptists are. We can see the general outline of their forces, their present status in this great world struggle, and may also have some idea of the unoccupied places, and what may be done by all of us to enter these unoccupied parts of the world field which Christ sent us to occupy.

FOUND NEW LAND OF GOLD

New York Mining Man Reports Rich Discoveries Made in the Mines of Colombia.

A new gold region has been discovered in Colombia, according to J. V. Priest, a mining man, who arrived at New York from Santa Marta, Colombia.

Mr. Priest said that some time ago he was told by a Frenchman, who said he was a government employe, of fabulous wealth that lay hidden in the mines of Colombia. Mr. Priest, accompanied by his wife and C. L. Logue, a mining engineer, visited Colombia recently and spent his time in visiting various sections.

After landing at Cartagena, Mr. Priest said, he and his companions went up the Magdalena river 250 miles and disembarked, going overland through a mountainous country for 65 miles.

At the end of the journey, Mr. Priest said, they found vast gold fields which had never been actively developed because of the absence of the proper machinery. He said this is accounted for by the lack of transit facilities, it being a most difficult matter to ship material of any kind to this point.

Peace Hath its Sorrows. A woman's society, whose principal activity during the war was providing entertainment for the soldiers, was about to give a dance. One of the women who had acted as chaperone meeting a demure miss who had earnestly and strenuously thrown herself into the party and dance game, asked: "Coming to the dance, Luella?" "I think not," answered Luella, with a sigh.

"Why, what's the reason?" asked the surprised chaperone.

"I would have no one to dance with," said Luella.

"All our boys are back," replied the chaperone. "There are as many men as ever."

"Well," said Luella, "we could always depend on the soldiers, but who's going to make those other men attend?"

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few Drops then lift sore, itchy corns off with fingers.

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Frezzone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, maple!

A tiny bottle of Frezzone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Frezzone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

48,000 Drug Stores Sell it. Five million people use it to KILL COLDS.

Carrying a Ton a Mile for less than a Cent

Freight rates have played a very small part in the rising cost of living.

Other causes—the waste of war, under-production, credit inflation—have added dollars to the cost of the necessities of life, while freight charges have added only cents.

The average charge for hauling a ton of freight a mile is less than a cent.

A suit of clothing that sold for $30 before the war was carried 2,265 miles by rail from Chicago to Los Angeles for 16½ cents.

Now the freight charge is 22 cents and the suit sells for $50.

The cost of the suit has increased 20 dollars. The freight on it has increased only 51 cents.

Other transportation charges enter into the cost of the finished article—carrying the wool to the mills and the cloth to the tailors—but these other charges amount to but a few cents more.

The $10 pair of shoes that used to sell for $5 goes from the New England factory to the Florida dealer for a freight charge of 5½ cents—only one cent more than the pre-war rate.

Beef pays only two-thirds of a cent a pound freight from Chicago to New York.

American freight rates are the lowest in the world.

ROYSTER'S FERTILIZERS

-F.S.R.- Have stood the test -F.S.R.-

Because---

I maintain three very extensive chemical laboratories in which all materials are thoroughly tested. No harmful materials can ever enter into Royster goods. Our home and foreign markets are picked over for the choicest raw materials; then I formulate them in just the proportion which my life-time experience has found to be best for each crop for which the fertilizer is intended. The results of all this care is, naturally, a complete mixture which is really the "last word" in fertilizer. So, you see, I am justified in feeling proud of the Royster Products, which come from our fifteen up-to-date plants.
