Ask Peanut Tariff.

Importation of peanuts from China threatens to ruin the growers of America, according to a statement which is being distributed to farmers in the Southern states by the United Peanut Association of America, urging them to co-operate for their own protection. The association proposes as a remedy a restrictive tariff on peanuts and vegetable oils.

The production of peanuts in China, it asserts, has increased on a tremendous scale in the past few years, and the importations for the year ending June 30, it adds, were in excess of 150,000,000 pounds.

SHOP FORCE AND WAGE REDUCTION

NORFOLK AND WESTERN RAILWAY SYSTEM INAUGURATES RETRENCHMENT POLICY.

RETRENCHMENTS ARE GRADUAL

Instructions issued to Department Heads to Give Organizations Under Them Careful Study.

Roanoke, Va.—Notice of a 20 per cent reduction in the shop forces on the Norfolk and Western railway system, beginning with laborers and helpers, effective October 16, has been posted in the company's shops, it was learned here. Though not officially stated, it is understood the reductions will eventually reach mechanics.

N. D. Maher, president of the road, announced that the reduction in the working forces will be gradual.

He added that it is not contemplated to make any "big reduction" and that wherever retrenchment is made it will be "carefully studied out beforehand, so as not to impair the road's efficiency."

It was learned that in a number of departments minor reductions already have been made. According to an official officers of departments have been instructed to "give careful study to their organization with a view to effecting all economies possible." These instructions, it is said, apply to clerical as well as mechanical branches.

HARDING VISITS THE ATLANTA BRANCH

MEETS WITH DIRECTORATE TO DISCUSS COTTON HOLDING FOR HIGHER PRICE

MORE LIBERALITY IS WANTED

Declaration Was Made That Planters Are Not Seeking Money Simply to Finance Themselves.

Birmingham, Ala.—W. P. G. Harding, president of the board of governors of the federal reserve bank, with D. C. Wells, newly appointed member of the board, met with the directorate of the Atlanta branch and discussed the movement to hold cotton for 40 cents a pound.

L. B. Jackson, director of the Georgia bureau of markets, who said he was speaking for 90 per cent of the banks in his own state, made a plea before the board for a more liberal extension of credit to southern planters, claiming they need the money to pay off debts incurred while producing the present crop of cotton.

Mr. Jackson asked that members of the federal reserve system be allowed to discount notes for money to be used in paying of wages, fertilizer and supply bills. He also declared that a great majority of planters were not seeking money, simply to finance themselves while they were holding cotton off the market. They are hard pressed by creditors, he said, and must have cash at once with which to meet obligations incurred this summer.

End of Bolshevism Near.

Washington.—The end of bolshevism in Russia is believed by officials of the state department to be near enough to begin considering what will follow soviet rule.

The danger of anarchy and chaos in Russia following bolshevism is real, it was said by an official of the department who, however, expressed the belief that the zemozovs have been so well organized that they will be able to maintain order until a new and stable government is set up.

General Wrangel is reported to be receiving considerable support from the population of the territory under his control in south Russia and as his area of control increases his system of government is being installed. The anti-bolshevik leader is sub-dividing the big estates.

ALASKA NOT YET ANNOUNCED

The 105,683,108 Reported does not include Approximately 12,250,000 in Our Outlying Possessions.

Washington.—The total population of continental United States is 105,683,108, an increase of 13,710,842 or 14.9 per cent.

This figure does not include approximately 12,250,000 people living in the country's outlying possessions. The population of Alaska and the total classed under the military and naval service abroad are yet to be announced.

The growth of the country's population was not expected to show so large a relative increase during the last decade as during the previous decade ending with 1910 because of the almost complete stoppage of immigration during the world war and the heavy emigration during that period. In the decade ending with 1910, the total population of the United States, exclusive of its outlying possessions, was 91,972,266. During those ten years the numerical increase was the largest of any decade in its history while the rate of growth was 21.6 per cent. The gain in that decade was four times what the total population of the country was in 1790 when the first Federal census was taken, while the total population in 1910 was almost 23 times larger than it was in 1790.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

Internal revenue receipts for 12 months in southern states follows: Alabama, $18,435,952; District of Columbia, $18,645,052; Florida, $15,673,811; Georgia, $43,254,552; Kentucky, $49,689,812; Louisiana, $51,324,996; Maryland, $81,452,867; Mississippi, $11,788,366; Missouri, $149,492,659; North Carolina, $162,667,320; South Carolina, $27,074,436; Tennessee, $36,522,992; Texas, $106,097,940; Virginia, $69,761,127; and West Virginia, $33,628,726.

WANT CONFERENCE WITH PRESIDENT

REPRESENTATIVE OF FARMER ORGANIZATIONS FROM ALL SECTIONS TAKE ACTION.

WANNAMAKER THE CHAIRMAN

The Policy of Deflation as Laid Down by Secretary Houston and Federal Reserve Board is Criticized.

Washington.—Appointment of a committee to present to the White House a request for a conference with President Wilson and his cabinet for submission of the needs of agriculturists, was decided upon at a meeting here of representatives of farm organizations from all parts of the United States. The committee chosen consists of a representative from each of the farm organizations.

The farmers' representative also decided to ask for a conference with the federal reserve board.

J. S. Wannamaker, president of the American Cotton Association, who was named chairman of the committee, said it will ask that the federal reserve system provide credits to enable farmers to market their products at a profit, that the war finance corporation or some similar body be re-habilitated to finance exports and that federal officials cease issuing statements, it was said, tend to bring down the price of agricultural products.

In a speech, Mr. Wannamaker declared the outlook for the agricultural interests are dark and he criticized the policy of deflation as stated by Secretary Houston and the federal reserve board.

Keep Your Skin-Pores Active and Healthy With Cuticura Soap

Herbert often complained about the peculiar disposition of his small cousin, with whom he could not get along well. After a recent disagreement he came into the house out of patience and exclaimed: "Well, mother, James and I might just as well quit trying to be friends if he is my cousin. We just can't agree. He's too full of human nature."

Seated of the Trouble. Herbert often complained about the peculiar disposition of his small cousin, with whom he could not get along well. After a recent disagreement he came into the house out of patience and exclaimed: "Well, mother, James and I might just as well quit trying to be friends if he is my cousin. We just can't agree. He's too full of human nature."

DISAGREEABLE TASTE IN MOUTH

Stomach Was Out of Order and Head Ached, So Kentucky Man Took Black-Draught—"It Cured Me," He Says.

Nancy, Ky.—Mr. Marlon Holcomb, of this place, says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, also a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache.

"I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these I would be constipated. It just seemed to fear my stomach up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble.

"I heard Theford's Black-Draught recommended very highly, so I began to use it. It cured me. I keep it in the house all the time. It is the best liver medicine made. I do not have sick headache or stomach trouble any more."

When suffering from headache, constipation, stomach or liver trouble, try the old and well-recommended, purely vegetable, Theford's Black-Draught.

Just as Black-Draught brought relief to Mr. Holcomb, so it also has to thousands of others, and should help you, too.

Insist on having the genuine.—Adv.
