Entered at the Postoffice at Graham, N. C., as second-class matter.

GRAHAM, N. C., Sept. 2, 1920.

The Tennessee Legislature is tangling itself up over the suffrage act. The anti-suffragists are trying to rescind the action of that body in favor of the amendment. But the passage of the amendment has already been certified to the Secretary of State at Washington and it looks like the anti will have great difficulty in reversing the action of the Legislature at this stage of the game.

Senator Harding proposes to construct a fabric to take the place of the Peace Covenant and League of Nations from the Hague Peace Council and some other material, forgetting that the Hun almost ran over the Peace Palace in his rush toward Paris in 1914.

Graham Public Schools Will Open Monday, Sept. 13th.

The Public Schools of Graham will open Monday morning, Sept. 13th, at 9 o'clock. All children who expect to enter are urged to be at school promptly, so that the work of classifying them may be completed as quickly as possible. It is important that all should be present the first day. Because of the delay in getting necessary repairs made it was necessary to postpone the opening from the 6th to 13th.

The following teachers have been secured, and it is thought that all are especially well qualified for their work:

Teachers who were in service in Graham last year: Miss Mary Weeks, Scotland Neck; Miss Marce Goley, Graham; Miss Clara Hughes, Graham; Miss Conley Albright, Graham; Miss Josephine Thomas, Lenoir; Miss Estelle Brown, Hillsboro; Miss Annie Folger, Dobson; Mr. F. C. Lester, Graham.

New teachers for the year are: Miss Lukie Nichols, Durham; Miss Ruth Early, Louisburg; both are 1920 graduates of Trinity College; Miss Julia Rowe, Stonewall, 1920 graduate of East Carolina Teacher Training School; Miss Bessie Thompson, Graham, a teacher of several years' experience in the schools of Alamance county; Miss Jessie Phillips, Graham, graduate of Asheville Normal, two year's experience; Miss Mary Walker, graduate of N. C. College for Women, two year's experience.

There is still one vacancy to be filled.

Circus Day on the Way.

Years may come and go, times and customs change, but a circus is always a joy to young and old. So all will be delighted to know that Sparks Circus is on its way and will exhibit in Burlington on Friday, Sept. 10th.

Certainly this is one of the greatest shows that has ever come to Alamance county. It includes almost everything in the way of entertainment from the champion high jumping horse of the world, to Madge Evans, a dainty little Miss who puts a herd of monster elephants through their paces twice daily. Then there are feats of strength and balancing that seem to defy every law of gravitation. There is the daring Kenova "Upside down man" who ascends an entire flight of twelve steps while balanced on his head and the great Matoka in his thrilling slides for life on a slender wire extending nearly the entire length of the "big top." There are truly wonderful exhibitions of bareback riding, dancing horses, the Flying Earls, the Conners in tight wire evolutions, Miss Irma, a living replica of Mary Pickford—acclaimed to be "The Mary Pickford of the high wire."

The Sparks Circus has the reputation of giving more for the money than any other circus in the tented field and all the features will be seen in the glittering, bewildering street parade at 10:30 o'clock on circus day.

An Unusual Anniversary.

The one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Orange Presbytery of the Presbyterian church will be celebrated at Hawfields church Sunday, Sept. 5th. The church at Hawfields antedates the founding of the Presbytery somewhat over 10 years. It marks an unusual fact in North Carolina history, and is among the comparatively few churches in the State that date back that far. An attractive program has been prepared.

A matter of interest to this community is the fact that the Presbyterian church of Graham is the oldest daughter of Hawfields, being organized in 1856. As a mark of respect for the mother church, the congregation of the Graham church will worship, weather permitting, with the Hawfields congregation and Orange Presbytery meeting there at this time, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Receiver's Sale of Real Property.

Under and by virtue of an order of the Superior Court made in a Special Proceeding entitled Harry Goodman, Receiver of the Graham Motor Car Company, vs. C. M. Gant and others, the undersigned Receiver will, on SATURDAY, OCT. 2, 1920,

at 12 o'clock, noon, on the premises in Graham, sell the following described property, to wit:

A certain tract or parcel of land in the Town of Graham, said county and State, and described as follows: Being Lots Nos. 5 and 6 of the Whitsett property sold by the Graham Loan & Trust Co. for the Graham Land Company on May 31, 1915, a plat of which is recorded in the Register of Deed's office for Alamance county, in Plat Book No. 1, page 40, to which reference is hereby expressly made for a more particular description, said lots fronting twenty feet each on East Elm street, and running back 100 feet, the said property having been conveyed to Jonathan Thompson by the Graham Land Company. Deed recorded in Deed Book 55, page 492, together with all improvements thereon, to include the business now known as the Graham Motor Car Company, and the machinery, appliances and fixtures in the machine shop of the Graham Motor Car Company, in accordance with the inventory this day filed with the said C. M. Gant and others.

Terms of Sale: Cash.
This property is the property known as the Tate-Small Garage and is located on East Elm street, near the court house, and consists of the Garage Building, and all of the implements and tools used in the said garage.

This 2nd day of Sept., 1920.
H. GOODMAN,
Receiver.

J. J. Henderson, Attorney for Receiver.

PALMY DAYS.

"You are always talking about old times," complained the confidential adviser.

"I know it," confessed Senator Sorghum. "I can't help yearning for the sweet, simple life when all a man in my business had to do was to look the interests of his district over and make up his mind whether he favored protection or free trade."

AIRPLANE DELIVERY RAPID.

The rapid delivery service by airplane between Paris and London made it possible for a gentleman to order some cigars of his London dealer by telephone in the morning and they were delivered to the purchaser at half-past three in the afternoon of the same day.

CURIOSITY SATISFIED.

Stay-at-Home—I think I will go this summer to tour the battlefields in France. Would you like to go? Returned Soldier—I helped to make them battlefields.

SHIPPING CONSTRUCTION.

The world's tonnage of merchant shipping is greater than ever before and is increasing more rapidly than at any former period in maritime history.

TOKYO UP TO DATE.

Tokyo will have a 15-mile subway, solving the problems of its traffic in a truly modern manner.

AN ADDED CHANCE.

"Why do you insist on picking out a pretty girl for a clerk?"
"A homely girl isn't always competent."
"Well?"
"Now, if I pick out a pretty girl, one of the men clerks will do her work."
