

THE GLEANER

(GRAHAM, N. C., AAR. 5, 1928)

LOCAL NEWS.

The Durham Exposition opens next Monday and closes Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom May moved here from Reidsville a few days ago.

With the swelling of the buds baseball is coming with long strides.

Mr. Julius F. Thompson is remodeling his residence on S. Main Street.

The temperature today warrants us, we believe, in saying "spring-time has come, gentle Annie."

Today, we are informed, ends the detour period on account of work on the underpass at Haw River.

Mr. J. DeWitt Foust, who underwent an operation at Rainey Hospital nearly three weeks ago, was brought home today. He is steadily improving.

Durham Exposition next week. In the beauty show Graham will be represented by Miss Dolly Watson, who won in a contest held here two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Warren are being congratulated upon the birth of a son, John Frank Warren, Jr. The young hopeful arrived last Thursday, 29th ult.

Green & McClure are getting ready for a big showing of new spring furniture styles. They will give out the time and particulars soon. So be on the lookout.

Graham schools close today for the Easter holidays and will reopen next Tuesday. The teachers, living at a distance, are leaving this afternoon and tomorrow to spend the season at their homes.

Graham Chapter U. D. C. is holding its regular monthly meeting this afternoon at the home of Miss Mamie Parker. She and Mesdames Allen B. Thompson and Armstrong Holt are joint-hostesses for the session.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Thompson have moved to the new apartment just completed by Mr. Z. T. Hadley on the second floor of the business room, part of the Graham hotel property, next to his jewelry store.

Thos. O. Coble is going right ahead with preparations to start his bakery. The equipment is being placed as fast as circumstances will permit. Don't quit eating bread until he starts up; then, when he has started, don't fail to give his product a fair trial. He is doing something worth while.

The cooperative shipment of 6,000 pounds of live poultry and 1,500 dozen of eggs, made by 110 producers last Thursday, brought $1400. The sale and shipment was arranged for and managed by County Agent W. Kerr Scott. The poultry brought from 18 to 22 cents per pound and the eggs 22 cents per dozen.

"Hardrock" Simpson is still in the running in the Los Angeles-to-New York marathon. He is many hours in elapsed time behind the leaders. It will take about two months yet to complete the course, so it seems the victory will resolve itself into a matter of endurance. They are dropping out every few days, and the leader today may lose out tomorrow. About two-thirds of the starters have fallen out and only about one-third of the distance has been covered.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

PERSONAL

Miss Nina Holt spent the week-end in High Point.

Miss Annie Ruth Harden is visiting school friends in Laurinburg this week.

Mr. John B. Stratford returned yesterday from a ten-day business trip to Richmond, Va.

Mr. J. Dolph Long spent the latter part of last week in Washington, D. C., on business.

Miss Mabel Moore attended a week-end house party in Apex at the home of Miss Era Maynard.

Mrs. Walter R. Harden visited her mother, Mrs. Phipps, in Guilford the latter part of last week.

Miss Mamie Parker returned Monday from a ten-days stay at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovick H. Kernodle of Danville spent Sunday here at the home of the former's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lee, Miss Emily and John D., Jr., spent Sunday with Mrs. J. D. Allen near Wake Forest.

Miss Lena Brown, of Graded School faculty, leaves tomorrow morning for her home at Pinehurst to spend the Easter holidays.

Miss Nina Burnett Moore of Salisbury, student at N. C. C. W., arrived this morning to spend the Easter holidays with Mrs. Jas. S. Cook.

Mrs. Frank Hunsucker and children, Frank, Jr., and Sarah Coe, spent Saturday here at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Goley.

Mrs. McBride Holt went to High Point this morning and from there will accompany a party to Charleston to see the "Magnolia Gardens" in flower.

Supt. W. A. Young attended the meeting of the Northwestern District Educational Association in Winston-Salem the latter part of last week.

Mr. Taylor Atmore and son of Washington visited his mother, Mrs. George S. Atmore, here at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. Dolph Long last week.

Mrs. F. M. Laxton of Charlotte, who had been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Will E. White, returned home last Thursday. Mr. Laxton came the day before and returned home with her.

Maj. and Mrs. J. J. Henderson, Mrs. J. D. Kernodle, Miss Cora Emmaline Henderson, and Peter Harden, Jr., went to Pinehurst last Sunday afternoon to see the peach orchards in bloom.

Mrs. McBride Holt spent the latter part of last week in High Point with relatives. Mr. Holt and Miss Martha Holt went up Sunday and Mrs. Holt and Miss Ada Denny, who had been in Florida for a month, returned home with them.

