GRAHAM, N. C., July 30, 1925.

Postoffice Hours.

Office open 7.00 a. m. to 7.00 p. m. Sunday 9.00 to 11.00 a. m. and 4.00 to 6.00 p. m. J. R. GUTHRIE, Postmaster.

LOCAL NEWS.

The County Commissioners will meet next Monday in regular monthly session.

Owing to the long drouth, there is a great scarcity of vegetables on the market.

Graham Men's Federation will begin a series of services at Mannedale Sunday next.

Rev. Arthur M. Wood, formerly of Elmira, N. Y., will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

Capt. Sam H. Webb, near Oaks, was in town Wednesday. He said it was dry in that section, just as it is in this section.

If you know any news, tell the Gleaner by "word of mouth" of by letter or note. We want to print all the news that is printable.

Rev. H. E. Crutchfield, near Kernersville, will preach at Graham Christian Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to the services.

A number from here are taking in the Sharpe-Isley reunion at Friendship today. Those returning report a large crowd, a hountiful spread, some interesting talks and a general good time.

It continues hot and dry. It has been over two months since a real reasonable rain fell in this locality. Only those who planted corn in lowlands can now hope to make a crop that amounts to anything at all. The upland crop will be exceedingly short, and a amount of rain now can do it much good. The tobacco is being cut short, too, but cotton, we understand, has not suffered so badly. Few recall a drouth of such duration at this season of the year. And the wave continues with little variation—hot day and night.

Fire in Patterson Building.

The fire alarm sounded about 3:30 this morning and the town got up to see what was the matter. When first seen the flames were leaping out of the 3rd story and looked ugly and threatening.

The firemen turned out promptly and one of the Burlington companies came to help. As soon as things were ready it took but a few minutes to get it under control, but it was prompt and well directed effort that saved the principal business block in town.

The fire started in the room on the third floor which is used as a lodge room by the Junior Order, Daughters of Liberty and perhaps another order or two.

The fire is thought to have originated from throwing a cigar or cigarette in a box containing saw dust, and that it had smoldered from 30 to 36 hours. No one, save two persons, is known to have been in the lodge room the day or night before, and neither of these smoked.

The platform upon which the presiding officer sits was consumed and a hole burned through the floor at that point. Two desks were badly charred, also several chairs were burned or charred. The floor of the room was not badly damaged; not so much so as the ceiling. All the windows of the third floor next to Main St. and some of those on side next to Court Square were broken.

At first sight of the fire it looked like the block was doomed, but thanks to the firefighters the danger had soon vanished.

The first to discover the fire were the two daughters of former Chief of Police W. H. Boswell, who lives almost opposite the Patterson. They called to their parents and Mrs. Boswell, barefoot, ran to the fire house and turned in the alarm. To her is due the gratitude of the owners and tenants of the fire-stricken building and also a hero medal for her bravery.

The total damage will hardly exceed a thousand dollars. The water damage is about equal to that of the fire.

The first floor of the main building under the room where the fire was occupied by Graham Drug Co. and the Citizens Bank. Water ran down into both of these. In this same building are The Little City Store and Graham Hardware Co.

DEATHS.

John T. Shaw died at Mebane Friday afternoon, July 24th, aged 87 years, and was buried at Hawfields Saturday. He is survived by his widow, two sons, Earl and Lacy, one daughter, Miss Barbara Shaw, and a brother; J. S. Shaw, and sister, Mrs. Margaret Stanford of Durham. Mr. Shaw had made his home at Mebane most of his life. He conducted a jewelry business and had been mayor of his town a number of years. He was a 32nd degree Mason and he was buried with Masonic honors. Mr. Shaw was one of the county's most highly esteemed citizens and his numerous friends sincerely regret passing.

Mrs. Susie Jane Coble, wife of Earl Coble, died on 13th inst., in the Mt. Hermon section, aged 24 years. She and her infant were buried at Mt. Hermon on the 14th. Funeral services were conducted by Dr. C. B. Hall of Durham. She is survived by her husband and two small children.

Mrs. Vera Pearl Dixon, wife of Jas. P. Dixon, near Snow Camp, died at St. Leo's Hospital while undergoing an operation on 17th inst. She was 34 years old and is survived by her husband and two children. The burial was at Cape Creek church on 18th.

James Albert Johnson died last Saturday morning at Swepsonville, aged 57 years. His wife and several children survive him. The burial was at Mt. Pleasant church in Chatham county, and the funeral was conducted by Rev. F. A. Lunpton of Swepsonville.

Malcom A. Godfrey, aged 72 years, died Sunday at Hillsboro where he was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Taylor; death resulting from a stroke of paralysis two weeks before. The burial was at Bethel church in Newlin Township. Mr. Godfrey lived in Graham for a number of years and was a highly esteemed citizen. His home was near Bethel. His wife died three years ago, and three sons and three daughters survive him. He was a member of Graham Council Jr. O. U. A. M., and he was buried with Junior Order honors.

Mrs. Martha J. Way, widow of John Way, died suddenly at Mebane Wednesday morning from a stroke of paralysis. She was attending a meeting being conducted by her son and was stricken while at services. The burial was at Pleasant Hill. She made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Otis Crutchfield, in Burlington.

Billie Reid, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hunter, died Monday. The remains were carried to Moore's Chapel for interment. A large number of friends sympathized with the bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn B. Williamson are moving from here to Greensboro this week to their handsome new home in Irving Park. They have made their home here for the past ten years or more, and their good friends here sincerely regret their going away.

Mr. Williamson is one of the county's foremost business men and is a leader in the cotton milling business. Up to the death of the late L. Banks Holt he was the general manager of the four mills belonging to the L. Banks Holt Mfg. Co., and since Mr. Holt's death he has been president and treasurer of the company. Besides these he is interested other cotton milling business and other business enterprises. But we are pleased to say he is not severing his business relations in Alamance.

Mrs. Williamson has been a leading spirit in church work and the social life of the community and her kindly counsel and gracious deeds will be sorely missed. She has endeavored herself to all with whom she has come in contact.

They have sold their splendid residence here to Mr. Walter R. Harden, who will move in as soon as it is vacated.

THE SOUTHERN SERVES THE SOUTH Faith in the South and courage to back it It took courage to turn more than a hundred million dollars of the earnings of this railroad back into the property without paying a dividend for thirty years. Faith in the South stood back of this program. Now, after thirty years, this faith has borne its fruit. The South is prosperous. The Southern Railway has come into its own, and Southern Railway securities are taking their rightful place in the investment markets.
