LOCAL NEWS.

The days are nearing the shortest again.

It's now less than ten days till Christmas.

The County Commissioners will meet in adjourned session next Monday, 20th.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. I. Ward, Dec. 15th, 1920, a son. Congratulations.

Mr. Walter E. Story has resigned the position of manager of the Graham Real Estate Co. to take a position in the office of his father, Sheriff Chas. D. Story.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dolph Long moved into their newly remodeled home on N. Main St. last Friday. It is thoroughly modern in every way and equipped throughout with up-to-date conveniences.

Red Cross Christmas Seals are still on sale here. Use them for making up your Christmas seals. They are attractive and the funds for them will be used in the fight against tuberculosis.

Mr. J. W. Apple made The Gleaner a pleasant call Tuesday. Up to a few months ago he lived in Orange, out from Elford, for several years on his farm. He is at Mebane now, and his son John is in charge of the farm.

Clerk of the Superior Court D. J. Walker has just received the pension warrants for the Confederate veterans and widows. He will not send them out for a day or two, as many of them prefer to come to the Clerk's office for them.

Mrs. Ada Folger, who moved here from Dobson the latter part of last summer, is leaving today for her old home at Dobson. The family consists, besides herself, of Sam Folger, a cousin, and her son Hugh, daughter Miss Annie Folger and Miss Sallie Mackey. Miss Folger is music instructor at the Graded School and will continue to teach here.

A Reminder.

Many of the subscribers to The Gleaner are in arrears. Everything that goes to make up a newspaper is costly. While prices for everything were climbing toward the stars, the price of The Gleaner remained unchanged—a dollar a year. The Gleaner has to pay its bills just like others do, so let us remind you to hand or send us your dollar at the earliest convenience.

Social.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Mamie Parker entertained the Burlington-Graham Book Club. Those taking part in the interesting program were Mesdames Roger Gant, Lawrence S. Holt, Jr., and Augustus Bradley of Burlington and Lynn B. Williamson, Will E. White and Frank Moore of Graham. The hostess served delightful refreshments in two courses.

Train Wrecked.

An East-bound through freight was wrecked Wednesday afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock some three or four hundred yards east of the station at Gibsonville. Some 15 cars left the track. A negro hobo and two pals, it is learned, cut the automatic break hose, which caused the wreck. One was caught and told the story, but the others have not been heard from.

Still and Booze Taken.

A few days ago officers captured 8 gallons of whiskey in a lime barrel near the new home of Mr. Walter Euliss on S. Main St. No one claims it of course. Deputy H. J. Stockard and others captured a new still and about ten gallons of whiskey between Little Alamance and Bellemont last Saturday. A colored man named Burton Clapp was at the still and taken into custody.

Boy's Leg Broken.

Bruce, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben B. Holt, aged about twelve years, while playing basketball at the Graded School Tuesday morning before the opening of school, had the misfortune to get one of his legs broken. The ankle was also severely sprained. The fracture is just above the ankle. He was carried to the hospital where the fracture was set. He is doing very well under the circumstances.

PERSONAL.

Maj. J. J. Henderson was in Asheville yesterday on legal business.

Mr. William Scott, in school at the University, spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. M. F. Winters of Wilmington is spending today with Miss Mamie Parker.

Mesdames E. S. Parker, Jr., and Will E. White are shopping in Greensboro today.

Mr. A. Lacy Holt spent Sunday and Monday in Hickory with his daughter, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. Lon Sykes and daughter of Mebane spent the week-end here at the home of her brother, Mr. R. L. Holmes.

Mrs. H. L. Ferguson and children, Mary Elizabeth and H. L., Jr., of Durham spent the week-end with Mrs. W. T. Ezell.

Dr. and Mrs. George Atmore of Stonewall arrived here yesterday evening on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. J. Dolph Long.

Mrs. Don. F. Noyes of Bridgewater arrived here Friday. She is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson, and will spend several weeks here.

Misses Lena Kernodle, Clyde Wright and Hortense Moseley, students at N. C. College for Women, Greensboro, and Mr. Roger McDuffie were the guests of Miss Lorena Kernodle Tuesday evening.

An Approaching Marriage of Interest.

The following announcement, taken from an Asheville paper, is of interest to Graham people. The prospective groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jones of this place, and the bride-elect was reared near Mebane, this county:

Of great interest to a wide circle of friends here is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Capitola Craig of this city to Mr. James Newton Jones, formerly of Salisbury, but now residing in Asheville. The ceremony will take place on Friday, December 24, at 3 o'clock at the first Baptist church and Rev. Dr. W. F. Powell, pastor of the church, will officiate. The matron of honor will be Mrs. F. H. Snipes of Knoxville formerly Miss Janet Jackson, of this city. Mr. Jones will have as his best man, Captain R. E. Lewis and the ushers will be Mr. E. C. Green, Mr. Chester Brown, Mr. Wallace Wright and Mr. John Parker.

Miss Craig is the daughter of Mrs. Craig, of Mebane. For the past two years she has been the church assistant of the First Baptist church of this city, a most important and responsible position which she has executed with great ability. She comes from the prominent North Carolina family of Craigs and is a young woman of rare business ability.

Pupils' Recital.

Miss Folger's music class will give a recital Saturday night, 18th inst., at the Opera House. An interesting program has been prepared for the evening.

DEATHS.

George B. Purcell died at Haw River on 4th inst., aged about 21 years. He was a son of Mr. A. Q. Purcell, who, with two brothers and one sister, survive him. He was a most estimable young man. The funeral was conducted from the Christian church by his pastor, Dr. P. H. Fleming.

Coley, aged about 9 1/2 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wood of Albright township, died Sunday and was buried at Mt. Hermon Monday.

Mrs. Estelov Dead.

Mrs. Grant Estelov died at her home here about 6 o'clock Monday evening, aged about 83 years. The funeral was conducted from the Presbyterian church, of which she was a member, at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning by her pastor, Rev. E. N. Caldwell. The interment was in Linwood cemetery. She had not been in good health for some months, and about eight weeks ago she went to Philadelphia for treatment. Her condition did not improve and Mr. Estelov went after her and brought her home last Saturday. Her youngest daughter, Lenora, had been with her all the while.

Mrs. Estelov, before marriage, was Miss Ella Schenck. She and her husband would have been married 35 years on 25th inst. Their home was at May's Landing, N. J. They came to make Graham their home nearly 22 years ago. Mrs. Estelov was a most gentle and amiable woman and held in the highest esteem by everyone. She is survived by her husband, two sons—John W. of Schoolfield, Va., and Elmer of Washington, D. C., and two daughters—Mary and Lenora; also five brothers and four sisters whose homes are in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

WELL, HERE WE ARE!

Santa Claus Has Come!

Hurrah for everybody! The elections are all over—the returns are all in. Out of 100,000,000 votes in the United States Santa Claus made a clean sweep, burying both Harding and Cox under a regular land-slide. Santa Claus has swept the whole civilized world, including the League of Nations, the isthmus of the seas, and Jerusalem. Undoubtedly this is the greatest victory for the little boys and girls in the history of the world.

It is a pleasure to announce that I now have in stock the greatest variety of Toys, and the most beautiful and valuable presents ever offered in Graham.

The prices are as low and lower than others. You will be pleased if you'll come and look them over. I am looking for you every day to come and pick your choice.

Sincerely yours for a Merry X-mas