Misses Elizabeth and Annie Ruth Harden, Margaret Stockard, Era Ray, Mabel Moore, Erzell Geanes and Vera Thomas, in school at N. C. C. W., Greensboro, are spending this week, the Spring holidays, here at their respective homes. They will return Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayo R. Rives and daughter, Miss Mary Worsley, are leaving this afternoon for Williamson to spend Easter at the home of his father, Miss Inabelle Worthington, of the Graded School faculty, going to her home at Greenville to spend Easter, accompanies them as far as Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

We were asked a few days ago how early and how late Easter could occur. The rule is: Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the 21st of March. So then by the rule Easter cannot be earlier than March 22nd, nor later than April 24th. Hence Easter, a movable feast, is governed by the time of the fulling of the moon. We condense this information from a treatise on the subject contained in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual Easter egg hunt at Alamance Poultry Farms will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This egg hunt is an annual affair and is always participated in by large crowds. This farm is located at Saxapahaw and is owned by Jos. A. Nicholson and Sons. Fishing will be allowed free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Elise and Catherine, and Mrs. D. F. Noyes spent Sunday at Oak Ridge. From there Mrs. Noyes went to Charlotte for a few days, and from there she goes to Charleston, S. C., and later to Brevard for a week's visit to her niece, Mrs. Roy Long.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. Steven Simmons in Washington, D. C., and is at the home of her son, Col. Don E. Scott. Mrs. Simmons and little daughter, Frances Scott, arrives tomorrow to spend some time before sailing for the Phillipine Islands where Maj. Simmons has an assignment.

Graham High School Juniors Banquet the Seniors.

On last evening the Seniors of Graham High School were guests of the Juniors at a very delightful banquet given at the Methodist Hut.

The dining hall and tables were appropriately decorated, in the class colors—lavender and white.

The menu consisted of the following:

- Grape-fruit Cocktail
- Broiled Ham—Saratoga Chips
- Cream Peas in Patties
- Pressed Chicken
- Celery Pickles
- Congeeled Fruit Salad
- Rolls Saltines
- Ice Cream Cake
- Coffee with Whipped Cream
- After Dinner Mints

During the banquet hour inspiring music was furnished by the Elon College orchestra and the following program of exercises carried out:

- Toast master, Frank Holt.
- Invocation, Rev. A. C. Holler.
- Welcome, Frank Holt.
- Toast to Seniors, Maie Roney.
- Response, Doris Moser.
- Toast to town, Elva Thomas.
- Response, Mr. Clarence Ross.
- Reading, Lavona Black.
- Toast to Board of Trustees, Leslie Nicholson.
- Response, Mr. A. P. Williams.
- Toast to faculty, Annie Thompson.
- Response, Supt. W. A. Young.
- Male quartet, Junior boys.
- Toast to Sophomores and Freshmen, James White.
- Responses, Nell Holt and William Jeffreys.
- Toast to P. T. A., Doris Crutchfield.
- Response, Mrs. Don Scott.
- Violin solo, Lucile Jordan.
- Music furnished by Elon Orchestra.

The guests of honor for the evening consisted of the following fourteen members of the Senior class.

- Wineil Courtney, Myrtle Foushee, Ella Maie Guthrie, Flossie Holt, Fannie Jones, Myrtle Jordan, Doris Moser, Madeline Nicholson, Clara Walker, Adele Williams, James Corbett, Foster Hughes, Maurice Moore and Odell Moser.

Other guests of the delightful occasion were: Mr. W. E. Harrop, Mr. W. A. Holler, Mrs. J. W. Holt, Mrs. S. S. Holt, Miss Nell Holt, Mr. William Jeffreys, Mrs. H. G. McBane, Mr. Clarence Ross, Mrs. Don Scott, Mr. A. B. Thompson, Mrs. A. B. Thompson, Mr. M. E. Yount and Mrs. W. A. Young.

The waitresses officiating during the evening contributed much to the pleasure of the banqueters and deserve honorable mention. They were: Edna Crawford, Mary Ida Evans, Edna Jeffreys, Annie McIntyre, Gayle Smith, Pauline Smith and Margaret Thomas.

The evening marked a "red letter day" in the school life of both guests and hosts and in after years will be a most pleasant memory of school life.

Waiting for a Mattress.

A jolly, jostling crowd of circus proportions gathered at Rich & Thompson's furniture store Saturday night to find out who would be the fortunate one to get the $35.00 mattress. Most of them had visions of it going to their homes. But all were good sports and when it narrowed down to a lucky one, there was no resentment. The first name drawn from the ticket box was Heenan Hughes. He did not answer—he's been kicking himself around ever since. His name was discarded and the next was "Bessie Clapp or Joe Clapp"—matrimonial partners. During the waiting the victrolas entertained. But when the lucky name was announced, interest vanished and so did the crowd.

Annual State S. S. Convention.

Concord will entertain the annual State S. S. convention on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week—April 10, 11 and 12. Sessions will be held in the First Baptist church.

In addition to a large list of prominent State Sunday school workers and those employed by the N. C. S. S. Association, there will be others of national prominence.

