Miss Mary Ruth Johnston becomes Bride of Mr. Ellwood N. Pearce.

On last Thursday evening, April 17th, at 8:30 o'clock, a beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Christian church in Graham, when Miss Mary Ruth Johnston became the bride of Mr. Ellwood N. Pearce.

The church was beautifully decorated with potted ferns, white being used as a background and the soft glow from the candles added to the scene.

Miss Louise Moore presided at the piano and just before the ceremony Mrs. W. I. Ward sang, "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms," and "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee." To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bride and groom were led to the altar.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses, wearing a dress of pink tulle and with Prof. F. F. Myrick as groomsmen.

Following these came the maid of honor, Miss Lucile Johnston, cousin of the bride, dressed in pink chiffon and tulle, who carried pink Killarney roses. Next came the ring bearer, little Sarah Johnston, sister of the bride, carrying the ring in the heart of a lily. The bride entered leaning on the arm of her father and was met at the altar by the groom and best man, Dr. John A. Jernigan of Dunn.

The vows were spoken before Rev. F. C. Lester, pastor of the bride, the beautiful ring ceremony being used.

The ushers were: Messrs. Warren McCulloch, Greensboro; Lewis W. Strickland, Dunn; Ben G. Johnston, Burlington, and G. A. Pearce, Dunn.

The bride was handsome in a going-away suit of midnight blue with accessories to match. Her flowers were bride's roses and sweet peas.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents, attesting her popularity.

The church was packed to its capacity by friends of the bride and groom to witness the interesting ceremony.

The bride, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. Charles D. Johnston, is a young woman of attractive personality and has numerous friends and admirers. The groom is a prominent young business man of Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearce left on the evening train for Asheville and other interesting points. They will make their home at Dunn.

A RICKETY CHILD

A child with rickets is under-nourished, the bones soft and their growth irregular. A rickety child is very susceptible to colds, coughs and more serious complications and particularly needs a rich bone and body-building food.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

containing nourishing Norwegian cod-liver oil and the bone-strengthening lime salts, is the ideal constructive food for a weak child of any age. A rickety child should be given Scott's Emulsion three or four times daily for a long time. It never fails to nourish and strengthen. Ask for Scott's!

The exclusive grade of cod-liver oil used in Scott's Emulsion is the famous "A. S. E. Process," made in Norway and refined in our own American Laboratories. It is a guarantee of purity and palatably unsurpassed. Scott & Bowne, Inc., New York, N. Y.

Mrs. Dora E. Ward Passes.

Mrs. Dora E. Ward, widow of Henry Q. Ward, died at her home here Tuesday morning at 6:40. Owing to her condition her death did not come as a surprise. In feeble health at the time, two months ago yesterday she fell and fractured a hip. Since that time she had been confined to her bed. She was a gentle, home-loving lady and highly esteemed by all her acquaintances. She was born March 20, 1859, and just one month past 61 years. Among the surviving relatives is Mr. Wm. I. Ward, a prominent young attorney of Graham, her only child.

The funeral services were conducted from the home at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. L. U. Weston, assisted by Rev. C. T. Thrift, after which the remains were laid to rest in Linwood Cemetery.

Mr. Frank L. Foust Dies at Fayetteville—Buried Here Tomorrow.

The numerous friends and acquaintances of Mr. Frank L. Foust will learn with sorrow of his death. He died in the Pittman Hospital at Fayetteville early Tuesday night, where he was carried on 14th for a violent pain in his head, but after an examination no operation was had. It is believed that he succumbed to acute kidney trouble.

Mr. Foust was in his 41st year. He was a son of the late Thos. C. Foust and was born and reared at the Foust home a mile and a half south of Graham. He attended school here, then at Guilford College and graduated from the University. For several years he was engaged in civil engineering. Afterward for ten or more years he was principal of the Pleasant Garden School. Last year he was chosen County Supt. of Schools for Hoke county and moved to Raeford.

About fifteen years ago he was happily married to Miss Mamie Rogers, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Rogers, who live about three miles south of Graham.

Deceased is survived by his widow, his mother, Mrs. Mary Foust, and three brothers and four sisters—Dr. J. I. Foust, Prof. Thos. R. Foust and Mrs. A. L. Henley of Greensboro, Mrs. W. L. Smith of Elon College, Mr. Jas. A. Foust and Miss Mamie Foust, near Graham, and Mrs. L. L. White of Winston-Salem.

The remains will arrive here this afternoon and be carried out to the home of deceased's mother and the interment will be in Linwood Cemetery tomorrow at morning.

Mr. McKimley's letter brings cheer to all who may be sufferers as he was. Read it:

"I can honestly say that I owe my life to Pe-Ru-Na. After some of the best doctors in the country gave me up and told me I could not live another month, Pe-Ru-Na saved me. Travelling from town to town, throughout the country, I was sometimes standing up for hours at a time while playing my trade as auctioneer. It is only natural that I had gotten frequently so when this would occur I paid little attention to it, until last December when I contracted an severe case, which brought a neglect of my part settled on my lungs. When almost too late, I began doctoring, but without avail, until I heard of Pe-Ru-Na. I cured me. I cannot praise it too highly."
