

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., NOV. 26, 1931.

LOCAL NEWS

—This is Thanksgiving—Christmas next, only a month off.

—We are saving a copy of the Pathfinder for you. No charge.

—The hunting season is almost wide open now and many are a-field these days with gun and dog.

—Hon. J. Elmer Long of Durham and Hon. A. L. Brooks and Mr. Hampton of Greensboro have been here attending court this week.

—Union Thanksgiving services were held in the Public School auditorium this morning at 10 o'clock, sponsored by the Graham Ministerial Association.

—The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Henderson, Mary Scott Henderson, was carried to Sanatorium Tuesday by Mrs. J. Dolph Long for treatment.

—Graham Public School closed yesterday afternoon till Monday for the Thanksgiving holiday and most of the teachers have gone to their homes to spend the brief vacation.

—The industrial plants here blew their whistles for work this morning as usual. Some of the other places of business opened up as usual, while others closed for the day.

—The cold wave that has gripped the Northwest and West for more than a week turned East the first of the week and this morning was cooler than it has been here in about half a month.

—Dr. W. C. Wicker will fill his pulpit at Graham Christian church next Sunday morning. For the ensuing year there will be preaching at this church on each third and fifth Sunday morning.

—Pleasant Autumn has been lolling in the lap of old Winter until the latter has tired of the familiarity and he is now pushing her aside for more congenial companionship. We expected as much.

—Chapel Hill is mecca for football fans today to see the Virginia-Carolina game. From the stream of cars passing here, one would almost conclude that everybody from the western part of the State would be on hand to witness the classic.

—Judge Stack, holding Court here this week and last, intent on reducing the size of the docket, waived the holiday and is working today. He has disposed of a number of cases by nonsuit where the parties failed to appear when the case was called in due course.

W. Kerr Scott Brings The National Grange to North State.

he National Grange closed its convention at Madison, Wisconsin last week. When the time came for the selection of a meeting place for the 1932 convention, Mr. W. Kerr Scott of Alamance, who is Master of the North Carolina State Grange, made a plea for the next convention to be held in North Carolina.

Mr. Scott told the convention that the South was the birth place of the Grange and that the organization owes it to the South "to come home for its next convention."

In the 65 years of the existence of the organization it has never held a national convention in the South, notwithstanding it is of Southern origin.

At the time Mr. Scott made his plea the convention was on the verge of selecting Washington City.

Mr. Scott is to be congratulated on being able to swing the convention to his home State.

Bank of Haw River Cashier Held Up Again.

Two hold-ups in a week are quite enough. Mr. J. Archie Long no doubt thinks. Last Friday at 2:30 P. M. he handed out $500 over the bank counter with a gun muzzle peering in his face. On the Friday before he handed out $1,000 on the highway between Burlington and Haw River under similar conditions.

An unmasked man, giving his name as Tut Kimrey of Graham, walked into the bank last Friday afternoon, pointed a gun at Mr. Long, told him to hold 'em up and hand out the cash and do it quick. Mr. Long at first thought it a joke but the demeanor of the bandit convinced him that he was in dead earnest.

The robber grabbed the roll and dashed out in a run. Mr. Long called the Sheriff's office. In a few

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stuart of Shelby spent last week-end here with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moore.

Miss Margaret Stockard and Era Ray, teaching at Jasper, Miss Mable Moore at Ruffin, came yesterday to spend the holidays at their respective homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cooper of Blackey, Ky., came Tuesday for a visit to the former's father, Mr. W. L. Cooper. They will return by Charlotte for a visit to Mrs. Cooper's mother, Mrs. E. C. Murray.

Dr. E. L. Moffitt of Asheboro was a business visitor here Tuesday. He was former president of Elon College, for a number of years and during the summer and early fall he has done some work for the college.

Dr. and Mrs. Sam Vest of Baltimore arrived here the later part of last week on a visit to the former's parents at Haw River and the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson, here. They are returning to Baltimore today. In the mean time Dr. Vest made a business trip to Cincinnati.

minutes, not more than ten, Sheriff Stockard reported for duty. The thief had crossed the railroad tracks and was going down the east bank of the river, but the Sheriff and others made short work of bringing him to a halt. All the money was recovered, but the bandit had had time to place it all about his person and it was necessary to nearly strip him to get it.

An accomplice was seen to swim the river, but he has not been taken. Kimrey was brought to Graham and lodged in jail.

Dr. L. E. Smith Accepts Presidency of Elon College, Conditionally.

