Big Ben should be in every farmer's home

You men who live on the farm have got to be heavy workers. And if you are heavy workers you require heavy sleep, and lots of it.

For heavy sleep is heavy work's reaction and it's not always easy for the heavy sleeper to get up without help.

That's where Big Ben comes in. He makes it easy every morning.

Big Ben is a truth-telling and reliable alarm clock.

He gets you up, he never fails.

You're always up on the dot if he's in the sleeping room.

See him in my window next time you come to town. Hear him greet you Good Morning. 'He is well worth meeting, indeed.

W. S. CRAWFORD FOR SHERIFF.

(Political Advertisement.)

TO THE PEOPLE OF ALAMANCE COUNTY: When I was nominated for the position of Sheriff of Alamance County, I accepted it with the idea of service rather than salary; and I am sure that I can render some service to the county:

1st. In helping to formulate a better system for road work.

2nd. In organizing the county for better law enforcement. For the first, in the case of election, I will need and ask for the cooperation of all the forward-looking people of the county; for the latter I shall ask every church and civic organization to co-operate with the office, in the enforcing of the law and in making our county a better place to live in.

Many of my friends have asked me if I really want the place and want their support. My answer is, I DO. I promise, if elected, to give the work my personal attention, and to put no relative or personal friends in office and to serve all the people of the county irrespective of party.

I have given much thought and worked hard, often sacrificing time and money, for the rebuilding of the Town of Mebane. I believe I can be of some service to the county. The salary is too small to be especially attractive, but the opportunity for service has never been greater. I shall, if elected, try to meet this opportunity and merit your friendship and support.

Yours truly,
W. S. CRAWFORD.
Mebane, N. C., Oct. 27, 1920.

The following appeared in this week's issue of The Mebane Enterprise:

While the Enterprise has been strictly non-partisan, we do not believe that strict observance of this policy bars us from saying a word in favor of the election of our fellow townsman, Mayor W. S. Crawford, to the office of Sheriff of Alamance county.

It is frequently stated that Mr. Crawford has done more for the rebuilding of Mebane than any other citizen. He modestly deprecates this statement, but having known him and his work for the past five years, we are inclined to indorse the opinion of his friends and neighbors.

If elected to the office of Sheriff, he will carry the same high purpose to work to the best interests of the people of Alamance county.

The voters of Mebane and Melville township where he is so well known should and will give him a substantial majority.

Receiver's Sale of Personal Property.

Under an Order of the Superior Court made in the matter of Florence B. MacConnell vs. The MacConnell Electrical Supply & Construction Company, the undersigned Receiver will, on SATURDAY, OCT. 30, 1920, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the store room occupied by the MacConnell Electrical Supply & Construction Company, in the City of Burlington, North Carolina, sell all the personal property belonging to the said Electrical Supply Company.

Among said property is the following: Electric Sewing Machine, Vacuum Cleaner, Electric Iron, Urns, Percolators, Lamps, Electric Fans, Insulator, Bells, Bulbs, Switches, and other electrical implements, machines, fixtures, etc.; also one Wall Case, one Typewriter, and other office supplies and fixtures.

The entire stock of goods included in this sale will inventory approximately $1,500.00.

An inventory of these goods may be seen at the office of the Piedmont Trust Company, with W. J. Graham, Receiver, or at the office of John J. Henderson, Graham, N. C.

Terms of Sale: CASH. This 30th day of Sept., 1920.
W. J. GRAHAM, Receiver.

GOV'T OPERATION OUT OF POLITICS

Party Leaders Convinced by Results of National Censuss of Editors.

VINDICATES FORMER POLL

Overwhelming Veto Like That of Year Before From Both Sides of Political Fence.

Washington.—Inner circles of both political parties here are greatly interested in the results of a national poll on the question of government operation among over 5,000 newspaper editors throughout the country. With 86 per cent of these editors, regardless of political faith, giving it as their impartial opinion that the public is more than ever opposed to the government going into business in competition with its citizens, observers here see little chance that either party will find it a profitable campaign issue.

In the opinion of party leaders this sort of a canvass among newspaper editors is the best possible index of public opinion. They recall a similar questionnaire sent out a year ago in connection with the proposition that the government take over the railroads permanently. Replies at that time from approximately the same number of editors showed 83 per cent against the principle of government operation. They recall also that within ten days from publication of the result of the former questionnaire the sentiment for return of the railroads to their owners had definitely crystallized.

Comparison of present results in detail with those of a year ago convinces the political student not only that these editors have been accurate in their judgment, but that party considerations played no part in forming it. From Democratic and supposedly radical Texas, for example, the present questionnaire brought replies from editors of 244 papers, only three of which are Republican. Yet the percentage against government operation was 92, which is exactly the same as that given by 200 editors from Republican Michigan, among whom were representatives of only three Democratic papers. Other states that pair percentages significantly are Massachusetts and Nevada, with 100; Connecticut and South Carolina, with 97; Maine and West Virginia, with 96; Kentucky and New York, with 91; Missouri and Pennsylvania, with 89; Ohio and Oklahoma, with 87.

The result of the present poll as to government operation in each state are graphically shown by the following chart:

"HOW WELL YOU LOOK!"

When Your Blood is Rich and Red People Notice Your Good Health.

PEPTO-MANGAN BUILDS HEALTH

Pale Face, Dull Eyes, Drooping Shoulders, Result From Clogged Blood

If your blood is in bad shape it shows up in your looks and feeling. When your blood is rich with red corpuscles your color is better—your lips are red, eyes wide open and bright, your good feeling shows in your actions.

Common sense will tell you that if weak, thin blood makes you look lifeless, it lowers your vitality. If your vitality is low you have little power to resist disease germs. Men, women and children with rich, red blood are able to fight off the germs which bring severe illness.

When you feel run down and weak, with no appetite and no ambition, take Pepto-mangan for awhile. It is a great blood tonic. You should begin to feel better within a few days.

Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form. Take either kind you prefer, because they have the value. But be sure you get genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Guide's." The full name, "Guide's Pepto-mangan," should be on the package.—Adv.
