

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., SEPT. 8, 1932.

Local News.

Cool enough, a l m o s t, this morning for a little fire. Big contrast with a week ago.

Mrs. M. R. Neese gave a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Black.

The Garden Club completed the canvass last week for the Garden Improvement Contest. There were more than 100 entries.

With a drop in temperature from 35 to 50 in the southeast section of the country the extremely hot weather of the summer of 1932 goes into history.

The hot spell of nearly two weeks, after making some new records, has passed and for the last 2 or 3 days it has been cooler, much to the delight of most everybody.

Early last Friday night the wind velocity almost reached storm proportions. This prospect for rain here was whipped away but there were fairly good rains a few miles north and west of this point, it is learned.

During the summer vacation four of the teachers in the Graham School have married: Miss Margaret McConnell of Gastonia to D. D. Shaw of Graham on July 12th; Miss Elaine Goode of Scotland Neck to Charles E. Saunders of Gibsonville on August 13th; and Miss Frances Upshaw of Social Circle, Ga., and Walter Barrett of Graham, both teachers in the school, on Wednesday of last week. All of them are now making their home in Graham.

Dr. W. C. Wicker Rejoins Elon College Faculty

At present, as for the past five years, Dr. W. C. Wicker is serving Graham Christian church as pastor. He also serves other churches. In the pulpit or wherever he serves, he does it ably and acceptably.

The churches he serves, should it be necessary, would give him up very reluctantly. However, his churches can feel assured that he will serve them as long as he has the physical strength to do so.

Dr. Wicker, one of North Carolina's best known educators and fraternal workers, is returning to the classroom and the teaching profession again. He will reorganize and direct the department of education in the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons.

Born near Sanford, Dr. Wicker entered school at Elon in 1889 and graduated in 1893 with an A. B. degree. Later he attended the University of North Carolina and secured an A. B. from there also. He was principal of the Damascus high school in Orange county for a time and in 1896 joined the faculty at Elon to teach natural science. He later withdrew to pursue graduate work at John Hopkins and to do missionary work in Virginia. He returned to Elon in 1903 to become head of the department of philosophy and language.

In 1909 he became head of the department of mathematics, and after six years he changed and became head of the department of education. Later he had additional graduate work in the University of Virginia and Columbia University.

Seven years ago he resigned from Elon to become field secretary for the Masonic fraternity. He is a 32nd-degree Mason and active in both the York and Scottish rite branches of Masonry.

Dr. Wicker has been treasurer of the Southern Christian convention for 18 years. He holds A. B. and M. A. degrees from Elon, an A. B. from the State university, an M. A. from Columbia university, a professional degree as a teacher of education from Columbia, a D. Lit. from Palmer and a D. D. from Union College.

For the past two years, in addition to his other activities, Dr. Wicker has been pursuing graduate work at the State university and has completed most of the work required for the degree Ph. D.

Dr. Wicker taught Dr. Smith, the Elon president, when he was at Elon from 1906 to 1910.
