Mr. George T. Jones Dies Here While on a Visit.

Mr. George T. Jones from near Mebane died suddenly from heart failure Saturday, July 10th, at 6 o'clock, here at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Bradshaw, where he was visiting, aged 72 years, 2 months and 3 days. He was a son of Allen P. Jones who died several years ago. He is survived by his widow, three daughters and one son—Mrs. Ben B. Mills of Haw River, Mrs. T. W. Kirkpatrick, near Mebane, with whom he had been making his home, Mrs. W. A. Bradshaw of Graham and Jess M. Jones of Griffin, Ga., also two sisters and one brother—Mrs. Martha Nicks of Richmond, Va., Mrs. Annie Smith of Mebane and J. S. Jones near Mebane. He leaves many friends to mourn his death.

The funeral services and burial were at Hebron church near Mebane, Monday at 11 o'clock in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Surrent, pastor of Hebron church, and Rev. C. T. Thrift, pastor of the M. E. church of Graham.

Prize Winners in Who's Who Contest.

The first prize of $10 in Gold goes to Lillian M. Lee, her answer being almost perfect, only three errors being noted.

Mrs. Allen D. Tate wins the $5 Gold piece, her answer, barring a few very unimportant errors, being close second, but had J. D. Lee exercised just a little more care in two particulars, that of the Graham Cabin et Shop, a regular advertiser, and the Ladies' Emporium, he would have been second winner.

Elise Thompson is deserving of special mention.

The "Who's Who" contest created much interest, and were it possible we would like to hand each and every contestant a piece of gold.

If the prize winners will call at THE GLEANER Office they will be given an order on The Citizens Bank of Graham for their gold.

On and after July 1st I WILL SELL FOR CASH and MAKE NO DELIVERIES—in other words a CASH and CARRY STORE.

Do you know what you are paying for groceries and fresh meats? Lots of people don't, just get it and charge it. You should know what you are paying and BUY WHERE YOU CAN BUY CHEAPEST.