The out-of-State speakers will be Dr. Charles P. Wiles, Philadelphia, Editor of Sunday School publications for the United Lutheran Church; Miss Mabel Lee Cooper, New York, Director of Teacher Training in the Department of Religious Education of the Protestant Episcopal Church; Dr. Wade Crawford Barclay, Chicago, Executive Secretary of the Committee on Religious Education in Foreign Fields of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Mrs. Elizabeth M. Finn, Philadelphia, Director of Young People's work for the Northern Baptist Sunday School Board.

Wanted—Position as book keeper. Business training. Young married man. References. Apply X Y Z, Care THE GLEANER, Graham, N. C.

Judge Bond Dies Suddenly.

On last Saturday morning Judge W. M. Bond was found dead in his room at his hotel in Durham. He left a call with the hotel clerk for Saturday morning and when he did not respond his door was forced and his body found lying on the floor.

Apparently he was returning from the bath room. An examination convinced the doctors that he died from a sudden heart attack. The body was still warm when found about 7 o'clock.

Judge Bond was holding a term of Durham Superior Court, which ended Saturday, and he was scheduled to hold Alamance court this week.

Judge Bond's home was at Edenton, where he had practiced his profession with signal success since the year 1880 and until his elevation to the Bench about 15 years ago. He was about 70 years of age and is survived by two sons, both prominent lawyers, and a daughter who lives in Edenton.

Store, Cottage and Storage House Burned Here This Morning.

At 3:30 this morning the firemen were called to a fire of unknown origin near Graham station. When discovered the fire was well under way. A small two-story wooden store, owned by J. Clarence Walker, was ablaze. Wade Hanford and family lived over the store and barely had time to get out. The store room contained a lot of goods lately moved in by Lawrence Goins but not opened up. All was burned.

A cottage a few feet from the store, occupied by Tommy Martin's family, was burned but some of the furnishings were saved.

A shell of a storage house near by was also burned with contents. Levin Bros. had a lot of various kinds of junk stored in it. It is not learned who owned it.

Robb B. Newlin Inspector of Weights and Measures.

Mr. R. B. Newlin, of Graham No. 2, has been appointed inspector of weights and measures. The appointment comes through the State Department of Agriculture.

Besides the testing of weights and measures in a general way, he will test the measures used in selling gasoline at service stations. It appears that such inspector will perform the duties at one time attended to by what was known as "standard keepers." It was at the instance of Mr. George R. Ross that Mr. Newlin was appointed and he selected a good man. Mr. Newlin will enter upon his duties within the next week or ten days.

Two Fire Alarms Saturday Morning.

On last Saturday morning at 7:45 a fire alarm was turned in. Carl Foust had driven his Ford coupe into Graham Hardware Co.'s warehouse in the rear of their store and gone into the store. Going back a few minutes later he found his car in a blaze. Quick action on the part of the firemen averted what could have developed into a serious fire in a very short while. The car was ruined, but other damage very small.

At 10:15 another alarm was turned in. This was on account of a blaze on the roof of an outhouse at Curry Walker's. This, too, was quickly put out. Only a hole was burned in the roof.

Among the Sick.

Mrs. Jas. H. Moser has returned to her home from Rainey hospital where she was under treatment. She is much improved.

Mrs. C. A. Albright, about three and a half miles southeast of Graham, was carried to a hospital in Greensboro last Thursday and underwent an operation Friday.

Mrs. W. Lee Andrews is sick at her home on N. Maple St.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Newlin, on Graham Route 1, was carried to Rainey Hospital Monday for treatment on account of measles trouble. An operation will be the last resort.

Justice Brogdon to Preach at Baptist Church.

On Sunday morning next, at 11 o'clock, Associate Justice W. J. Brogdon of the State Supreme Court will preach at the Baptist church. We are sure the people of Graham will be pleased to hear the learned and distinguished gentleman.

The first cooperative cart of lime to be ordered by farmers of Caldwell county in 1928 was unloaded last week. Fifteen farmers in the county are planting sweet clover for the first time this spring.

E. S. Askew of Bertie county recently planted 125 pecan trees which he bought through the North Carolina Pecan Growers' Society.

Trustee's Re-Sale of Real Property.

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of trust made by J. S. Clark (unmarried) to Carolina Mortgage and Indemnity Company (now Carolina Mortgage Company), Trustee, dated the 1st day of March, 1926, and recorded in Book 104 at page 319, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Alamance county, default having been made in the payment of the notes there secured, and the holder thereof having directed that the deed of trust be foreclosed, the undersigned Trustee will offer for sale at the courthouse door in the city of Graham at twelve o'clock, noon, on and will sell to the highest bidder for cash, or at least one-half cash and the balance upon such credit as the Trustee may determine, the following described real estate in the Town of Mebane, State of North Carolina, and more particularly described as follows:

FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1928

1st Lot: Beginning at a stake on the eastern side of 4th St., 50 ft. from the corner of Clay St; running th