The announcement was made the first of the week that Dr. Leon Edgar Smith, pastor of Christian Temple church, Norfolk, Va., had accepted the presidency of Elon College, and that he would enter upon his duties as such on next Monday. But the acceptance is made with certain reservations. It is understood that the acceptance is only till next January 15th, unless the efforts and donations on the part of the friends of the college warrant his continuance in office. A $50,000 campaign has been authorized, the success of which will claim his energies and attention forthwith.

On October 20th a special session of the Southern Christian Convention was held in Burlington for the purpose of considering the financial needs of the college and the election of a president.

At this session Dr. Smith was the unanimous choice for president. He withheld his answer until a conference could be held with his church and promised an answer on Nov. 16th. It was a few days later when the announcement of the conditional acceptance was made. His church granted him a leave of absence until January 15th, when, depending upon the activities of the friends of the college, he will definitely decide his course for the future.

Dr. Smith is a graduate of the college and is out-standing in the activities of the Christian Church. He is esteemed as a man, a pastor and a leader. He will inspire confidence in the college's future, as he has the confidence of all who know him. At this time it seems that he is the logical man for the task to be undertaken. The church and the friends of the college should hold up his hands.

Fox Hunters Off For a Chase.

A coterie of Alamance fox hunters left the early part of the week for a hunt in the Seven Springs section of Wayne county. The party consisted of ten, the old hands and the new ones being coached, as follows: Phil S. Dixon, R. T. Kernodle, S. L. Dixon, Lanny Bailey, Major Coble, Wade Ellington, L. E. Atwater, Wilson Davis, Geo. Brunston and Robt. Love, Jr.

They have a lodge furnished at Quincey A. Smith's at Seven Springs and are closing this expedition with a community Thanksgiving barbecue today. Let us hope that they have had good luck and enjoyed the outing.

FRESHNESS

— that's the thing!
CAMELS are never parched or toasted

HAVE you noticed the new trend in cigarettes?—
freshness is the popular thing.

That's because a fresh cigarette, as demonstrated by Camels, is something smokers have discovered as better than anything they ever tried before.

Camels are fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack because they're made fresh to start with — blended of choice, delicately mild, sun-ripened tobaccos in which the natural moisture and fragrant flavors are vigilantly safeguarded.

The tobaccos in Camels are never parched or toasted — the Reynolds method of scientifically applying heat guarantees against that.

That's why we say with so much assurance that Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh — not parched or toasted — and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

Try Camels' freshness for a change. Switch over for just one day, then change back — if you can.

CAMELS

Made FRESH — Kept FRESH

Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against perfume and powder odors, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

Chief Justice Hughes In Tribute to Red Cross

One of the finest tributes ever paid the American Red Cross and its membership was that by Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, of the United States Supreme Court, on the occasion of the fiftieth birthday anniversary of the organization on May 21 of this year. Mr. Hughes said: "The American Red Cross represents the united voluntary effort of the American people in the ministry of mercy. It is the finest and most effective expression of the American heart. It knows no partisanship. In the perfection of its cooperation, there is no blemish of distinctions by reason of race or creed or political philosophy."

"However we may differ in all things else, in the activities of the Red Cross we are a united people. None of our boasted industrial enterprises surpasses it in efficiency. It moves with the precision and the discipline of an army to achieve the noblest of human aims."

"The American Red Cross is not only first in war but first in peace. The American people rely upon its ministrations in every great catastrophe. It has given its aid in over one thousand disasters. When, as we hope, war will be no more, still the Red Cross, in its countless activities of relief and rehabilitation, will continue to function as the organized compassion of our country."

Kaiser Wilhelm's Joke That Embarrassed Czar

It was on the occasion of this meeting at Reval (1902) that William II uttered the jesting words as he approached me arm in arm with the czar: "Do you know how we have decided to style ourselves in the future? Czar Nicholas is from now on 'admiral of the Pacific' and I am 'admiral of the Atlantic.'" Czar Nicholas looked very embarrassed at this. Prince von Bulow writes, in his Memoirs: "To help him I remarked that I was not surprised that a monarch, who in spite of his great power appreciates the welfare wrought by peace as well as the czar does, had decided upon this title of 'pacific.' The ruler of all the Russias agreed very emphatically. But when we were alone I urged the kaiser to refer no more to his horrible joke. His majesty with the obstinacy of an infant terrible brought up the matter again at table to the obvious discomfort of the czar. At last the hour of parting arrived. The two emperors embraced and kissed; the Russian yacht steamed for Kronstadt, when Kaiser William signaled the Russian emperor by way of farewell: "The admiral of the Atlantic bids farewell to the admiral of the Pacific." After a few minutes came the cool reply: "Good-by!"
